1993 Screech Owl

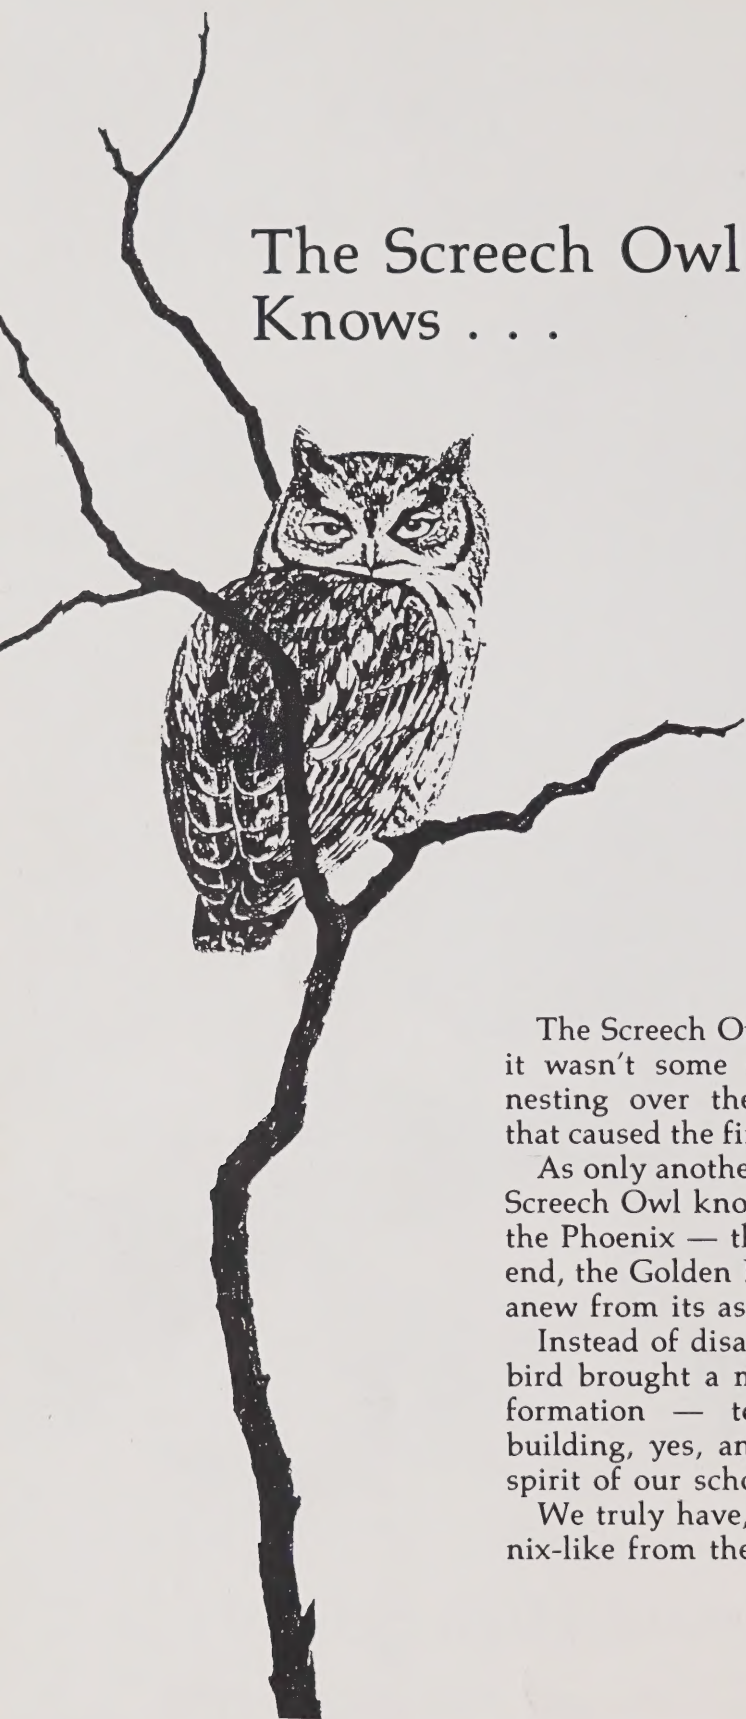

Maynard High School

1 Tiger Drive, Maynard, Massachusetts 01754

508 897 8891

The Screech Owl Knows . . .

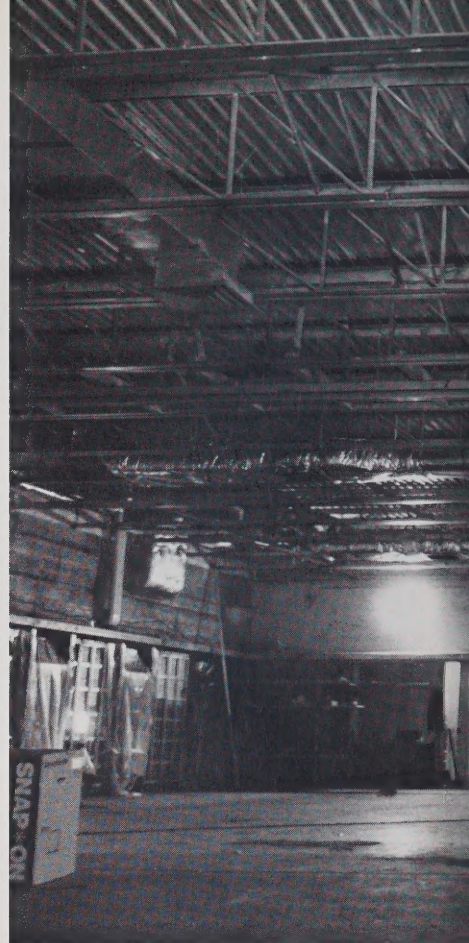

The Screech Owl knows that it wasn't some nuisance bird nesting over the exhaust fan that caused the fire last August.

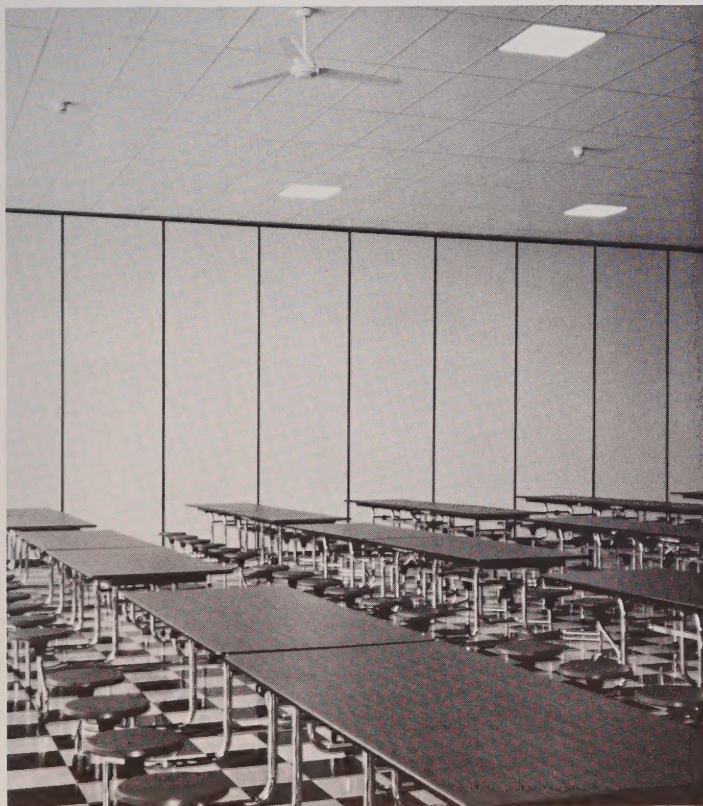

As only another bird can, the Screech Owl knows that it was the Phoenix — the bird of legend, the Golden Bird who rises anew from its ashes.

Instead of disaster, this fiery bird brought a mystical transformation — to our school building, yes, and to the very spirit of our school.

We truly have, "Risen Phoenix-like from the ashes."

We've Only Just Begun . . .

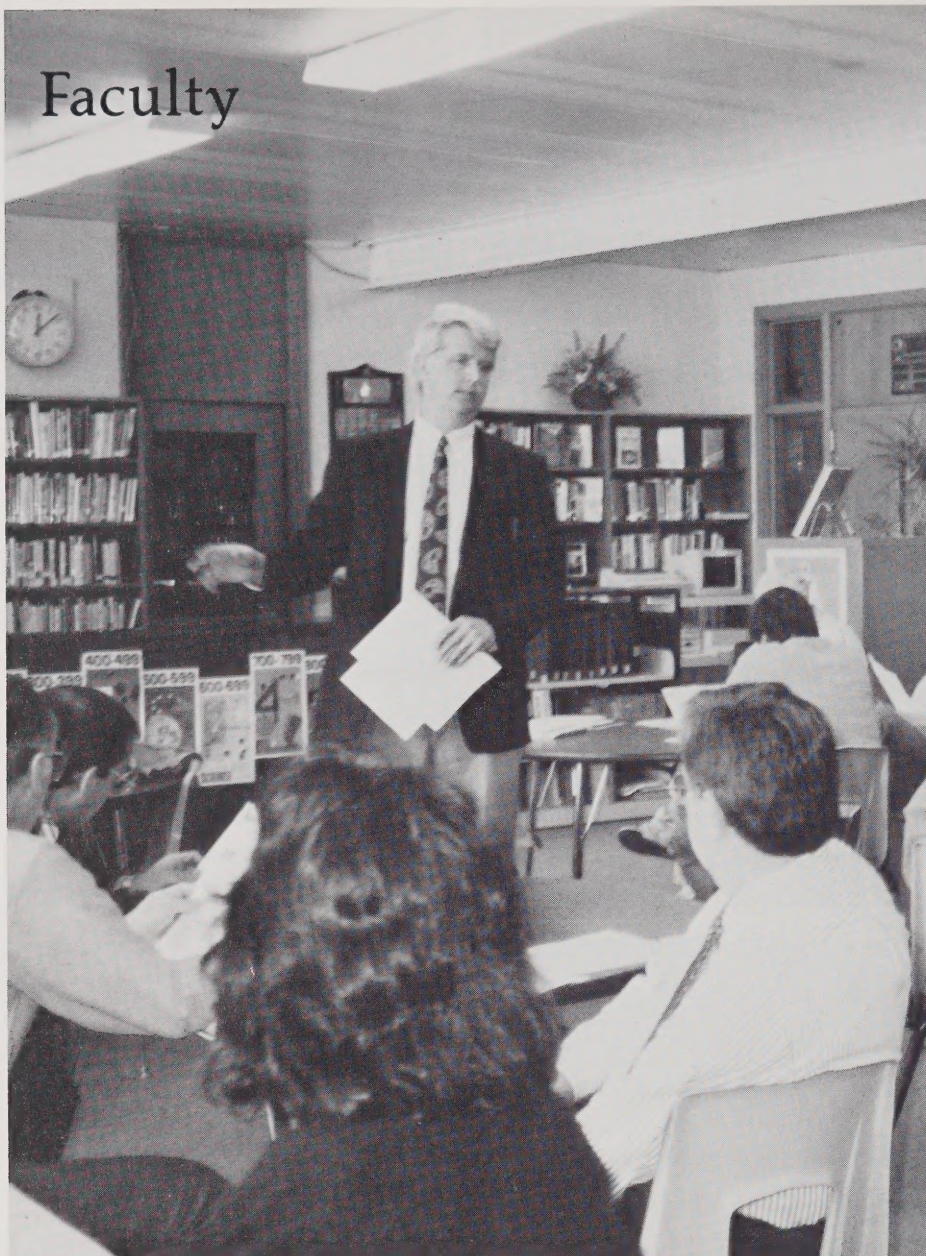

Clockwise from center top: After the fire, the cafeteria shell; the temporary cafenasium; or the gymateria; the finished cafeteria.

Spirit Week 1992

Spirit Week, an annual event that heralds the Thanksgiving Holiday, was once again a great success and with the addition of competition from the new eighth grade class, the race for first place was tougher than ever.

The week began with tag day, color day and hippie day, old favorites from previous years. A new addition to Spirit Week 1992 was a day devoted to a comic book character or superhero. Creativity and resourcefulness were a must for this event because students had to dress up to resemble their chosen comic. The participation was great and the likes of Bugs Bunny, Popeye and Cat Woman roamed the halls of MHS. The winner and all time favorite was a senior, Scott Swift, who came as a blue Smurf.

The class wall was another recurring event. Each class was assigned wall space in the halls to decorate in an appropriate theme of their choice. There was a specified time limit imposed for completion and when the five o'clock deadline approached, students scrambled to finish their masterpieces. This year it was the seniors who were victorious.

The week's activities culminated with a rally before the Thanksgiving Day football game. The class cheers, poems, lip syncs and the faculty skit were applauded by all. Although they tried their best, the underclassmen were once again shown that in Spirit Week, experience counts. The seniors captured the title of Most Spirited Class.

The year started out with an enthusiastic staff of ten students but, as usual, it dwindled down to a precious few. Editors came and went as the deadline pressure increased. Special mention should be given to the eighth grade girls, Laura Palazzolo, Katrina Taft and Jen Leache who had the best attendance at the weekly meeting.

We would like to express our thanks to Sam's Studio for all the group pictures for our activity section, the sports teams and candids, and the candids of Spirit Week and Winter Carnival. We would also like to thank the faculty for their understanding and patience when classes were interrupted for underclass portraits.

Our theme centered around the rebuilding of the cafeteria and assembly hall after the August fire. Although the cafeteria is nearly finished, our March deadline did not allow for pictures of the finished refurbishing. We leave that task to the class of 1994.
