One last piece of advise...

Mark Masterson
Superintendent

"Make a real effort to listen to others whose viewpoints are very different from yours."

Make a positive difference.

Daniel Meyer
Assistant Superintendent

Laura Chesson
Principal

Read at least 1 good book every season of the year. It just has to have a great story; it doesn't need to be "literature". Reading keeps your mind sharp and your imagination alive. A good story helps you to "walk a mile" in someone else's shoes.

Have the patience to give others fair warning before you act.

You can achieve anything you want if you work hard...be responsible and challenge yourself to be better at what you do every day...dream the dream and the sky is the limit!

Dedication

Brenda Sullivan & Family

This yearbook is dedicated to Brenda Sullivan and her family for more than just a few reasons.

Brenda Sullivan is not only an amazing coach, teacher, and advisor, she's also a friend, a volunteer, and a second mom to so many of us. The Sullivan-Hayes family has contributed to the community, Maynard High School and our class more the any family we know, thank you!

What would we do without Jack to clean the swamp, paint, chaperone and open his home to us? Who else would donate movies, money for ads, chaperone and take pictures of EVERY event other than Leo and Tootsie? What would we do without Cori's motivation to stand up and make a change or Dylan's catchphrases? Even through the toughest of years, you have been here for us.

From the Class of 2010:

Thank you so much,

We love you!

Say MORE?

"I couldn't imagine high school without you! You always know what to do and have always been there for me. Love you!"

Melissa Chiasson

"Brenda Sullivan is more than just a teacher shes a motivator that pushes you to the limit so you can succeed. And yes, I know why..."

Hendrick Bernard

"Lets see. she does my laundry, gives me money, cooks for me..... What can I say, she's my mom!"

Dylan Sullivan

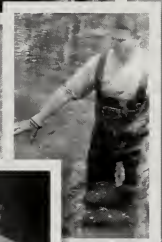

"You taught me, you coached me, you're an amazing mentor. You are an inspirational person and the lessons you taught me will always be with me. My body is a temple. Love you, Brendy!"

Danielle Fairweather

"She's my neighbor, coach, advisor, CCD Teacher, and my second Mom! I don't know what I would do without her, she's the best!"

Mr. Sforza never told a joke?
Mr. Lent was still the principal?
Amy never said "for days"?
Everyone didn't work at Shaws?
We still had studies?

Silva and "Juice" didn't come to Maynard?
We never heard of Ralf?

We never met, the man, the myth, the legend.....Doug Luther?
Meghan Herrick was still here?

The snack machines didn't have tuna?
Brian Fuerst was still shy?

T-nova was actually called Michael and sang country?

The school had a thermostat?
No one ever changed?

Tradition was simply tradition?
Maynard was a big town?

We didn't all know each other?

We got credit for our periwinkle shirts, weren't cheated, and disqualified?
Dylan didn't give everybody nick names and didn't say what was on his mind?

Chris Chiasson didn't have a beard?

Ms. Brennan was quiet?

Hendrick was on the Real World?

Freshmen would learn how to walk in the hallways?

We all didn't know each other since Kindergarten?

We had more than ten minutes to eat lunch?
Everything wasn't such a popularity contest?

We still had long block?

Maynard never had drama?

We didn't dominate color day freshman year?

Brenda Sullivan wasn't our class advisor?

People actually beat us during spirit week?

Mr. Graceffa (AKA G-Bird) was still coach of the football team?

Mr. Sforza didn't retire?

Meghanne,

Congratulations! You have worked so hard to get here. It wouldn't be worth it if it weren't difficult. As you move on, remember to make the most of every day. Someone once said, "It's not what you do once in a while, it's what you do day in and day out that makes a difference." Don't wait for things to happen to you; MAKE things happen. Be happy. Believe in yourself and surround yourself with other believers. Study hard. Learn. Make hard choices. Above all, don't ever settle - remember you CHOOSE, don't be chosen. Your memories stay with you but, continue to reach for your dreams.

And finally, always know home will never be far away.

Love you,

AUKSTIKALNIS

Lauren,
We are so proud of you! From watching you dance on stage to watching you fly through the air cheering. You took our breath away! It just seems like yesterday you were meeting your first friends in preschool. Watching you grow up has been exciting every step of the way. We have seen you learn the hard way that life is not always smooth sailing and it was you who taught all of us to appreciate the small things in life and to never take anything for granted. Always remember your family will forever be by your side whenever you need us!
We love you!
Mom, Dad,

MACGILLIVARY

Rachel,
It seems like yesterday that we were putting you on the school bus for the first day of Kindergarten. Now you are graduating high school and going off to college. We are so proud of what you have accomplished in the past 12 years and we know there is more to come. You have grown into a beautiful, caring, intelligent young woman. Thomas

HERRING

Dear Thomas,
"When you reach for the sky, you're likely to catch a ride on a shooting star"

A lot has happened in 18 years... The Earth traveled all the way around the sun 18 times, the seasons completed 18 cycles, and countless new stars have appeared in the night sky. Imagine all the possibilities the future has in store for you. You've grown from a fun-loving care-free little boy to a determined, headstrong, dedicated young man. We're so proud of you. Enjoy this very special time in your life; the many incredible paths to follow and journeys to take. We wish you a future of amazing rides on "your shooting star".
Love, Mom, Dad, Stephanie, Greg, Heather and Ell Rose

Jason S.,
 Congratulations from Mom, Dad, Zak,
 Addy, Suzie and Grammy - You made it! Since we're writing this in October, 2009, we're hoping that your transition this year was successful. Success can be measured in many ways, however, your ability to make a huge change in the last year of your secondary education has to be measured by the relationships that you made. We hope that you've developed some longterm relationships and have had some wonderful experiences, you've earned it! Thank you so much for your support as well and we're all looking forward to your college experiences. Best of Luck!

Monique,

This is it! The last few minutes of the third period. The score is tied and you wish the clock to come to a complete stop. It keeps ticking.

No matter what the score is you will always be the MVP in our eyes. Make the most of what's to come, dream big,

Colleen

DAWSON

Colleen,
 You entered Maynard High School
 in that quiet, laid back way you do most everything. You are now leaving the same way, but that doesn't mean you haven't grown- You have! It just shows everyone that are true to yourself.
 Colleen ~ you are witty, distinctive and beautiful, all wrapped up in a reserved confidence.
 As you move on (and we know you are itching to move on) please hold on to your wonder, curiosity and uncanny ability to see the humor in all of us.
 We are proud of you and love you so much! Remember where your foundation was built. Be good to others! Ready... Set...
 Go!

FALES

To my Samantha Lee,

I am amazed how fast the years have gone by. I remember putting you on the bus for your first day of kindergarten and now you are graduating. I am so proud of you. I love you.

Love, Mom

Sam,

I could not be more proud of all you have accomplished. You received good grades and continually become a better student, all while having cheerleading and gymnastics and working a part time job as well. You have become the person I always knew you could be. through all the craziness life presents on a daily basis, you manage to persevere and accomplish what you set out to do. It is every parents dream to see their child be successful in life, and I have no doubt in my mind that you have the will and intelligence to do so. Congratulations!

Love, Dad
