Dedication

Dedicating a yearbook is, at best, a difficult task because there are usually many deserving people who have, in some way, influenced the lives of our young people. However, our 1994 Screech Owl staff found their task this past year a little easier. We have chosen to honor two very special teachers, Ms. Beverly Jean Smith and Mr. John Cole.

Ms. Smith came to Maynard High School's Art Department in September of 1967. Over the years, her love of art and her outstanding skills have been transferred to a large number of students who have found successful careers in art related fields. She has always given unselfishly of herself, whether it was to help decorate the school for holidays, assist with sets and posters for school plays, or putting together an art exhibit of student work. On behalf of students past and present, we salute Ms. Smith for a job well done.

John Cole joined the teaching staff at Maynard High in September of 1963. His 'no nonsense' style of teaching has enabled many MHS students to excel in the field of science. His name is often mentioned by graduates as a major influence in their successful transition to college and beyond. Mr. Cole has always been a devoted and caring teacher who has dedicated himself to the high achievement and success of his students. The 1994 Screech Owl staff is proud to honor Mr. Cole this year on behalf of the hundreds of young men and women who have benefited from his teaching over the past thirty years.

1994 Screech Owl Staff

It has been an extreme pleasure supervising the publication of this year's Screech Owl. Hopefully, it will provide many enjoyable moments, both for our graduating seniors and the underclassmen.. The Yearbook Staff has worked long and hard to record the faces and events that symbolize life here at Maynard High School and I applaud their efforts.

I would like to take a moment to pay special thanks to three of this year's seniors, who, in essence, became our yearbook staff as the days and months of preparation rolled by: ERIKA GRUNWALD, SUZANNE ST. HILAIRE and AMY BROOKS. Their hard work and dedication to the task are the main reasons our 1994 Screech Owl was successfully completed. Whether it was during a snow day or on a Sunday, these three girls made certain every deadline was met on time.

Finally, I would like to pay tribute to Mrs. Koskinen without whose patience and typing ability we might still be on page three.

My congratulations and best wishes to the Class of '94.

Sincerely,

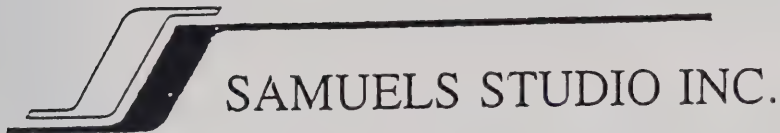

Mr. Magno
