Remembering a Friend Melissa Saulnier 1992-1996

When I Think of Melissa

*When I think of Melissa I can feel my heart tug.
It begs me to remember her from there.*

*To remember her joy and her love.
A gift of giving was bestowed on her.
She gave so much, as if
It was her duty and her calling.*

*She loved to learn, to teach, to be herself.
She would write, and when she wrote,
She left her soul
Indelible on the page for all to see.
She was thankful. She was respectful.
She was thoughtful and kind.
She was fiercely proud.*

*Proud of her music, her school and her community
She wore Maynard on her hat and in her heart.
She touched many lives.*

*She was a young woman with all the qualities of a natural leader
Charismatic and full of energy. She was a student. Determined and irrepressible.
She was a daughter and a sister, with courage, truth and family values.
She was a child, taken from our lives long before we could ever imagine.*

*She was your friend, she was my friend
My heart remembers her.*

Brian Heath "In seven years I will either be dead, in jail, or married to Amanda...bustin' my hump trying to make ends meet while working as a foreman."

Ross Ignachuck "I will still be setting up church services with Mags, since I will be a janitor with Dave, Walter, Ed and Bobby."

Kim Ingles "In seven years I will be getting paid to use oils and assorted tools to relieve people's stress and put a smile of relaxing contentment onto their faces."

Rachel Kapelle "In seven years I will be writing my masterpiece while starving to death in a drafty attic somewhere."

John Keeley "In seven years I will be happily married to my present girlfriend, and will be the co-owner of the most productive electrical engineering plant along the east coast."

Lori Larkin "In seven years I'll have my bachelors degree in early childhood education and will be working full-time at Mulberry Childcare, and hopefully, married to a wonderful man and have two kids."

Katie McCarthy "In seven years I will be commuting between Boston and Hawaii. While in Boston, I'll be visiting the Fleet Center in the rich folk seats, cheering my husband Adam on. In Hawaii, I'll be chillin' with Adam during the off-season, while holding wild crazy Bruins parties with the players at my house."

Tom Muldoon "In seven years I will be working as a clerk for Gov. William Weld, raising money for my presidential campaign."

Lauren Palazzolo "I will be picking up marshmallows at the Gen for the bonfire at Boone, accompanied by Jared, of course."

Both of us will be waiting for everyone else to stop fighting so we can end up going to the mall. Afterwards I'll stop by for a reunion at Delaney...If Mike shows up."

Erin Wolfendale "Hopefully, in ten years I will be married to the man of my dreams, living in New Hampshire with our twins, Dakota Alexander and Haley Skye (and of course Charlie) next to Amanda and working part-time at the "wretched Den."
