Dedication

Throughout our four years, many teachers have watched our progress. One teacher in particular has seen us in many different moods and in many different classes. Mr. Alan Start has straightened out our inaccuracies, counted our change at recess, and seen to it that we have school spirit out of school by helping to train our sportsmen. In our last year he has seen our class through all its problems and successes as one of the Senior Class Advisors. Mr. Start is an upright and forceful example of a true teacher.

And so we, the Senior Class of 1962, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Alan Start.

"He is a man well-versed in all things."

A Word of Explanation

Perhaps you have wondered why you have seen nothing as yet of the Seniors. Most other yearbooks begin with the Seniors in traditional form; but our yearbook is not only yearbook — it is also a scrapbook which tries to capture the spirit and the sequence of our four years here.

We begin with pictures of the building, our first real impression of high school. Following this picture we dedicate our book since we do not want to forget those to whom we owe our success. Then we meet the teachers, the people who guided us both at the first and at the last. Next we travel upwards through the classes just as we have for the last three years. We follow the classes with pictures of our activities, since they formed the framework of our school life both in and out of the school day.

Up to this point we have followed the life of the first three years. Now we come to the last and most important year, the senior year. In this section, grouped together as it will be in our memory, is everything that makes the Senior Class, from its baby pictures to its graduation speakers. We have traveled through the first three years and now we come to the fourth, the last, the finish — and with this last we conclude our yearbook and close our scrapbook of the Class of 1962.

Class Will

The class of nineteen hundred and sixty-two made this their last will and testament which was to be read only in reverence and awe. Feeling that their graduation was near, they wanted to leave their sincere thanks to the class advisors, Mrs. Piantoni and Mr. Start. They hoped that Mr. Mattioli would be able to carry on without them.

1. DAVID ALBERI left his beautiful head of wavy hair(?) to Christine Vecchio.
2. STEPHEN ANDERSEN left being a jerk . . . at Howard Johnsons' to William Whitney.
3. WALTER ANNETT left his secret of how to doze in class and still get over 600 in your college boards to Edward Gilley.
4. NANCY BALCH left her cellar available for more surprise parties to the whole Junior class.
5. JEAN BARILONE left her rusty halo to Jean Wick.
6. MARGARET BARRETT left her superfluity of words to Beverly Rosemark.
7. LINDA BENNETT left her overgrown pearl necklace to one of next year's Christmas trees.
8. MARY ELLEN BOESKE left her Annapolis Speed record to William Sokolowski.
9. JAMES BORZUMATO left his happy smile and "hello everybody" to the Mullins.
10. FRANCES BUSCEMI left her pajamas to whoever wants to have a pajama party.
11. KATHLEEN BUSCEMI left mumbling some things about "I gotta comb my hair!"
12. ALFRED CAREY left because the chairs were getting too small for him.
13. ELLA CLARK left some donut holes to Ann Tannuzzo.
14. WILLIAM DEROSA left his P. A. D. to D. D. D.
15. RAYMOND DEROSBY left a friendly smile and a wink to the girls of M. H. S.
16. DOROTHY DONOHUE left a big black cloud of smoke hovering over her peanut butter cookies to Miss Sawutz.
17. RONALD DORAN left his lamp and midnight oil to Robert Whitney.
18. JOHN ENNEGUESS left his obsession for mathematics and a joyous Miss Kiley to Edwin Carlton.
19. MADELINE FITZGERALD left the senior class pictures in color to Loring Studios.
20. PAMELA FERGUSON left a certificate to have three shirts cleaned at Maynard Cleaners to John Palmaccio.
21. WILLIAM FRAZIER left Mr. DeRosa with a few more rules about how to drive a car.
22. ANN GRACEFFA left as quietly as she came.
23. DONALD GUNN left his high height to Holly Hit.
24. DANE HATHAWAY left his worn out spot in the corridor to Tiger Brooks and Paul Raikenen.
25. BARBARA HATCH left a broken chair to the Lerer's as a remembrance of her ladylike manner.
26. THOMAS HAYES left an autographed picture to all his women admirers.
27. LYNNE HELLAWELL left her shy and modest mannerisms to Kriss King.
28. THOMAS HILLI left his Republican party membership to J(anet) Kennedy.
29. DAVID JANUSKIEWICZ left his Algebra book for the comic strips at the Paper Store.
30. JOAN JARMULOWICZ left a deflated basketball and a cracked hockey stick to Jerilyn Dee.
31. LORRAINE JOHANSEN left her crown to a hopeful Junior girl.
32. ROBERT JOMÉ left his little scooter on the green for Mr. Manty.
33. JAMES KELLEY left like a "dodo bird" wondering what has happened during the past four years.
34. WILLIAM KETO left leading a Science Club field trip to a restaurant, Mr. Lerer's treat! !
35. ROBERT KORSMAN left a tire on one of his morning trips around the school in the middle of the school lawn.
36. JOHN KULEISUS left his footsteps to the town. . . . No, John Kuleisus left his footsteps to the town.
37. JEAN LALLI left humming a little tune.
38. DAVID LAPOINTE left his comfortable old sneakers along with the sneakers of those in his "sneaker club" to Coach Larson.
39. WILLIAM LARSON left his grammar school cowboy suit to Patricia Crowther.
40. RUSSELL LATTUCA left saying "Grace."
41. JOHN LATVA left his gallant mannerisms with the girls to Joseph Uglevich.
42. JONATHAN LEAVITT left his brief case to Jeffrey West because it weighed a ton.
43. GORDON LERER left Mr. Lerer to Maureen Lerer.

44. ALLAN LITIG left a streamlined grocery cart to Bernard Tarara to carry home his books.
45. FAITH LOMBARD left in a cloud of dust and a hearty "Hi-yo Silver—away!"
46. PETER MAGLIONE left Sandra Lindfors a lock of his hair
47. RONALD MANSFIELD left a huge electric bill (from his electric guitar) to the taxpayers.
48. HARRY MANUEL left his comb and axle grease to Linda Gunn.
49. JEANNE MARIA left her Bear's Club Credits to Big Bob Cox.
50. PAUL MARZILLI left a package of Chuckles to Gordon Catton.
51. CAROL MASKIEWICZ left her cool, calm, collected conduct to the "Take Out."
52. DENNIS MASKOUSKY left his paint box to the Indians.
53. FRANK MASSARELLI left his corroded Junior High putty knife and worn out sand paper to the janitors.
54. ANNE McDONNELL left searching for her "Duncan Hines of Tomorrow."
55. ROSEMARIE MELORO left her half of the Yearbook cake to next year's Yearbook cake sale.
56. ROBERT MERRIAM left the twist to Virginia Weckstrom.
57. PAULETTE MOZINSKI left going to another party in her honor.
58. JUDITH MOORE left the punctures in her ears to the African Bushmen—Are they lucky!
59. CHARLES MURPHY left his Irish temper to Mrs. Flaherty who's seen enough of it already.
60. FORREST NELSON left his luck in airplanes to the students who fly to Washington next year.
61. ANTHONY NOVICK left without Mr. G.—for once.
62. JOHN NYMAN left the corridors of M. H. S. on a Bachrach carriage.
63. SUZANNE PEARY left the green line on her neck to any girl who thinks it's easy to go steady.
64. REGINA PILEEKI left her photogenic characteristics to no one.
65. JEAN RUSSO left her lovely apparel to Emmett Kelly, with sincere regards.
66. JAMES RYALL left the megaphone, which he used to be heard, to Linda Derby.
67. JUDITH SHERIDAN left a book entitled "How to Type 60 Words Per Minute Using the One Finger Method" to Paula Russo.
68. RAYMOND SMITH left his phony name to Janice Wojtkiewicz.

Follow The Famous

Quiz Show

Moderator:

Good evening Ladies and Gentlemen, welcome to Follow the Famous. First we present the world famous, Maestro Fiedler DeRosa. His famed symphony just finished an engagement at Crow Park and played Football in F Minus.

Maestro:

Thank you. On my left is the most popular school marm in the United States. She has attended ten universities and has received her BA, Ph.D., CD, PHF, MeN, UsnG, BAT and MaLe degrees. Prudence Stammers.

Prudence:

Good evening Maestro. On my left is Rocky Leavitt. Rocky has just returned from the wilds of Waltham after discovering the fossil of Mrs. Sylvia Clark's parakeet.

Rocky:

Thank you Prudence. And on my left is Moirdal Maria, the wife of the multi-millionaire Sanitation Engineer, Van Enneguess. Van obtained his millions from the diamond studded garbage pail.

Moirdal:

Good evening Rocky. I'd like to introduce Sootie Sotrine's, our happy-go-lucky quiz master.

Sootie:

Good evening everyone. We'll get right on with the show after a brief commercial from one of our sponsors.

commercial

This is Andersen's Corner of Fine Cooking. Here we always use the finest of foods and the best of cleansers. Oh my! Such dirty stains! This will fix it.

Balchie Babo — Balchie Babo,
Cleans deep stains away.
Balchie Babo — Balchie Babo,
Buy this little can today.

Sootie:

Panel, do you all understand the rules?

Panel: Oh, yes!

Sootie:

All right then, let's get started with the game. The first question is, who is the Marmalade Queen? I'll give you a hint, panel. Because of accumulated orange peels from her high school days, she got her start.

Moirdal: I know! I know! Anne McDonnell

Prudence:

No! Anne hasn't graduated from college yet. She's having so much fun, she's making it a career. The Marmalade Queen is Kathy Buscemi.

Sootie:

Right. Who was the famous, fastidious, French poet, Robert Jomé, referring to, when he said, "Over the teeth, past the gums, look out stomach, here it comes."?

Prudence:

Paul Marzilli, the pizza pie proprietor.

Sootie:

Correct Prudence. Who was the big game hunter who found the beautiful blonde, heirsch, Paulette Mozkinski, swinging in the vines with Tarzan Borzumato?

Rocky: Is it John Latva?

Sootie:

You mean John Latva, the one we always see in the pool hall with the derby hat and big cigar? No, that's not the one. Doesn't anyone remember? . . . It's Steve Vinciguerra. Wait! Hold Everything! I've just been handed a news bulletin. Tom Hilli has just been elected chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Panel:

Yea, cheer, cheer, yea!

Sootie:

Now that we've all settled down again, our next question is, name the tuba player in the Tobin Red Spot's Dance Band?

Maestro: Carol Maskiewicz?

Sootie:

No, it's Anthony Christopher Novick.

Rocky:

Carol Maskiewicz is the psycho-analyst who is probing through the mind of the late Houdini.

Sootie:

Who is the new proprietor of Playboy's Penthouse? Ella Clark, one of the chorus bunnies, is his wife.

Rocky:

Oh, let's see now. Walt . . . ah . . . Walt Annett.

Moirdal:

I saw him last night directing the premiere of The Rise and Fall of the Russian Empire. James Kelley did a terrific job as Khrushchev.

Prudence:

I went to that premiere too. You'll never guess who came in with the vivacious starlet, Jean Lalli! That real hip jazz pianist, Dixie DeRosby.

Maestro:

I thought he was going out with Mary Ellen Boeske?

Prudence:

No, she's a Duchess now. She married the Duke of LaPointe.

Sootie:

Hey, hey! Remember we're on the air, this isn't a gossip session. Back to the game. Who came in last at the 1967 Kentucky Derby, riding Beetle-Bomb II, owned by the private stables of Esquire David Januskiewicz?

Rocky: Oh, that's easy. It's Faith Lombard.

Sootie:

Let's see if you're so good on this one. What year did the Ferguson Steamship Line open its scenic cruises up the beautiful Assabet River?

Moirdal:

In 1963, the same year of the grand opening of the Barilone-Moore Beauty Salon for French Poodles.

Sootie:

What's the name of the chemist who found the formula for laughter?

Rocky:
Wasn't that Dr. John Kuleisus? He sold his formula to Jack Paar.

Moirdal:
The other night on the Jack Paar Show, Charles Quigles Murphy did his famous disappearing act and hasn't come back yet. The world is in despair!

Sootie:
After a brief commercial we will continue with the second portion of Follow the Famous.

commercial

Gentlemen . . . and Ladies. My name is Alcinda Sotrines. I have a brand new product to introduce to you this evening. The Frazier Razor Lather.

Frazier Razor Lather is the best.

This great lather really passes the test.

Sootie:
Welcome back to the second half of Follow the Famous. All set, panel? Can anyone tell me where the well known track stars, Barbara and James Ryall performed for the 1971 Littig World's Fair?

Rocky:
Wasn't that held at Congolia, the country of King Korsman?

Sootie:
That's right, Rocky. Who recites poetry in Greenwich Village in the Drooping Onion Coffee House, owned by Richard Wellner and Gordon Lerer?

Rocky: Ronald Doran.

Sootie:
Recently a book was written called Juvenile Delinquency and How it Can be Stopped. He used Bazooka Bennett and Deadly Dane Hathaway as his main characters. Tell me the author's name?

Moirdal:
That was Thomas "Tennessee" Hayes.

Prudence:
I read his book. It was very true to life. I bought it at Barrett's Book Store. You know the place, the back room is what you call a bookie establishment. I guess that's where they print up the author's books.

Moirdal:
I wonder how Bill Larson's Lonely Hearts Club in Egypt is coming along?

Prudence: Hmph!!!

Sootie:
In what European zoo do Joan Jarnulowicz and Lynne Hellawell teach porpoises and platypuses to recite the Gettysburg Address?

Rocky:
I know! Manuel's Mammal and Audubon Home in Nymangrad, Russia.

Maestro:
Maglione's Midget Circus performed there. Oh Rocky, I forgot to tell you who's back in town. Suzanne Peary. She's been on the Cover of Field and Stream about five times.

Sootie:
Paying attention panel? What did the painter, David Alberi, paint free hand?

Moirdal:
The guide lines on the road! I was following one of his crooked lines when I saw this billboard. Did you know Miss Judith Sheridan is a candidate for traffic commissioner of the skies?

Maestro:
Speaking of the skies, Dennis Maskousky has decided to paint the sky navy blue.

Rocky:
Navy! That reminds me, Ann Graceffa is swabbing the decks of the Nautilus, while under the South Pole.

Moirdal:
Come to think of it, Lorraine Johansen swam under the South Pole in her diving outfit.

Sootie:
There you go again panel, you're off the subject. Ple-ase, let's continue with the game. Now, keeping in mind that Ray Smith is the barber who shaves the peach fuzz off peaches before her Ladyship Russo of England can eat them, tell me what he does with the peach fuzz?

Prudence:
Gee . . . ah . . . that's a stumper. Oh, I know. He throws it away in Kathy Fitzgerald's Hole-In-The-Ground Aeronautics Division of the United States Civil Air Patrol Dump.

Sootie:
You should all remember this, as it happened last week. Marilyn Van Dor's funeral was held at Mansfield's Mortuary. Tell me the day she died?

Maestro:
Last Wednesday, the same day Sheila Sweeney finally got her autograph of ex-president Kennedy.

Sootie:
Another news bulletin! Professor Massarelli has just created Frankenstein II. He would be on the rampage if it wasn't for the bravery of lady wrestler Franny Buscemi.

Panel: Three cheers for Franny!

Prudence:
Moirdal, did you know Regina Pilecki has been going out with Donald Gunn, the head custodian at Rockefeller Center?

Moirdal: Who's Regina Pilecki?

Prudence:
She's chairman of the board of smellers at "Parfum de Rosenmaric."

Sootie:
Who are the two missionaries who civilized the Congo Bushmen led by Alfred Carey?

Maestro:
The missionaries are Dorothy Donahue and Russell Lattuca.

Sootie:
Name the famous carpenter who straightened out the Tower of Pisa? He worked hand in hand with strong man Bill Keto, who held it up while he fixed it.

Maestro: It was Bob Merriam.

Prudence:
No, it was Forrest Nelson. Bob Merriam is the one you see on the street corner every night singing for his supper.

Sootie:
Well, panel, you did pretty well this evening. I'll give you one last chance to be correct. Who was buried in Grant's Tomb?

Panel: Cary Grant!

Sootie:
You're hopeless panel: That's all for tonight, folks. Tune in again next week, when once again we will have an all star panel, we hope!

TO HONOR MISS PASAKARNIS:

Miss Anne Pasakarnis, art teacher, who retires this June, has been a dedicated and helpful teacher in the Maynard School System for more than thirty years. Her direction through all our school years has made us more sensitive to beauty and has taught us how to create beauty around us. We shall miss her and so, at this point in our lives, we want to thank her and wish her happiness in the years ahead.

Our Class History

One sunny morning in September of 1958 we began our long and hard struggle through high school. It was a hectic day, as we did not know where to go or what to do.

The first week was mass confusion. Soon, however, with the help of the teachers and upper classmen we were in the swing of things. Our first duty was to choose our leaders. We elected Donald Gunn as President, Lorraine Johansen as Vice President, Jean Barilone as Secretary, and William DeRosa as Treasurer.

During the first weeks of school we were all eagerly waiting for the "Welcome Freshman Dance," which would make us full-fledged members of Maynard High. The moment came and we all enjoyed our first dance as high school students.

Now as full-fledged members of Maynard High we could be represented on the Student Council. We elected Donald Gunn, John Enneguess, Suzanne Peary, Thomas Hilli, and Kathleen Buscemi as our representatives.

One event no one will forget, whether teachers, parents, shoppers, or, even, boys is the Junior Women's Club Initiation. The whole town probably thought we were crazy with our strange costumes, pan on one's head, crown on another's.

In the spring, three lucky lasses were chosen as cheerleaders: Rosemarie Meloro, Suzanne Peary, and Priscilla Sotrines, and they stayed on the squad.

We crowned our Freshman year with a rainy and dreary day at Nantasket. Despite the weather we all managed to have fun.

After a summer rest period we entered our Sophomore year. We returned determined to continue as well as we had begun. Remember all the homework the first day?

To start things rolling we elected as our class officers John Enneguess, President; Lorraine Johansen, Vice President; Jean Barilone, Secretary; and Donald Gunn as Treasurer. Kathy Buscemi, Donald Gunn, Jean Russo, and John Enneguess were chosen as our representatives in the Student Council.

This year moved slowly. Finally the time we had all been anticipating arrived,—the ordering of our class rings.

Lastly, the time for our annual class outing arrived. We again decided to go to Nantasket. As before, the weather was bad, but we enjoyed ourselves in spite of the weather.

The following Autumn, we entered Maynard High as upper classmen. Boy, did we feel great! Our first duty was to elect our class officers: Thomas Hilli as President, Joan Jarmulowicz as Vice President, Lorraine Johansen as Secretary, and Ronald Doran as Treasurer. The following were elected as Student Council members: Donald Gunn, Raymond Smith, John Enneguess, Kathy Buscemi, Rosemarie Meloro, and Thomas Hilli.

The arrival of our class rings caused a great commotion. Remember boys?

This year was a very busy one. In November the highest honor was bestowed upon Linda Bennett, Anne McDonnell, and Donald Gunn, when they were inducted into the National Honor Society at a very solemn ceremony.

Later on, the Student Government Exchange was held with Woburn High School and Jean Lalli, Rosemarie Meloro, Donald Gunn, William DeRosa, and David Sotrines went as our representatives.

From all the Junior girls and boys Anne McDonnell was selected for Girls' State and Donald Gunn and Thomas Hilli for Boys' State.

The most exciting social event of our four years was before us now, the Junior Prom. The Prom demanded much hard work. As our theme, we chose "Fantasia." After many days and nights of hard work we finished decorating the Green Meadow Gym. All the girls that night were dressed in beautiful gowns and the gym looked gorgeous. Our queen, Lorraine Johansen and the ladies of her court, Joan Jarmulowicz, Anne McDonnell, Jean Barilone, Jean Russo, Paulette Mozinski, and Nancy Balch, were chosen during the Grand March.

The next night after the long prom evening, the annual Sports banquet was held. Many awards were given at the banquet and our leaders in the field of sports were announced: Donald Gunn, and David Alberi, Co-captains of football; William DeRosa, captain of basketball; Ronald Doran, captain of baseball; and Suzanne Peary, captain of cheerleaders.

Finally, in our third year the weather for our outing was beautiful. We all returned home from Nantasket with sun burns, tans and a day full of memories.

Our high school years seemed to have passed so quickly. It was unbelievable! We were at the top, as upper classmen, — as seniors. The date was September, 1961.

As our officers, we chose Thomas Hilli, President; Anne McDonnell, Vice President; Suzanne Peary, Secretary; and David Sotrines, Treasurer; to see us through our final and most important year. Our senior representatives to the Student Council were Donald Gunn, John Enneguess, Suzanne Peary, and Raymond Smith.

Football season began with our Tigers raring to go. We had a very good season. Our greatest victory was over Concord when we beat them for the first time in 23 years, in Concord.

The annual J. W. C. Dance was held as usual. Under the direction of Karen Stammers, President, this event was a big success.

In November, a great honor was bestowed upon Karen Stammers and Rosemarie Meloro when they were inducted in the National Honor Society.

We were pleased to learn that Linda Bennett and Rosemarie Meloro had been chosen to officiate as Yearbook Editors.

Anne McDonnell was elected to receive the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award by her classmates; she also won the Betty Crocker Home-maker of Tomorrow Award.

Christmas vacation approached and we closed school with a sigh of relief, for we were grateful that we had a short pause in our busy schedule. We returned from our vacation, however, with the eagerness to continue the last six months of our high school career.

In April, Jean Lalli, Jean Russo, and Stephen Andersen, were elected to the National Honor Society.

As the time for our graduation approached, Jean Lalli, Rosemarie Meloro, Donald Gunn, Jean Russo, Anne McDonnell, and Linda Bennett were chosen as our graduation speakers. Jeane Maria, Karen Stammers, Priscilla Sotrines, Jonathan Leavitt, Stephen Andersen, and William DeRosa were chosen as our Class Night Speakers.

On Class Night, we had as our guests, our teachers and the School Committee. After a delicious meal, the wills and prophecies were read and afforded amusement to all who were present.

Graduation day finally arrived and as we held the coveted diploma in our hands and saw all our friends around us for the last time, we felt the pleasure of the life that we were leaving behind us. We had strived since our Freshman year for our graduation day and because of this day, the class of 1962 was headed for a better tomorrow.

So ends the history of the class of 1962 and as such we enter it in our scrapbook to keep the memory of our class alive.

Our Farewell

WE HAVE FINALLY COME TO THE END of our high school years. For some, these years have been easy, for others difficult, but all of us have benefited in some way.

Although we leave Maynard High School behind us, we will never forget the busy corridors, the piles of homework, and the helpful teachers that have been so much a part of our lives for the past four years.

This is our yearbook—

These are our pictures—

This is our class.

We, the Yearbook Staff, have acted as representatives to make a scrapbook which will keep fresh the memories of the class of 1962.

JOB
OPENS UP
A BIG
ANY GIRL

When you graduate it's wonderful to have a telephone job waiting for you. You'll love the friendly new people you meet. And you'll like the excellent salary, the regular increases, the opportunities for advancement and the many additional benefits that make working for the Telephone Company so attractive to so many young people.

Telephone jobs are important ones. We have our own training program which you can enter without any previous job experience.

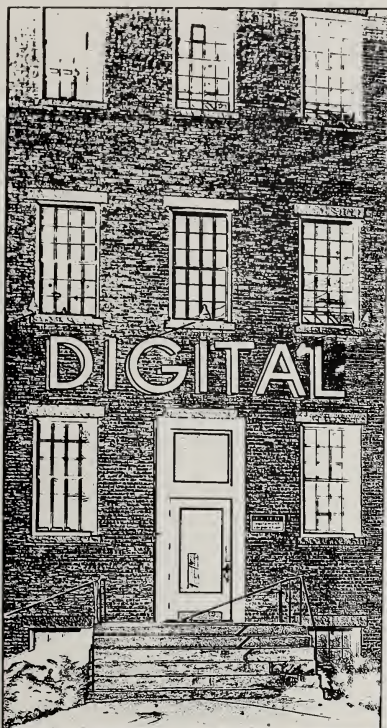

Why not come and see our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate. Ask the Guidance Counselor at your school to tell you when and where to apply.
