Dedication

As the last golden days go swiftly fleeting by,
Our thoughts turn to sweet memories of the past.
How we've worked together for the happy while,
And to those whom we shall leave at last.

For her years with us so gladly spent,
Her character; helpful, friendly, sincere
We extend our humble token of thanks
To the most wonderful lady of the year.

HELPFUL

SINCERE

FRIENDLY

BRIGHT FUTURE

It was a beautiful October day in 1975, when I received a letter from Joan Christian, secretary to Roy Watjus, who was now the owner of the Watjus Excursion Line, announcing a half-price rate on a trip through New York City. Being urged on by the splendor of Indian Summer, Mark and I decided to take the excursion.

After much hustle and bustle we were prepared for our journey and finally arrived at the Watjus terminal. Much to our surprise we discovered that the terminal was an ultra modern building designed by the well-known architect John Lowe of the West, Arcieri, and Penniman Architectural Designers Co. The landscaping of the terminal was done so cleverly by the De Grappo Landscaping Co., that it blended perfectly with the modernistic tones of the building.

We entered the terminal and procured tickets for our journey from Jo Buscemi.

Since all the details for our trip were taken care of we stopped at Gould's "Goodie Shoppe" to buy refreshments. There behind the counter as sales girl was Virginia Luca — and to think that she was our neighbor and we didn't know where she worked. We chatted with Virginia for a while and soon learned that not only did she work for the Watjus Co., but so did half of the neighborhood. She informed us that Jack Shaw was vice-president of the Company and that John Cocco was treasurer. We were shocked when she told us that the driver of the bus for our trip was none other than the man who lives directly across from us, Raymond "Pete" Peterson. Time was flying, so we said farewell to Virginia and went to the bus. There we met Pete and started off on our journey to New York.

It wasn't long after we'd left the terminal when we became aware of the fact that this bus ride was not going to be one we'd forget easily. Right in front of us sat the internationally famous stand-in for Marlon Brando, Russ Forsyth. Russ, while not standing in for Brando, was on tour with his singing group, the Maynard Rancheros, of whom Kathy Zawadski, Betty Boeske, and Pete Grigas were most famous.

Honestly, shock upon shock, directly across from us sat Arlene Gunn and Myrna Johnson. Both girls were wearing dark glasses and caps with visors.

They were trying to avoid public recognition and overcome their bitter disappointment over not winning the Miss America contest. Poor things, but the winner, Mary Bachrach, certainly was a lovely choice. We are awfully proud of our friend Russ Heinenon who won the Mr. America contest.

We were fortunate, the bus just seemed to be full of celebrities and real sociable people. There was this simply fascinating person who was a child psychologist, Dr. Peter Abbot Wilson. We eavesdropped while he dictated notes to his secretary, Geraldine Maria. If only those seven Wilson children weren't so noisy, blowing those horns and all, we could have heard all that he said. Imagine advice from the famous Dr. Wilson and for nothing at that.

As soon as we completed the survey of our fellow travellers we decided to relax and read. Mark was reading and may I say enjoying the latest book by Don Torppa entitled The Runner. It was a biography of the famous athlete, Jim Duggan. I noticed that the illustrations in the book were done by two classmates of mine, Ginger Spratt and Margaret Mauro. I reverted to my usual reading, Tidbits, a magazine put out by the Greta Carlquist Journalism Corp. I enjoy this magazine thoroughly. Ruth Nelson, the art editor, certainly does a magnificent job. I particularly like the section on culinary arts by Alice Hanson and Joan Boothroyd. This issue has a good fashion section. The fashion editor is Jane Sawyer. Members of her staff are Carol Hinds, Jean Antila, and Carol Martin. Miss Sawyer is the originator of the new super-dynamic space dress for women travellers to the moon. Her models were Joan Power and Joan Whitney.

It wasn't long before Pete, the bus driver, belated, "ten minute break for coffee!" We got out of the bus and went up to the small restaurant. The pert young waitress, Ginger Warila, suggested that we have hamburgers to go with our coffee. They were made of prime beef from Manning's cattle and cooked by the hamburger king, Dick Sluyski. While having our snack we engaged in conversation with another passenger, a Miss Kasziewicz who was on the public relations staff of the very successful Marsh Matrimonial Bureau. Along with her was Barbara O'Loughlin, public relations officer for the Waves.

They were on their way to New York to visit their friends Angie Panzera and Doris Cole who are secretaries to Robertivech Konowicz, the American ambassador to Poland.

Our bus was ready to move on when we noticed that we had a new driver. This time Nelt Saarinen took over. The passengers looked very eager to begin their journey again. Soon the sun began to set and the passengers became weary. All was serene. The melodious voices of the famous Phillips Choral group consisting of Jackie Vincent, Joan Priest, Robert Matson and Lloyd Williams permeated the bus, as we travelled onward to New York. It seemed as though we were journeying to an enchanted land of success.

Class Gifts

To Jean Antila who is very smart,
We give this 'A' to get off to a good college start.

To Robert Arcieri who is so quiet,
We give this drum to start a riot.

To Mary Bachrach we give this book of knowledge,
Hoping it will help her when she goes to college.

To Betty Boeske, a Johnny Ray fan,
We give this picture of that handsome man.

To Joan Boothroyd the perfect cook,
We present her with this recipe book.

To Jo Buscemi who is a little under size,
We give this yeast cake to make her rise.

To Greta Carlquist we present this comb,
In hopes that she won't leave it at home.

We give this penny to Johnny Cocco who's always collecting money,
He's got us all broke, and it really ain't funny.

To Doris Cole who travels to Ayer,
We give her these roller skates so she'll always get there.

To Alfred DeGrappo who doesn't make a cheep,
We give this horn to make a big beep.

To Marie DiGeronimo who never wears these,
We give this pair of socks that go to her knees.

To Jimmy Duggan we give this pigskin,
So all the games at Northwestern he can win.

To Russ Forsyth whose travels from West Concord
to Maynard are far,
We present him with this new Cadillac car.

To Freddy Gould our State house Delegate,
We give this vote for senator of our state.

To Pete Grigas, the Gene Autry of our class,
We give this horse so he'll need no gas.

To Arlene Gunn who's not lost for a date,
We give her this date book to help keep them straight.

To Alice Hanson we give this jar of freckle cream,
To keep her complexion a-glow and a-gleam.

To Russ Heinonen who likes to race,
We give this boat to set the pace.

To Carol Hinds one of the quietest in our class,
To go to the show we give her a pass.

To Myrna Johnson we give this motorbike,
So she'll always have it for a long, long hike.

To Betty Kasiewicz whose marriage is all set,
We give this lock and key to make it a safe bet.

To Bob Konowicz with a fine collection of stone,
We give him this gold rock, but just for a loan.

To John Lowe who works at Arthur's store,
We give him this ring and hope he sells more.

To Virginia Luca who has a questioning look,
We present her with this answer book.

To Joan Christian whom in a Chevy we most always see,
We give this horse to Hop-a-long to Cassidy.

To Pat Manning we give this bus,
So she will have room for all of us.

To Geraldine Maria we give this candy bar,
To try to sell down to the spa.

To Becky Marsh who's always late,
We give this alarm clock so we won't have to wait.

To Carol Martin who sells tickets all night,
We give this mascara to keep her eyes bright.

To Bobby Matson we give this ice cream scoop,
And a new kind of ice cream called loop-de-loop.

To Margaret Mauro who speaks not too loud,
We give this megaphone so she'll be heard in a crowd.

To Ruth Nelson we wish her to hear,
We give a paint brush to help her career.

To Barbara O'Loughlin whose friend is on a trip,
So that she might catch him, we give her this ship.

To Angie Panzera our typing star,
We give this typewriter and hope she goes far.

To Ed Penniman who really can spell,
We give this pen so you can really tell.

To Ray Peterson whom we call Pete,
We give this cue stick; he can't be beat.

To Barbara Phillips with a fine singing voice,
We give this song to sing as our choice.

To Joan Power who has a friend named 'Hick',
We give her this old movie 'stub' just for a trick.

To Joan Priest we give this light,
To keep her aisles a-lookin' bright.

To Newton Saarinen whom the kids call Newt,
We give this bow tie to make him look cute.

To Jane Sawyer a good seamstress,
We give this needle, to sew a dress.

To Jack Shaw who's quite thin at a look,
We give this Charles Atlas muscle building book.

To Dick Sluyski nicknamed Slag,
We give these vitamins so he'll never lag.

To Ginger Spratt with nice blond hair,
We give this bottle of tintair.

To Donald Torppa who is of sports fame,
We give him a muscle to add to his frame.

To Jackie Vincent we give this pen,
To write letters to her Texas men.

To Mark Waldron in Trig class a whiz,
We give this 100% for his first college quiz.

To Virginia Warila who excels in every game,
We give this liniment in case she ever gets lame.

To Roy Watjus called Lightning and is not so fast,
We give this jet so that in a race he might last.

To Arthur West we give a horn of tin,
Hoping we'll hear more from him.

To Joan Whitney as a prank,
We give this little piggy bank.

To Lloyd Williams who lives in the woods,
We present him with this box of canned goods.

To Peter Wilson our class president,
We give our appreciation for the help he has lent.

To Katherine Zawadski we give this bell that makes a loud sound,
So all her patients will know when she's around.

MATSON PLEADS INNOCENT

Robert Matson who took the stand last Thursday in Cupcake County Court has pleaded innocent to charges made against him by Joan Boothroyd, owner of the Brimey Pickle and Gherkin Co.

Defending lawyer, stated that Matson did not know that a salt mine he had sold earlier to Miss Boothroyd was located in Siberia.

FLASH. Angie Panzera passes 250 WPM test in Shorthand.

MORE BEANS FOR HEALTH

Today in the State House, Mayor Gould announced the new state drive to rid the state of the excess bean supply.

Ever since Massachusetts ceased to be the baked bean state and the local dish became Pizza, health authorities have been worried, but Mayor Gould has now solved the problem by demanding that local Pizza manufacturers use dried bean flour in their ingredients.

CEMENT RELATIONS WITH LAPLAND

Diplomat Carol Hinds, Ambassador to Lapland, has helped to cement relations through the generosity of cement and mortar manufacturer, Rocky Konowicz.

As he later stated at a party given in his honor by Lapland President Igloo Toooo, in thanks for his gift of 1,000,000 bags of cement, "You've just got to use your head."

GRAND MARCH

CONCLUSION OF
GRAND MARCH

Dear Diary — 1951 - 1952

September

Dear Diary:

We entered M. H. S. in September of 1951 as shy, green, little Freshmen and soon found ourselves enveloped in a maze of diverse activities. Our first class election resulted as follows:

PresidentPeter Wilson
Vice-PresidentGreta Carlquist
SecretaryVirginia Warila
TreasurerWilliam Dimery

The class then elected Mary Bachrach, John Cocco, Dick Sluyski and Ann Whittemore to represent us on the Student Council. Under the guiding hand of Mr. Manty we made much progress in our class organization.

M. H. S. football team was enriched by the presence of Bob Konowicz, Dick Sluyski, Lloyd Williams, Ray Peterson and Ed Penniman. The field hockey squad included Jo Buscemi, Ginger Warila, Becky Marsh, Ginger Spratt, Geraldine Maria and Greta Carlquist.

October

Dear Diary:

A "Welcome Dance" was sponsored by the Seniors to acquaint us with the rest of the students. A good time was had by all and many new friends were made.

The more melodious members of our class found their way into the Girls' Choir. The girls, being anxious to join the Junior Women's Club, readily accepted their initiation stunts by parading the streets in ridiculous outfits. We were rapidly learning that high school can be a great deal of fun as well as work.

November

Dear Diary:

Great inspiration was received as we witnessed our first National Honor Society Induction Ceremony.

The traditional football game, Maynard vs Clinton was played on Thanksgiving Day. A 7-7 tie score wound up the game and we all came home in gay spirits to eat our turkey dinners.

A three day vacation followed the game and was greatly appreciated by all.

December

Dear Diary:

The girls had a head start on Leap Year by inviting that "certain someone" to the annual J. W. C. dance, the gala event of the year. To attend a semi-formal affair was a new and exciting experience for all of us.

The "Yule Tide" spirit was fulfilled as the lower corridor was beautifully decorated in a gay fantasy of colors. The "Senior Icicle Festival," sponsored by the Seniors, was highlighted by the crowning of the King and Queen of M. H. S. Royalty was represented by Dick Sluyski and Ginger Warila.

January

Dear Diary:

A sigh of relief was breathed as January rolled around because we realized that half the year had slipped by. The Driver Training Course at Maynard High was inaugurated with the presentation of a new '52 Chevie.

The Athletic Association sponsored the most successful record hop of the year and the auditorium was literally packed. The big attraction??? . . . Bob Clayton of WHDH's Boston Ballroom. As an added attraction the King and Queen of Sports were crowned. Again Dick Sluyski and Ginger Warila were included in the royal court.

February

Dear Diary:

A Mystery Man dance was held by the Seniors. During the week clues and hints were given. The Mystery Man — alias Lenny O'Clair was guessed by Elsie Johnson.

Three members of our class who carried the banner for us in the M. H. S. quiz show, about the history of Maynard, were Jean Antila, Greta Carlquist and Mark Waldron.

March

Dear Diary:

A basketball assembly was held in order to give out basketball awards to both the girls and boys. The Freshmen were: Captain Joe Colombo, Bob Matson, Ed Penniman, Jim Kopp, Bob Arcieri and Jack Subick. They also were winners of the Midget League Trophy.

April

Dear Diary:

Great fun was had by all on April 16th and 17th. The annual Variety Show was presented by the Student Council in the George Washington Auditorium. The talented few of our class who took part in the show were: Greta Carlquist, Ginger Warila, and Janet Riley, who performed an acrobatic-baton twirling act. Jack Shaw played in the band.

With the advent of spring the baseball diamond had all time greats from our class such as Pete Grigas, Roy Watjus, Don Torppa and Dick Sluyski.

Our big day came when we co-sponsored the Freshman Sophomore Social. The committees worked long and hard and were proud to have had "our dance" a real success.

May

Dear Diary:

With spring in the air and studying exceedingly burdensome, all conversation was centered about the prom. Some of the lucky girls from our class were invited to their first formal affair.

We had our first experience in participating in Memorial Day exercises as high school students.
Dear Diary:

June

Dear Diary:

The final month of our Freshman year found us all busily preparing for final exams.

The annual J. W. C. Banquet was held in the George Washington Auditorium. We were all very proud of Ginger Spratt when she was announced as a member of the program committee for the 1952-1953 year.

Our Freshman year was brought to a close with a class outing at Nantasket Beach. Swimming, riding on the amusements, skating and eating were included in the activities of the day and we all arrived safely home — nappy, tired, and sunburned!!!

1952 - 1953

September

Dear Diary:

Today we had our first class meeting of our Sophomore year. After counting up the ballots the result of the voting was:

- PresidentPeter Wilson
- Vice-PresidentGinger Warila
- SecretaryGreta Carlquist
- TreasurerRichard Sluyski

We decided that our Student Council representatives for 1952-1953 should be Joan Power, Jean Antila, John Cocco, and Ray Peterson.

September 19

Dear Diary:

We just had our first football rally this year, and did we show up the Freshmen and Juniors. It seemed that we were the loudest group there; maybe it is because we are so proud of the fellows from our class who are on the team.

Today we registered with Mr. DeRosa to vote in the coming national elections. Some of us even campaigned for the men of our choice.

October

Dear Diary:

You should have seen the hilarious "get-ups" of the poor Freshmen. Yes, I just came back from our first J. W. C. initiation, and it certainly was enjoyable. We are looking forward to a wonderful year.

Now this month is drawing to a close and I find my lungs pretty hoarse, from yelling at football games and rallies. At the last assembly Mr. DeRosa showed us the films taken at the Maynard-Methuen football game.

November

Dear Diary:

Yes, today we all voted in the auditorium and then went home and listened eagerly for the results. Our votes coincided with the rest of the nation, because we, too, elected President Eisenhower.

We sure have been active this month. We just had another assembly today for Thanksgiving. We all enjoyed the interesting program that Miss Colburn and Miss Leadbetter had planned, and we were happy that a number of our classmates took part, too.

December

Dear Diary:

The J. W. C. dance. Beware eligible males! Didn't you hear about Jimmy D.? Yes, he got thirty-seven invitations to the dance in three days.

Quite a few of our girls received their letters today at the Field Hockey Assembly.

What a wonderful evening I had last night at the football banquet. To top the wonderful turkey dinner, we had some excellent speakers. The high point of the repast came at the announcement of the captains: Lenny Massarelli and Andy Mitzcavitch.

After today's Christmas Assembly, which we all thoroughly enjoyed, we attended the Juniors' Ring Dance. Their's was the first of the kind to be held at M. H. S. With the Four Teens merrily tooting away and the happiness of the Juniors, we all agreed on making plans for our own ring dance in the Fall.

January

Dear Diary:

We are proud of Ginger Warila and Don Torppa who were members of the Court at the A. A. dance last week. There was a lot of spirit displayed when we found out Fred B. Cole was to be there to poll our tastes in popular music; a most successful dance.

Boy, have we been welcoming the celebrities lately! Bob Clayton sure was a hit at the dance last night. The whole school was eager to learn the title of the Mystery Melody which turned out to be "Water Can't Quench the Fire of Love."

February

Dear Diary:

I just received my letter in basketball at the assembly today. Did you see all the girls from our class who also received their letters, too?

We celebrated the birth of Lincoln and Washington at a magnificent assembly today.

March

Dear Diary:

Today was Student Government Day, and we had an assembly honoring the occasion. One of my classary election of class officers and student council representatives was held with the following outcome.

mates was Master of Ceremonies, and quite a few of the others took part in it. Good work Mark Waldron, Peter Wilson, Jane Sawyer, Jean Antila, Myrna Johnson, and Angie Panzera!

April

Dear Diary:

What a riot the play was that the French Club presented today! We really had French atmosphere, with those terrific accents and singing, but Barbara Crotty sure stole the show when she came out with that giant "sinker" in the restaurant scene.

Did you see the latest Parisian styles exhibited at the J. W. C. Fashion Show? I never realized the feminine pulchritude that existed in our group. We'll probably be seeing them on magazine covers soon.

May

Dear Diary:

Wasn't the Sportsman Show that the Rod and Gun Club sponsored interesting? Although the snakes made me feel uneasy, I did enjoy it. When the speaker locked one of my classmates inside the cage instead of the monkey, the auditorium was filled with laughter.

Our class treasurer just deposited a tidy sum in our account today, the profit from our Freshman-Sophomore Dance last Friday. Even if the sum was small, we still had a great time at the dance.

June

Dear Diary:

We were out in front of the school today, dear diary, practicing for the Memorial Day Exercises. You can tell by the attitude of our classmates that they realize the seriousness of the coming event.

Our Sophomore Class Outing to Nantasket was really a treat after completing our finals in school. The sun and the sea are just what is needed for a leisurely day of pleasure. I can hardly wait for the long summer days ahead and our return to school in the Fall for football practice.

1953 - 1954

ary election of class officers and student council representatives was held with the following outcome.

- PresidentPeter Wilson
- Vice-PresidentGreta Carlquist
- SecretaryVirginia Spratt

TreasurerJohn Cocco

Student Council — Jean Antila, Jim Duggan, Virginia Warila, and Dick Sluyski.

October

Dear Diary:

Today, we were measured for our class rings. We hope to be wearing them by December.

Am I tired! The girls had a close field hockey game with Acton, but thanks to Betty Boeske and her winning goal, we were the victors. The team is doing great this year — all wins and one tie.

It sure is pleasing to see so many members of our class being inducted into the National Honor Society. A. Panzera, J. Cocco, and P. Wilson were the first of our class to have this high honor bestowed upon them.

November

Dear Diary:

Have you heard that Dick Sluyski and Ginger Warila were on the court at our "Royal Roost Dance," last week.

Jim Duggan played a sensational running game with Clinton at the traditional Thanksgiving Day game, Thursday. Of course our cheering section was drowned out by the new M. H. S. Band.

December

Dear Diary:

Today was filled with much excitement for all of us because our class rings finally arrived.

You should see the new dresses the girls bought today, for the J. W. C. dance next Friday. Don't you think it's odd that we haven't seen any boys in the corridors for the past few days? I wonder if it has any connection with the J. W. C. dance.

January

Dear Diary:

Tomorrow night the annual A. A. dance is scheduled and the big attraction will be Art Humes of WORL announcing the ten top tunes of M. H. S. taken from the poll, plus the announcement of the King and Queen of Sports.

February

Dear Diary:

The co-captains for next year's football team were announced today — congratulations to Jim Duggan and Ray Peterson.

Our "Cherry Festival Dance" was a tremendous success and we all enjoyed the music of Stanley Harris' Orchestra.

March

Dear Diary:

Johnny Cocco isn't here today. He's attending Student Government Day at the State House in Boston. We had an assembly to honor the occasion.

April

Dear Diary:

We're all in a dither making preparations for our Junior-Senior Prom next month. We sure hope to make it one of the nicest proms M. H. S. has ever had.

The Freshmen-Sophomore Dance was held last week with the Stanley-Harris Orchestra. They had a large turnout and the orchestra met the approval of all.

May

Dear Diary:

At last the long awaited and most beautiful and exciting event of the year has arrived. Yes, tonight is the night of our Junior-Senior Promenade and what a beautiful night it is!!

The decorations are simply out of this world. Our theme is "Starlight Serenade" and DeGrappo's Orchestra is furnishing the music.

Four new members of our class were inducted into the National Honor Society. That makes a grand total of seven from our class.

June

Dear Diary:

This month we are busily preparing for final examinations.

The "Daffy Dills" a farce in three acts was presented on June 6, by the Dramatic Club. Some of the "stars" from our class were Peter Wilson, Myrna Johnson, John Cocco, Jim Duggan, and Greta Carlquist.

Our outing is going to be held at Nantasket Beach again this year. We're all looking forward to a day of pleasant sunshine and fun.

1954 - 1955

September

Dear Diary:

Ah! Seniors at last! After three long years as "greenies" we have become the big wigs, and it sure seems great!

Our "Welcome Freshmen" dance was a huge success. The auditorium was gayly decorated and the Four Coronets provided the music for the gala evening.

Our co-captains Duggan and Peterson have started their season off with a tie game. Let's hope they continue to have a smashing season.

October

Dear Diary:

Our football rally before the Concord game aroused all of our Summer Street neighbors . . . but to no avail.

A March of Dimes assembly was held under the direction of Mr. Fardy and Rev. Jones. The response of the students to render their services and time for the purpose of canvassing for donations was overwhelming.

November

Dear Diary:

The fortunate people to be elected to the National Honor Society were Pat Manning, Marie DiGeronimo, Virginia Warila, and Carol Martin. The ceremony was impressive and truly an inspiration for all of the students.

December

Dear Diary:

What a terrific assembly we had today. It was held in the form of campaign elections. Fred Gould was elected to attend Good Government Day at the State House in Boston.

Our last J. W. C. Dance was attended this month. The auditorium was lavishly decorated and the Four Coronets provided the music.

The downstairs corridor was adorned with a Christmas Tree and Christmas music filled the school between classes.

1955

January

Dear Diary:

We have just returned from our Christmas vacation and the basketball season is now well underway.

The boys are well backed this year with the aid of the cheerleaders. The cheerleaders are attending all the games and they are decked out in snappy new orange uniforms.

February

Dear Diary:

We haven't been doing much this month because of the beginning of the Lenten Season.

The cheerleaders are practicing earnestly for the Jamboree in March.

Rehearsals for the Variety Show will begin after our vacation.

March

Dear Diary:

The cheerleaders went to the Jamboree, Friday,

the 25th. They looked outstanding in their bright orange uniforms.

The Seniors are making preparations for Graduation this month. They are working unceasingly on their yearbook and the Graduation and Class Night speakers are preparing their speeches.

Dear Diary:

Just think of the exciting three months ahead!

A Freshman-Sophomore dance will be sponsored in April.

Rehearsals are scheduled for the Variety Show.

May 4th and 5th, the performance of the Variety Show.

May 13th, the Junior-Senior Prom and Supper at the Meadows.

Starting June 6-13, Senior Week, including the Banquet, the Class Night Dance, Senior Outing at Nantasket.

First Row: P. Williams, D. Crotty, J. Duggan, J. Shaw, Captain: R. Sluyski, D. Torppa, P. Wilson, R. Matson.
Second Row: Coach Lawson, T. Duggan, J. Luker, R. Carlton, W. Lizotte, F. Chandler, N. Druzdzowski, D. Mullin, L. Williams, R. Martino, J. Kulevich.

MAYNARD 51 — WAYLAND 44
 J.V.'s 21 — J.V.'s 18

Maynard High School's black and orange basketball team opened the 1954-55 season in fine style as they throttled Wayland's High School hopes 51-44. Trailing throughout the game, a tremendous rally which saw the orange and black completely control the game, sewed it up for M. H. S. Torppa led both teams in scoring as he threw in 29 points, followed by Captain Sluyski, who had 7. Pete Wilson's rebounding and 6 points were an added pleasure.

The Jay-Vee's also opened up with a win as they beat a big Wayland Jay-Vee team 21-18. Kulevich, Martino, and Chandler were the big guns in the victory.

MAYNARD 35 — CHELMSFORD 45
 J.V.'s 27 — J.V.'s 56

Maynard High School's orange and black ran into their first defeat of the season as powerful and undefeated Chelmsford won a squeaker, 45-35. Chelmsford, featuring a fast break and good rebounding, were too much, though the orange and black gave a good account of itself in a losing cause. J. Duggan, with 11 points and with many valuable assists, sparked Maynard, followed by Torppa's 10 points.

The Jay-Vee's also ran into their first defeat as a real sharp Chelmsford outfit ran them into the floor, 56-27. Chandler and Kulevich were outstanding in the losing cause.

MAYNARD 19 — CONCORD 58
 J.V.'s 21 — J.V.'s 24

Concord High School routed Maynard in one of the orange and black's worst exhibitions in many years, 58-19. Play was slow for the first half with Maynard very much in the game, but a wide open second half in which Concord connected and Maynard didn't, told the story. Captain Sluyski played a sturdy game and was top scorer with 8 points.

The Jay-Vee's ran into a solid Concord Jay-Vee and were beaten by a narrow 24-21 score. Chandler's play for the losers was outstanding.

MAYNARD 47 — WESTON 55
 J.V.'s 23 — J.V.'s 34

The Orange and Black, playing their best game of the young season, could not cope with the all-around shooting of powerful Weston High School. Nip-and-tuck for three and a half periods, the lead changed hands on numerous occasions. But with three and a half minutes remaining, Weston, via free throws, took the lead and built it up to an eight point advantage which it held to the end. Captain Dick Sluyski, with 20 points, led the scoring, followed by Torppa with 13 and Shaw with 9.

The Jay-Vee's went down to defeat by a 34-23 margin. John Kulevich, promising sophomore, led the way with 18 points out of the team's 23.

MAYNARD 68 — MARLBORO 62
J.V.'s 24 — J.V.'s 26

Maynard High School opened the Midland League season in spectacular fashion as they whacked the Marlboro High Panthers, 68-62. Leading the barrage on the Panthers were Torppa, Sluyski, and Shaw with 18, 17, and 16 points respectively. Jack Shaw played his best game to date, as he hit well with hooks and rebounded like a demon.

The Jay-Vee's lost a close one, 26-24. Dick Carlton, who scored 14 points, tried vainly to keep the Orange and Black in the game, but to no avail.

MAYNARD 43 — CLINTON 47
J.V.'s 30 — J.V.'s 20

Maynard High School almost upset the favored Clinton Gaels as Don Torppa threw in 27 points to lead Maynard to a near upset. Leading most of the way, Maynard fell apart in the second half and fell victim to a fast break. Jack Shaw, with 10 points and terrific rebounding, almost helped engineer the upset.

The Jay-Vee's defeated the Clinton seconds in their best game to date, 30-20. Carlton led the Jay-Vee's to victory with 12 points.

MAYNARD 46 — HUDSON 52
J.V.'s 33 — J.V.'s 23

Maynard High School went down to defeat to one of the strongest Hudson High School teams in many years, 52-46. Close throughout the game, Maynard never could get the vital basket that would clinch it, and Hudson took advantage and rolled away at the end. A vital factor was Hudson's tremendous height advantage and fast break, which caught Maynard flatfooted. This defeat was Maynard's first to them in three years. Captain Sluyski and Torppa with 17 points apiece, were the sparkplugs which kept Maynard going.

The Jay-Vee's, by beating the Hudson seconds, extended their winning streak to two games. Carlton, Lizotte, and Martino led Maynard to victory.

MAYNARD 38 — MILFORD 36
J.V.'s 23 — J.V.'s 26

Coming from 14 points behind, the Orange and Black fought to a hard-earned 38-36 triumph over Milford. A fine team effort clinched the game for Maynard. The back court duo of Wilson and Duggan played their best game of the year. Sub Dave Crotty tallied 3 points in the last few seconds to ice the game away. Torppa led the scoring with 14 points.

The Jay-Vee's went down to defeat to a sharp little Milford team 26-23. Carlton and Lizotte stood out for Maynard in a losing cause.

MAYNARD 51 — FRANKLIN 57
J.V.'s 22 — J.V.'s 26

Leading most of the way, the Orange and Black suddenly fell apart as Franklin scored eight points in a span of 24 seconds in the fourth quarter, to take a one point lead which they built up to the final reading of 57-51. Captain Sluyski and Torppa with 17 and 16 points respectively led the Orange and Black to a near upset of the undefeated Blue and White from Franklin.

The Maynard Jay-Vee's couldn't keep up with a fine Franklin Jay-Vee ball club and went down to defeat 26-22 with Lizotte and Chandler starring.

MAYNARD 70 — MARLBORO 84
J.V.'s 29 — J.V.'s 33

In a wild-scoring, wide-open game Marlboro High School defeated Maynard High School 84-70. In one of the highest scoring games of the year, Maynard kept the game close until they ran out of gas early in the fourth quarter. For Maynard, Shaw 19, Torppa and Duggan 16 apiece, and Wilson 10, Captain Sluyski 9, which showed balanced scoring but a better Marlboro club went on to take the spectacular shooting contest.

The Maynard Jay-Vee's again went down to defeat by a narrow margin, losing 33-29, to the Marlboro Jay-Vee's. Lizotte paced the Jay-Vee's with 14 points.

MAYNARD 45 — CLINTON 56
J.V.'s 25 — J.V.'s 33

The Clinton High Gaels ripped through Maynard High to a tune of 56-45. Without the service of Captain Sluyski and two other boys with bad colds, Maynard's attack couldn't function correctly and succumbed to the fast-breaking Gaels. Jack Shaw led Maynard scoring with 14 points as he scored on consistent hook shots. Jim Duggan scored 10 points and played a strong defensive game.

The Maynard Jay-Vee's went down to defeat to the Clinton Jay-Vee's in a closely battled game 33-25 as John Kulevich led the way with 14 points.

MAYNARD 57 — HUDSON 70
J.V.'s 31 — J.V.'s 39

Hudson High School strengthened their grip on second place as they defeated a game Maynard team 70-57. Maynard, staying with the Red and White from Hudson for the first period, entered the last period trailing by 30 points. But baskets by Torppa, Sluyski and Shaw cut it down to a 13 point deficit which prevailed to the end. Torppa led all Maynard scorers with 24 points followed by Shaw with 15 and Sluyski with 14.

The Maynard Jay-Vee's went down to another defeat to the Hudson Jay-Vee's 39-31, in a closely contested game. Starring for Maynard were Kulevich, Lizotte, and Carlton as they scored 22 of the 31 points.

MAYNARD 41 — MILFORD 60
J.V.'s 32 — J.V.'s 51

Milford gaining revenge for the earlier season defeat inflicted by Maynard, defeated them soundly 60-41. Maynard attack moving smoothly made it a close game for three periods but a strong fourth quarter brought Milford an easy victory. Again for Maynard, Torppa and Sluyski, with 16 and 15 points respectively, led Maynard's scoring.

The Maynard Jay-Vee's were trounced soundly too, as the Milford team whacked them 51-32. Luker, Carlton, and Martino played stout games for the losers.

MAYNARD 52 — FRANKLIN 73
J.V.'s 25 — J.V.'s 37

The powerful Midland League champions, Franklin High School ran over a spirited, but outmanned Maynard High School team 73-52. Maynard, giving it all it had, kept up for most of the game, but time was the only factor before Franklin would break away. A big fourth quarter did it. For Maynard, Torppa with 21 points and Duggan with 10 points, kept it close.

The Jay-Vee's kept it close before dropping the game to the Franklin Jay-Vee's. Jimmy Luker led the way for Maynard with fine playmaking and shooting.

MAYNARD 43 — CONCORD 79

J.V.'s 30 — J.V.'s 45

Maynard High School ended their regular season's play on a sad note as they were sadly beaten by a powerful Concord High School outfit. Featuring one of the highest scorers in the state and one of the fastest fast-breaks, Concord had little trouble with the overmatched and outmanned Orange and Black. Captain Sluyski and Torppa led the scoring department with 14 and 13 points respectively.

The Jay-Vee's dropped a 45-30 decision to a fast-moving Concord Jay-Vee team. Chandler, Lizotte, and Martino played heads-up ball for Maynard in a losing cause.

MAYNARD 42 — ST. BERNARD'S 52
Townsend Tournament

Defending their 1954 titles in the Townsend Tournament, the Orange and Black ran into a rough outfit in St. Bernard's of Fitchburg in losing 52-42. Leading at the end of the first quarter, Maynard suddenly lapsed and St. Bernard's took advantage as they rolled to a nine point lead and victory. Torppa led both teams in scoring with 26 points and Duggan helped with 6 points and many assists. This game ended a dismal season for the Orange and Black.

MAYNARD J.V.'s 29 — SHIRLEY J.V.'s 50

Shirley Industrial School flooring a big, fast, and smooth ball club, ran the Maynard Jay-Vee's to the floor in a 50-29 romp at Shirley. Dick Carlton, Kulevich and Martino led Maynard scorers, with Carlton tops with 10 points.

Third Row: Miss Kiley, K. Kulevich, F. Uglevich, A. Parker, C. Nelson, E. Pilecki, R. Nelson.

MAYNARD vs. CONCORD

First Team Concord 70 — Maynard 7
 Second Team Concord 21 — Maynard 11

The first basketball game of the season was played in Concord at Hunt Memorial Gymnasium. The Maynardites with only one practice were up against a superior Concord team. For the varsity Mary Matson was high scorer with a total of 4 points.

The Junior Varsity ended up with 11 points, all scored by Carol Seura.

MAYNARD vs. HUDSON

First Team Hudson 61 — Maynard 35
 Second Team Hudson 22 — Maynard 7

Maynard travelled to Hudson for the second game of the season. The Maynard girls played a hard game, and managed to cut the opposition score by more than half. The high scorer for the varsity was Becky Marsh with 19 points. Mary Matson scored 10 and Audrey Alberi 6.

The J.-V.'s didn't fare as well but they played a hard game. Their scorers were S. Marsh, M. Higgins, and C. Seura with 2 each, and M. Duggan with 1.

MAYNARD vs. HUDSON

First Team Hudson 55 — Maynard 30
 Second Team Hudson 31 — Maynard 15

For the second consecutive game, Maynard played Hudson. Again the Maynardites cut the score by more than half. The scorers for Maynard were A. Alberi 11 points, M. Matson 10, and R. Marsh 9.

Although the score of the J.-V. game at the end of the first quarter was close, Hudson built up a big lead that they never relinquished. Carol Seura scored 9 points and Shirley Marsh scored 6.

MAYNARD vs. MARLBORO

First Team Marlboro 72 — Maynard 25
 Second Team Marlboro 30 — Maynard 12

On January 27 Maynard suffered an overwhelming defeat at the hands of Marlboro. The Marlboro lassies played a fast running game that had Maynard snowed under. Scorers for the Varsity were M. Matson with 13 points, B. Marsh 8 points, A. Alberi 2, and B. Boeske 2 points.

The J.-V.'s also went down to defeat by an 18 point score. High scorer for the J.-V.'s was C. Seura with 6 points, S. Marsh with 4, and Jean Zanelli with 2 points.

MAYNARD vs. SUDBURY

First Team Sudbury 33 — Maynard 25

Second Team Sudbury 18 — Maynard 26

On January 31st, Maynard went to play one of its best games of the season. The scores were close until the last quarter when Sudbury went into the lead to win with a total of 33 points.

However the J.-V.'s story was a different one. This was their first win of the season. High scorer was S. Marsh with 10 points, M. Duggan scored 8 points, Carol Seura scored 6 points and Jean Zanelli scored 2.

MAYNARD vs. MARLBORO

First Team Marlboro 72 — Maynard 20

Second Team Marlboro 45 — Maynard 17

Tragedy struck again when the Maynard girls went down to defeat at the brutal hands of Marlboro. The high scorer was M. Matson with 11 points and B. Marsh with 9 points.

After the J.-V.'s win at Sudbury last week the Maynardites were full of spirit and fight but it wasn't enough to win. High scorer was C. Seura with 11 points, J. Zanelli 4 points, and S. Marsh scored 2 points.

MAYNARD vs. SUDBURY

First Team Sudbury 33 — Maynard 31

Second Team Sudbury 19 — Maynard 28

This game with Sudbury was a rematch, because the score of the other Sudbury game was so close. The Maynardites played a hard, fast game right down to the very last second. Sudbury emerged with a hard won victory. High scorer was Mary Matson with 19 points. Becky Marsh with 6 points, Audrey Alberi with 5 points and Betty Boeske with 2 points.

Again the J.-V.'s won their game with Sudbury. Although it was a losing cause, Sudbury played a good game. High scorer was S. Marsh with 16 points, C. Seura with 10 points and M. Duggan with 2 points.
