I don't think I will ever forget you we have shared so much, good, bad, and indifferent.
I always remember the good times we have had throughout the years. Don't forget that hockey camp, because I think is the first time we were ever to remain since (no, just kidding) I told everyone we were all well esp. together and it has been we did the time we were just also all the members all the things when I needed to look to. I am really glad we spent our summer together.
You have made me a better person.
Oh, and we can't forget those wonderful trips. I think we might be able to crazy. I think we might be able to will be separated a little but of change, save our selves, a little to write each since we won't be able to write each other to call a couple of words more know. I don't think I will because it will take too long or it will become redundant!
anyways you probably know everything I will say take care! Good luck!

last night, the tempest tore up that young sapling in the green glory of his spring.
today, the oaks bow their heads and sigh.
and the maple sweetly mourns in song.
and how shall we sound our sorrow?
we cannot.
let us but remember
the splendor of his passage.
silently
his spring abides forever in the deepest reaches of our hearts.

May 4, 1979 was the date for the long awaited Junior Prom. Excited couples elegantly dressed arrived at the Hillcrest in Waltham at 8:00. Although the room was a bit smaller than expected, couples managed to march in to the song "The Long and Winding Road." Dining and dancing to the music of Joshua Tree filled the evening. Greg Hunter and Lisa Calabria were selected as King and Queen and their court included Mike Foley, Dave Collura, Barry McNaulty, Mike Loring, Dave Alatalo, Brenda Lockhart, Nancy Varrichone, Anne Martin, Lisa Manzo, and Laura Kaczor. It was a lovely evening, one of the many memories which will be reflected upon in the years to come.

This years Winter Carnival was a long-awaited success. The theme, "The Wild, Wild, West" produced interesting posters and baked goods. The addition of the new events such as the egg and spoon race, the three-legged race, and the potato sack race added some excitement to the regular schedule of events. Extensive planning by Al Stebbins, Chan Lincoln, Rich Staszewski, and a crew of enthusiastic students made this years winter carnival weekend a bright spot in the winter months.

football

No one worked harder than the young Maynard football team in gaining a 4-6 record. Led by captains Barry McNulty and Dennis Iannarelli, the teams faced tough competition with aggressive offensive play. Although the season was not a winning one, the Tigers were winners in the eyes of their fans.

They shared Midland League honors with Westboro and entered District Competition. They lost to a tough Notre Dame team in the districts, but all were proud of their successful season. The Junior Varsity team coached by Barbara Moynihan showed promise for continuing the winning ways of the 1979 Varsity Field Hockey Team.

country*

Maynard Cross Country had a great year. The girls team finished undefeated for the League Title. They lost only one dual race all year. Their 6-1 record qualified them for districts and state semi finals. The team finished 14th in the total state competition, paced by Lisa Manzo.

The Boys Cross Country Team also had a successful record. They finished 5-4 overall and were led by Scott Savoy. Their 4th place finish in the league was the highest ever.

Captain Wess Cathcart led a group of boys with pride and determination.

team had a tremendous season. Led by co-captains Karen Marderosian and Brenda Lockhart, the Tigers were tough and competitive throughout the season. The girls entered District Competition, losing the District III Finals to a tough North Brookfield team. They ended the season with a 17-5 record. The Junior Varsity team also enjoyed a successful season showing promise for next years' club.

The cheerleaders, under the enthusiastic guidance of Miss Patti Kallio and Mrs. Margie LeSage helped to liven up the sports program at Maynard High. These girls have been working year round to keep the spirit up at M.H.S. For the first time in many years, the M.H.S. cheerleaders entered into compeition. Surprising many, they came in second place in the Midland League Tournament, and second in the David Prouty Tournament, and accomplishment to be proud of.

anything goes

This year's musical was Anything Goes. As the story unfolded aboard a cruise ship bound for London, the audience was treated to such hits as "You're the Top," "Friendship," "Anything Goes," and "Take Me Back to Manhattan." As the curtain closed on March 15th, another successful M.H.S. production became history. Although the audiences were small, the enthusiasm of the cast and crew was high.

What can I say?
We've been through so much through the past few years - good and bad. But all in all we've had a good friendship, and I'll be very unhappy to see it go down the drain. So better write or else. So good luck to my "Sis" B.

Love,
Kathy (to you always)

I would really have liked to know you really well but it was just one of those things. You always caught my eye but maybe
someday

Brenda,

from the high president always screwing around in the halls, classes, bathroom ect. don't loose your sense of humor. High school was something I don't want to get into. Anyway good luck with whatever you do and think of me once in a while,
