Another Year
Another year
A new locker to break in Old friends, new enemies
"Ravisanga?"
A new schedule
"Where the hell is room 203?"
New teachers
"Oh my god! Don't tell me you've got her!"
Just another year

"Would all seniors please report to the auditorium."
Senior?!
I can't be a senior yet!
I still have trouble finding two matching socks!

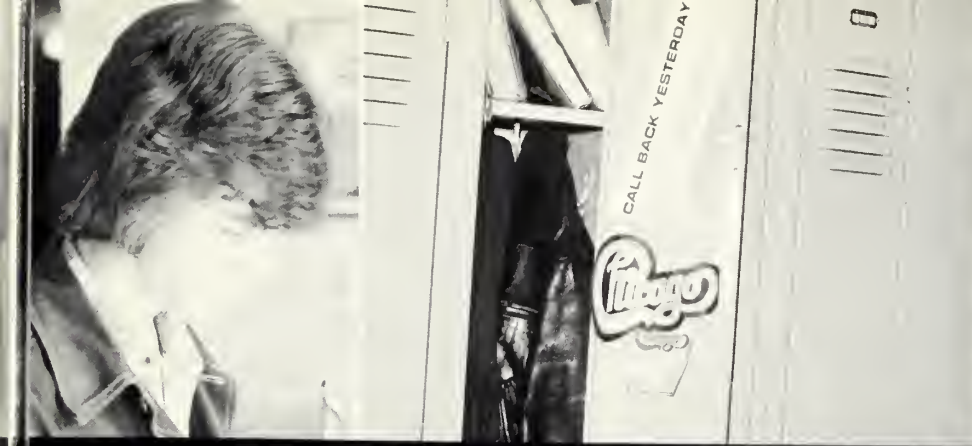

Applying to colleges
"Been accepted anywhere yet?"
Appointments with Purdy's and Sam's
"Can I have one of your pictures?"
Thinking
Of today and tomorrow
Where to go?
What to do?

Leaving much behind
But much lies ahead
The end
But really a beginning
We may be going
But Maynard High School will still be here
After all, it's just
Another year

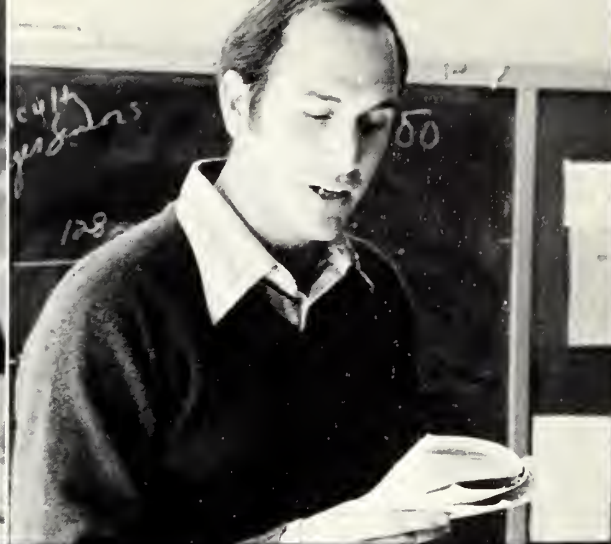

A school year is made up of hundreds of little moments; some important, some not, but all of them very precious. To do justice to all these special times is really impossible, but that's what a yearbook is supposed to do. Through much crying, screaming and even a little love, The Class of 1977 has put together a collection of memories of our senior year. It is our hope that these pages may some how help you recall that special time, 1976-1977 at Maynard High School.

The 1977 Screech Owl Staff

IN DEDICATION

This year, the staff of the Maynard High School Screech Owl chose not to dedicate the yearbook to someone who changed our lives, but to a friend. A friend is someone who will share a laugh or give you his shoulder, regardless of whether you need it to lean on or to cry on. If these things are so, then the 1977 Yearbook is dedicated to the right person.

This man has had a long and distinguished teaching career, and is respected both by his students and his peers. But this man's dedication for his students and his school goes long beyond 2:25. Athletics-wise, this man helps out with football, track, softball and wherever else he is asked to, as well as being the drive and determination behind the MHS Junior Varsity Basketball team. But this is not this man's only responsibility; for the past four years, he has been the guiding spirit behind the memory book of MHS, the "Screech Owl."

With this year's "Screech Owl," The Yearbook staff attempted to do something a little special, a little more personal for the Class of '77, and, in doing so, we departed radically from the traditional yearbook form. Rather than hold us back, this man not only pushed and prodded us toward our goal, but led us all the way. This book is as much a part of him as it is of our class.

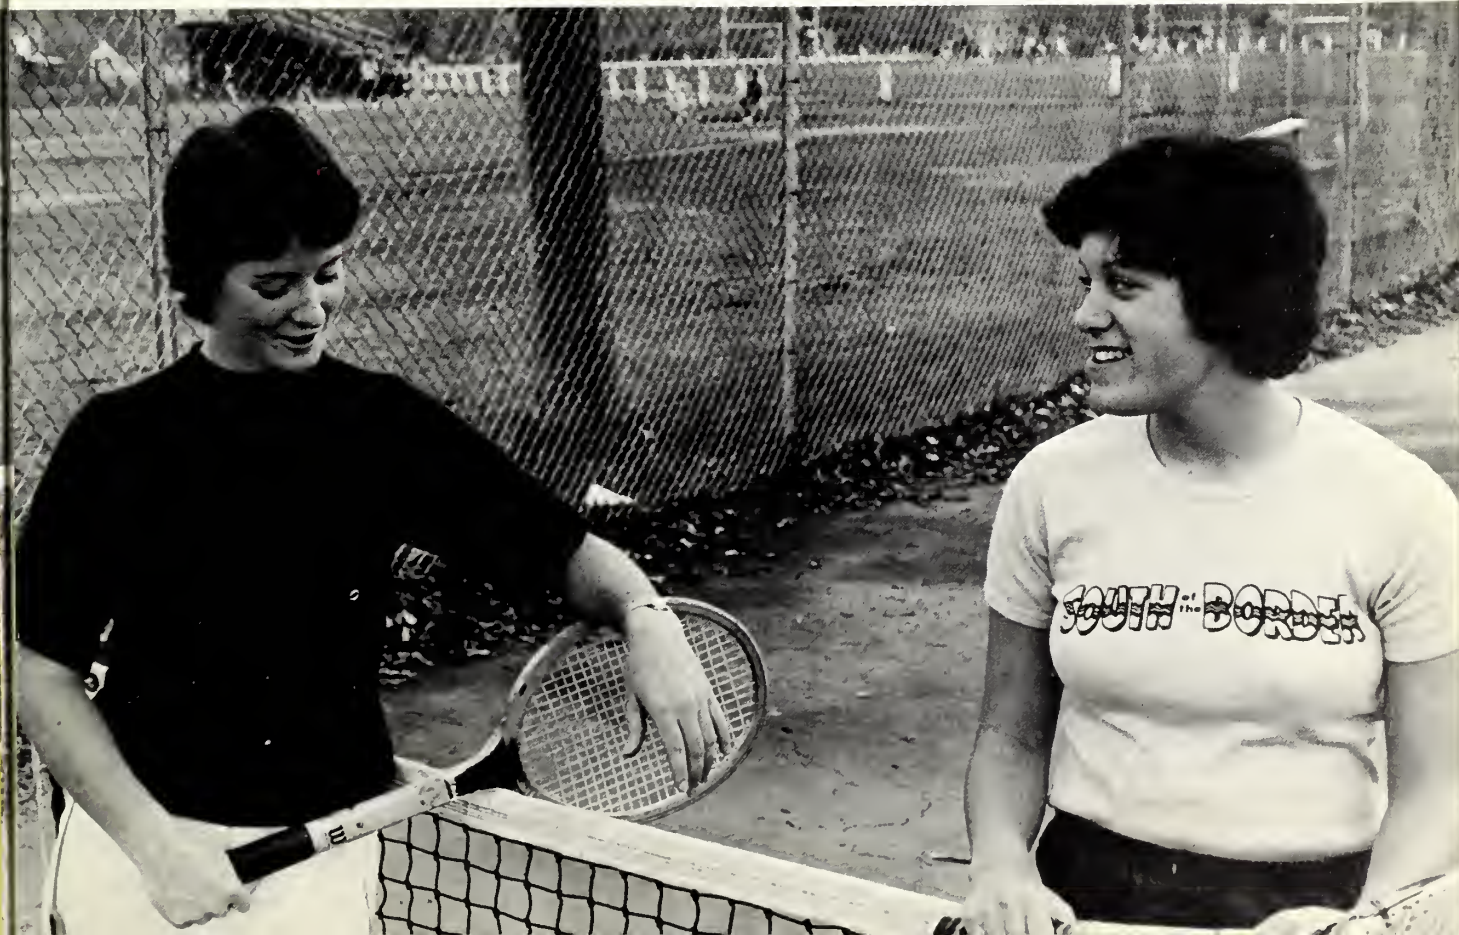

And so, the 1977 Maynard High School "Screech Owl" is dedicated to a friend who helped us remember our very special Senior year, someone who we will remember always — Mr. Paul Henning.

TIGERS!

At the start of the 1976 football season a 5-5 season might have been suspected but not a 5-5 season as exciting as this one. The season started off with two heart stopping one point victories over Clinton on opening day and Bedford on the home opener. These were the least of the heroics and there was a lot more to come.

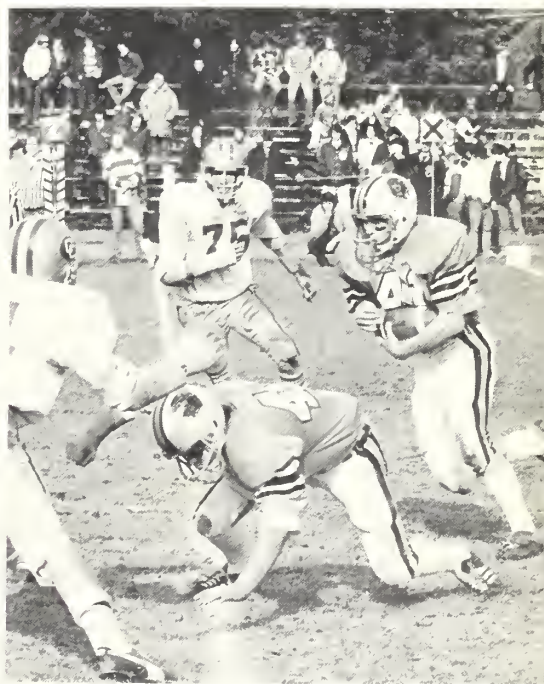

After 5 games the Tigers had battled their way to a very impressive record of 4-1. The last of these wins coming in the last seconds against Marlboro by again one point 15-14. The heroics of Jim Aulenback and Chris Duggan had made this team very hard to beat. A tough loss to Milford on some questionable calls seemed to phase the Tigers a bit but they came right back against Concord and pulled out another one pointer this time by the score of 22-21.

The game was one of the biggest games of the year. It was against undefeated league champs of Algonquin. The Tigers again almost pulled out a victory in the last seconds but the heroics just weren't there. At this point a repeat of last years 7-3 season looked excellent. However in the mud of Hudson the Tigers were stunned 14-0 before they could say ouch! All that was left now was the big turkey day game against Acton-Boxboro. How sweet it would have been to end this thrilling season by keeping the Beacon Bowl in Maynard.

MARCHING BAND

With a crash of the cymbals and a whirl of the baton, the Maynard High School Marching Band completed another successful season of halftime festivities. Through the combined efforts of Charles Garabedian and Steve Tolman, the band put on a dazzling array of sound and movement. Hats off to the MHS Marching Band. "The Pride of Tigertown."

MAJORETTES

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders are an unappreciated group whose attendance at every Maynard Football and Basketball game is expected. They fill the air with cheers of anticipation as well as shouts of joyful accomplishment. They lead the crowd through victories and keep their spirits high during defeats. Perhaps the best way to appreciate their importance is to imagine an event without them.

WAVM

Under the charismatic guidance of Media Director Joseph P. Magno and the WAVM Board of Directors, the station greatly increased its listening audience through bright and innovative types of programming, including a live broadcast of one of this year's dances. 1977-78 promises to be an even bigger year for the school station, so keep tuned to WAVM, 91.7 FM, "The True Pride Of Tiger Town."

THE VOICE OF TIGERTOWN

Besides being the base for WAVM the library also houses two other organizations which perform vital functions in the school. The library aides make sure everything is in its place, especially for those sophomore term papers, while the AV Club keeps harried teachers happy with prompt media attention.

WAVM STAFF

VOLLEYBALL

Varsity: Captain Pauline Smith, Pam Manning, Esther Bachrach, Diane Hanson, Ginger Hickman, Diane Melanson, Belinda Brooks, Sharon Santamaria. JV: Lisa Page, Sandy Bedard, Karen Campbell, Kathy Waluck, Jackie Lavasseur, Renee Rogers, Monique Bretschneider, Denise Messier, Claudette Young. Coaches: Chandler Lincoln and Brenda Mason. Manager: Malaina Bowker.

Despite great hopes and efforts, the Maynard High School Girls' Volleyball teams faced a disappointing and often heartbreaking season. Through the combined efforts of Coaches Chandler Lincoln and Brenda Mason, as well as Team Captain Pauline Smith, this young Tiger team went bravely into battle, only to find the competition too strong. Still, Enthusiasm and spirit run high on this young team and we expect to see big things in '77' from MHS Volleyball.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

VARSITY: Martha Forster (co-capt), Snaron Duggan (co-capt), Darlene Dimery, Terri Kramer, Carol Manzo, Chris Sweeney, Jane Alatalo, Helen Campbell, Patti Brown, Margaret Johnson, Maureen Boothroyd.

JUNIOR VARSITY: Maureen Boothroyd, Patti Brown, Margaret Johnson, Lisa Manzo, Ilona Rodsodowski, Paula Davis, Karen Holmes, Jamie Duggan, Cheryl King, Nancy Varrichione, Eileen Foley, Brenda Lockhart, Lisa Calabria, Karen Marderosian.

The Girls Basketball team played a fine brand of basketball during the 1976-1977 season. Led by Terri Kramer and Darlene Dimery, The Tiger Club were competitive and exciting.

The new zone pressure defense established this year kept the opposing teams at work bringing up the ball in order to beat the thirty second clock. With Sharon Duggan, Martha Forster, and Helen Campbell supplying the pressure, many teams gave up the ball to the Tigers.

Although the team did not win a league championship, a new spirit was found. The Girls Basketball team discovered that their hard work did pay off and they could compete with anyone. This spirit should carry over to next year and an exciting year it will be!

BOYS BASKETBALL

JUNIOR VARSITY: Bert Backrach, Jim Cogan, Dave Duncan, Mike Connors, Don Bibbo, Bob Alexander, Bill Pileeki, Scott Shepard, Jon LeBlanc, George Vacca, Bill Jarmolowicz, Kevin Forster.

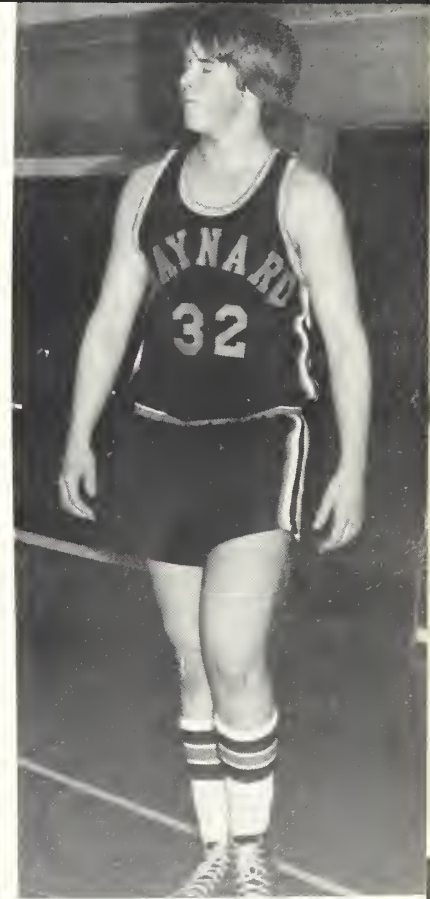

The Boys Varsity Basketball team was not very successful as far as record during the 1976-1977 season, but they were productive in at least one area. In every game but three, our opponents knew they had been in a ball game.

Led by seniors Jim Aulenback, Doug Johnson and Jeff Lent, the Tigers made much of the Midland League take notice. With Jim and Jeff taking care of the outside and Doug the inside, the team had a solid nucleus. Juniors Dave Mariani, Billy Duggan and Rick Gross rounded out the team. Key injuries during the season hurt the Tigers but they continued to play hard, winning two out of their last three games.

With five Juniors returning and some promising Sophomores coming up, next year might prove interesting.

HOCKEY

Once again, the Maynard High School Tiger Hockey team in it's 76-77 season found itself a little fish in a big pond. Competing with some of the toughest teams none the less held it's own and gave some stiff competition to many powerful area teams. Under the combined efforts of Coaches Charley Huck and Jackie Richardson, MHS's Hockey Tigers kept on fighting all season and tied for seventh position in their league. Though the team loses star player Paul Martin to graduation this year, the MHS Hockey Tiger promise to grow bigger and better each season.

MSAC

The MSAC, the reorganized version of last year's G.A.A., provides a needed, if unheralded service to Maynard High School. Students involved give support to all sports activities at the school. This year, for example, the MSAC sponsored a buffet after the Midland League Cross Country meet which was held at the Maynard Country Club. This organization is one where the members benefit by giving.

OUTDOOR CLUB

The Outdoor Club is a new organization at Maynard High School this year. Under the guidance of Mr. Don Cranson and Mr. Al Stebbins, students are becoming aware of beauty and wonder of nature. Cross Country Skiing and a hike up Mt. Manadnock are only two of the activities enjoyed this year.

ART CLUB

New to M.H.S. for 1976-1977 is the high school's art club. Under the guidance of Mrs. Beverly Smith, these aspiring young talents learned advanced techniques for sketching, painting and sculpture. The Highlight of the club's school year was an exhibition, held earlier this spring, in which many of the members works were displayed for the first time.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB

A fiery advisor with the speed of light, a cloud of dust, and a hearty "Quelle heure est t'il?" The Maynard High School Foreign Language Club rides again. With Miss Juliette Hovsepien as the group's advisor, the club ran bake sales, sold candy, and did whatever they could to raise the necessary money for their annual trip to Quebec. A high point of the club's 1976-1977 activities was their Thanksgiving Food Drive, in which well over 700 canned goods were collected and given to needy families.

Debbie is one of the few people who can type and jive with WRKO at the same time.

In actuality, Jeff makes his spare cash by secretly
selling off WAVM equipment.

Bright and attractive, Joan caught in a quiet moment
by the "Screech Owl."

Peter, alias Nanook of the North.

"Today's special, canned peas! Two for only 49¢."

Obviously, something doesn't agree with Julie.

buried in Grant's tomb.

Wearing her famous cap,
Free thinking, free living
Ellie.

Our surprise guest from the Class of 78, Quiet, cheerful Nancy.

Steve sneers with disgust,
as the "Screech Owl" claims its final victim.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society members of Maynard High School are a fine representation of the academic achievement made possible by determination and enthusiasm of students and faculty. The result of the fine curriculum and the encouragement of personal satisfaction is the high percent of college freshman. Mr. Lent, advisor, gave of his time and efforts stimulating genuine desire to be a member of the society.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

1976-77 proved to be another busy year for the Maynard High School Student Government. Under the enthusiastic guidance of Mr. Al Stebbins, the elected officers of each class help to mold MHS policy throughout the year. Highlighted by a Red Cross Blood Drive within the school which garnered 48 pints for area hospitals.

MAME

The Nights of March 11, 12, 18 and 19th marked a theatrical event at Maynard High School. The biggest, most ambitious production in the school's history, Jerome Lawrence, Robert E. Lee and Jerry Herman's block-buster musical, "Mame," under the spirited direction of Miss Celia Bartolotte and Mr. Steve Tolman, The Stello cast sang and danced their way into the hearts of the sell-out crowds at each performance. Hundreds of hours of rehearsing, guiding and painting went into this labor of love, but when the curtain went up, it was all worth it. "We think you're just sensational — Mame!"

Another year,
A school year,
Remembering the big stuff,
and the little things.
The Big Fight . . . I mean "Dance,"
The car in the pond.
The first day it snowed,
and later, how it snowed,
and snowed,
and snowed . . .

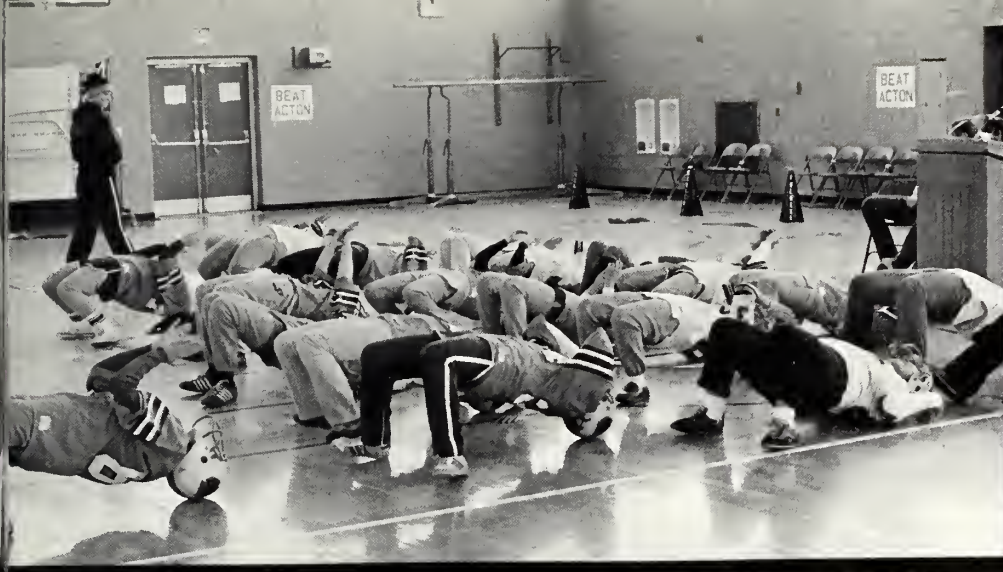

The football games,
The plays,
Days in the caf,
Nights up Esco,
All that homework
You know you'll never get done.
WHEN WILL JUNE GET HERE??

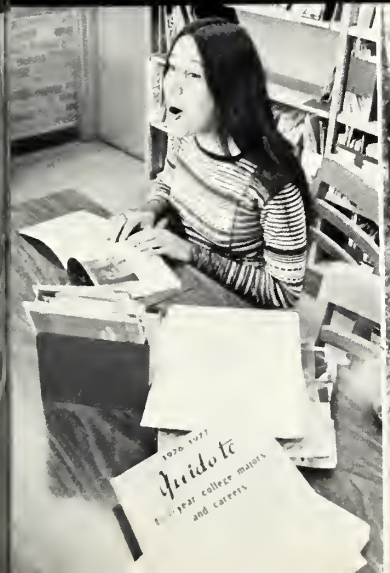

It's a funny feeling,
Dressing the last time to go to school.
How are we supposed to keep these stupid caps on?
With thumbtacks?!
Suddenly, all those memories
come flooding back.
The good times,
The bad.
It's too late now,
It's time to leave.

Another year,
A school year,
Our senior year,
For some, it drags on forever,
For others, it's gone in an instant,
For the class of '77,
It's finally over,
A special time, maybe,
But nothing spectacular,
Remember, it was just,
Another year.

Pound for Pound-The most valuable growth industry in Maynard.

The Maynard "Tigers" have been mighty tough competitors for a lot of years. Over that time, our teams have turned out many a fine athlete who has gone on to make a name in college ranks. Generations of "Tigers" have given it everything and grown by it ... not alone in physical strength and coordination but in courage and confidence. Our team here at Assabet Savings are tough competitors, too, when it comes to giving customers the best in banking service. We believe in competition — it keeps our bank healthy and growing. When a team takes pride in what it's doing, it can't help winning friends ... and ball games.

BEST WISHES

DIGITAL EQUIPMENT CORPORATION

Somehow, It seems fitting that one of the most important pages of the entire yearbook was thrown together at the last minute. Right from the start, the 1977 "Screech Owl" staff was determined to make this yearbook a little different, a little daring, a little special. Hours were spent picking out pictures, writing and typing copy, making layouts and artwork to give the yearbook it's own special tone, to make it stand out a little, to be original. Some people will love what we've done here. Others will not. Be it praised or damned, We stand proudly by this yearbook and call it ours.

At least in passing, The "Screech Owl" would like to thank those people who came through for us in our hour of need. We'd like to extend a special thanks to Mr. Lincoln, Mr. Magno and Mr. Daniels, who got us the photos we needed by whatever means necessary. As well, The "Screech Owl" owes a debt of gratitude to yearbook staff members Lori Greenaway, Cathy Rodgers, Chris Trakimas and Patty Clancy, who went out and got the advertisements for the book, which kept us from running the first yearbook car wash. Most of all, A heartfelt thanks to Mr. Paul Henning, the "Screech Owl's" advisor, who understood what we were trying to do and had the courage to stand by us and lead the way.

With this letter, We finish. And, despite all the screaming, threats and hard work, We think it was worth it. Our aim was to present an honest picture of the school year of 1976-77, Our senior year. Looking over the rest of the book, I think you'll agree we succeeded.
