WELCOME TO...

Mr. Najjar
Math Department

Dedication

Thank you!

We, the class of 2001, wish to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Kenneth Najjar. Your wonderful sense of humor and the way you strive to make your classes challenging, interesting and relevant will surely be missed. We greatly appreciate all the time that you've spent inside and outside of our classes to help us understand mathematics. Not only are we losing a great math teacher but the best hall monitor, constantly telling us to get to class! As you leave the halls of MHS we hope that you never forget the memories that you've made and the lives that you've touched.

Congratulations Class of 2001!

Thank You Mr. Hilli

Before: Mr. Hilli 1992

After: Mr. Hilli 2001

The Senior Class of 2001 wishes to thank our advisor, Mr. Tom Hilli. Thank you for your guidance, your Mom's cookies and your unsuccessful attempts to push for a Christmas prom. Nice try! Although we leave you behind this year, we know that you'll never be able to forget us, and we promise only to visit once in a while.

To the Class of 2001

As you go through life and look back on your time at Maynard High School, we, the Yearbook Committee, hope that the memories contained in this book will bring back the good times, good friends, and some good laughs.

Good luck in your future endeavors!

Remember when...

...Glenn shaved his eyebrows

...The dress code was enforced

...Seniors had privileges

...The under classmen had respect

...We won Spirit Week during our Sophomore year

...Kim went the wrong way on Rte. 9

...Paul had one big hair bang

...Sarah had her 70's cut

...Ricky, Sal & Kenny were studs

...We went to Matt's house on 1/2 days

...Lisa actually went to school

...When Roller Kingdom was the place to be
