Dedication

Seniors—we who, on the eve of Commencement, are about to leave the portals of this school, in all probability never to return, and to travel our respective ways in life, appreciate the pleasant associations of which this Senior magazine is a symbol. Our paths will be many and varied, yet, no matter where they lead us, the training we have received in these past four years will ever be an able guide to us, and will remain the solid foundation upon which our entire future lives may well be built.

In high school we have worked and played together, and have formed friendships that will last forever; during one of the finest and most important periods of our lives we have spent much of our time working in and for the school. It is only fitting that we have some tangible remembrance of our happy days here, one that will serve as an ever-present reminder of the many hours passed in pleasant labor with friends and teachers. The Screech Owl Year Book is the perfect medium for this, so to you, classmates, we dedicate this Senior Number of the Screech Owl.

May it serve its purpose well!

ACTIVITIES

JUNIOR PROM

The Junior Prom is one of the school activities to which everyone looks forward. As usual they were not disappointed in the outcome of the one held June 2, 1933, in the auditorium. The hall was decorated most attractively in rainbow shades of paper and gold stars. At the windows hung dainty colored curtains; on the window-sills sat jars of paper sweet peas. The girls looked charming in their dainty organdy frocks. The boys were most gallant with their boutonniers of sweet peas; and Miss Cassone, the class advisor, appeared very stunning in a rust colored dress. The matrons were Mrs. James King, Miss Ethel Butterworth, Miss Anne Pasakarnis, Mrs. James Malcolm, and Mrs. Edward McPherson. Music was furnished by Sheridan's orchestra. In the grand march favors of telephone and address books were given to the guests. Punch and cookies were served in the gymnasium.

Congratulations to Miss Cassone and the Junior Class!

BREEZIN' ALONG

Maynard High School has just presented a musical comedy entitled "Breezin' Along." It was given in the Parker Street Hall, May 17 and 18.

The play was the combined efforts of townspeople and students. The character parts were played by Jack Johnson, Loraine Koch, Robert Lester, Julia White, Roderick McIver, Elin Swanson, Kalervo Kansonniva, Anna Swanson, Constance Ferris, John Murphy, John Pozericki, Edward Hannon, Irene Lemoine, Julius Melewski, and John Fayton.

The chorus numbers were cleverly done by Mary Bobritsky, Elvi and Sylvia Nyholm, Sylvia Manninen, Helen Pyszka, Mary Kizik, Stella Lubin, Mary Gudzinowicz, Sara Wasiuk, Lucy Bingel, Rita Sheridan, Ruth Weir, Alice Macey, Mary Sokolowski, Veronica Arciszewski, Olga Mark, Eileen Johnston, Eileen Reid, Olga Kozak, Veronica Pieciewicz, Lillian Sullivan, William Johnson, John Malcolm, Edward O'Donnell, Stanley Pieciewicz, John Thompson, Joseph Arcisz, John O'Leary, Vincent Labowicz, and Richard Murphy.

The cast had much fun and enjoyment in producing the play. The money benefitted all the activities in the school.

Miss Ruth Taylor furnished the music. The coaching was done by Miss Eleanor Merritt of Boston.

RECENT ALUMNI

Harold R. Wilcox ('30), son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Wilcox of 16 Brooks Street, Maynard, a junior at Tufts College, was initiated into the Delta Chapter of Tau Beta Pi, the honorary engineering fraternity which corresponds to the Phi Beta Kappa of the liberal arts college, at the annual spring initiation and banquet, at the Commander Hotel in Cambridge.

John M. Bellows, Jr. ('30), a freshman at the University of Vermont, was recently initiated into Wig and Buskin, men's honorary dramatic society.

Catherine Coughlin ('31), a sophomore at Boston University, won the girls' tennis championship of the University for the second time.

Joseph Castanza

John Pozerycki

Stanley Wojtkiewicz

Ralph Lent

TRACK

The track meet with Concord was won by a narrow margin of three points. May 10, the day for which the meet was scheduled was rainy so it was postponed until the next day. The teams were very evenly matched and the events were always close. Our boys worked their muscles to the utmost in order to win and came through in fine style. Final score, Maynard—40, Concord—37.

The Senior track lettermen are:

Francis Gilleney

Tony Kavaleski

John Thompson

Richard Archer

FOOTBALL

The last two years have been comparatively successful for the football team. Most of those who have helped to put Maynard on the high school football map are graduating this June and will never again represent Maynard High on the field of sports. There were seven Seniors on the first team last fall and several others on the second team. The Seniors who were presented football M's at the Football Banquet are:

Michael Ignachuck, Captain

Richard Archer

Reno Aho

John Thompson

John Murphy

John O'Toole

John Pozerycki

Oiva Hintsa

Francis Gilleney

Bradford Case

Reino Grondahl

"Clever, snappy, and always happy."

Class Play Competition 1, 2, 3; Screech Owl Staff 3, 4; Student Council 4; Hockey Manager 4; Class Officer 1; Speaker, Graduation Night 4.

Rita is a "Jack of all trades," only she is "master of all." No matter what, or how much she attempts, she always does it well, and always comes through smiling.

Dorothy Burnham

"When you have nothing to say, say nothing."

Hockey 2; Junior Prom Committee 3; Christmas Social Committee 4; Glee Club 4; Screech Owl 4; Speaker, Graduation Night 4.

What will Mr. Lerer do without Dot next year? And what will happen to her when she lives on the campus of a college?

Mary Canella

"The Blues rarely overtake a hustler."
Basketball (Inter-class) 2.

Mary, will you ever put the brakes on? Don't get four wheel brakes because that would never do for many good reasons. Be careful going down hill.

Marguerite Carbarry

"Her looks do argue modesty."
Field Hockey 4; Inter-class Field Hockey
3; French Play 4.

Although she has been with us only two years, Marguerite has formed many friendships and has shown herself as an all-round good sport.

Bradford Case

"And bring with thee—
Laughter holding both his sides."
President of Freshman Class; Manager,
Basketball 1; Class Play 1, Stage
Manager 2, 3; Christmas Social Committee 3, 4; Football 3, 4; Screech Owl
3, 4, Business Manager 4; Speaker,
Graduation Night 4.

A gurgle, a chuckle, a whoop—Bradford!

Joseph Castanza

"Men are not measured by inches."
Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Captain 4; Inter-class
Basketball 4.

Joe does not put himself forward in school, but remember the saying, "Good things come in small packages."

Zennia Chutoranski

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."
Physical Education Exhibition 1; Secretary of Character Club 3; Leader of 4-H Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Zennia is so quiet we hardly know she's here, but she is liked by all who know her.

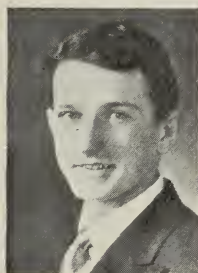

John D'Errico

"I hasten not to keep my dates for I care not who waits."

Baseball (Inter-class) 2; Football (Inter-class) 3; "Riding Down the Sky" 2.

John may give the wrong impression, girls, but remember that time nor tide waits for no man. Don't make the right one wait too long.

Stanley DeWitt

"To be simple is to be great."

Student Council 4.

Stanley is a boy that is never heard, but always does what he undertakes to the highest degree of perfection.

Isabelle Donahue

"The heart to conceive, the understanding to direct, or the hand to execute."

Junior Prom Committee 3; Usher 1, 3; French Soiree 4; Christmas Social Committee 3; Ring Committee 3.

Isabelle, who is always willing to help the class—how's "Irish?"

Mary Donahue

"O this learning, what a thing it is!"

We understand Mary is going to be a teacher. Here's luck to you, Mary. Remember your school days when teaching.

Anna Fayton

"As merry as the day is long."

Anna spent some of her Senior days in the hospital. She may tell you about her operation some time. Anna, do you still enjoy the shade of a "Maple" tree?

Thomas Gately

"And there is one rare strange virtue in his speeches

The secret of his mastery—they are short."

Track 1, 4; Basketball 2; Inter-class Basketball 4; Inter-class Football 3; Physical Education Exhibition 2, 3.

Tom, the big, silent type, has an impenetrable armor. However, there must be some loop-hole, but where is it?

Francis Gilleney

"Studious he sat with all his books around."

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Vice-President 3; Football 4.

Best of luck to you, "Skiike." Are you going to take a P. G. course next year?

Agnes Glebus

"Life is a jest and all things show it;
I thought it once, but now I know it."

We never see Agnes without her shadow.
Who? You tell us, Agnes.

Ruth Grunwald

"For she is jes' the quiet kind
Whose natures never vary,
Like streams that keep a summer mind
Snow-hid in January."

We don't know much about Ruth but we won't be fooled.

Ruth Heinonen

"If music be the food for love, play on."

Accompanist for Music Course; Accompanist for "Riding Down the Sky" 2.

Ruth is a quiet, efficient girl but she does make some exceptions to the rule. Again we won't be fooled.

Ralph Hellawell

"More matter with less art."

Class President 3; Class Treasurer 4; Track 4.

We know this fellow as "Rudy." Can he sing? Oh, yes, but we won't say what.

Mary Higgins

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

Mary is the girl we usually see coming into the classroom about 7:59 each morning. In spite of it all we know her by her smile.

Aino Holt

"A light heart lives long."

Aino is a fair-haired girl from the Commercial Department. Some business man will be in luck. Do you know your shorthand "out-lines," Aino?

Michael Ignachuck

"I propose to fight it out on this line—"

Physical Education Exhibition 2; Inter-class Football 2; A. A. Social Committee 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4; Inter-class Basketball 2; Football 2, 3, 4; Captain 4.

Kalervo Kansanniva

"La fortune favorise l'on qui a la determination."

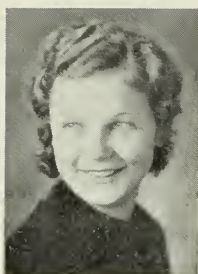

Inter-class Football 3; Class Play 2, 3; French Play 4; School Play 4; Christmas Social Committee 4; Class Prophecy 4; Speaker, Graduation Night 4. The smiling Sphinx of the class—Kalervo. Actor, too, what?

Tony Kavaleski

"Let nothing come between me and sports."

Basketball 2, 3; Soccer 2; Physical Education Exhibition 1, 2; Inter-class Football 2, 3; Inter-class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4.

Alice Kitowicz

"The village athlete you here will meet;
In all kinds of sports she knows no defeat."

Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey Captain 4;
Basketball 1, 2, 3.

Keep on where you left off and you will win, Alice.

Loraine Koch

"Vouloir c'est pouvoir."

Class Play Competition 1, 2; Christmas
Social Committee 4; A. A. Social Committee 3; Junior Prom Committee 3;
Screech Owl, Assistant Editor 4;
School Play 4; French Play 4; Glee
Club 3; Speaker, Graduation Night 4.

Olga Kozak

"Here, men are faithful to their books
But Olga's faithful to their looks."

"Breezin' Along" 4.

Olga proved some dancer in the show
"Breezin' Along." Are you going to be on the stage, Olga?

Esther Launola

"A good disposition that gold cannot buy."

"La-la" gives one the idea that she is bashful and retiring—but not she! She owns a car and hasn't been known to stall—yet. What we would like to know is what happened the night of May 6,
1933, between 12 and 1 o'clock?

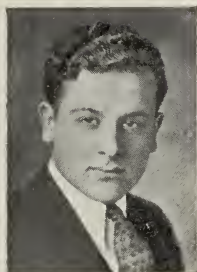

Marion Ledgard

"Opus omnia vincit."

Christmas Social Committee 3; Junior
Prom Committee 3; Usher 3; Glee Club 3.

Marion, of the cheerful disposition, often sets the class laughing with some original bit of thinking.

Adam Mariani

"Disturb not that which is quiet."

"Riding Down the Sky" 2.

Adam is another classmate that does not make himself known. I guess we understand why, though.

Howard Marsden

"Let knowledge grow from more to more."

Sprig Jig Committee 4.

Howie, of the long legs, has secrets, we know, but it's as difficult to discover them as it is to match his stride.

Beatrice Mason

"A little knowledge is a dangerous thing."

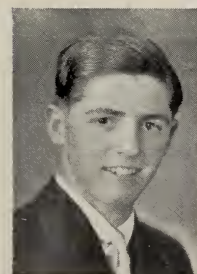

Beatrice hasn't shown her colors much, as yet, and how we would like to know what those colors are! Oh well, maybe this is just the beginning.

Genevieve Mikijaniec

"Make thy presence known."

We often see Genevieve's name in one of the popular local papers. Publicity is great while it lasts.

George Murphy

"Your wit makes others witty."

Sprig Jig Committee 4; Class Will 4.

George, another one of lengthy extremities, is one of the class wits. It is always "Laugh, clown laugh." What is better?

Veronica Piecewicz

"Pleasant in manner and speech."

To those who know her intimately, Veronica is the personification of friendliness. She always has a cheery smile of welcome for us and especially for that somebody who lives in Hudson—maybe it's Marlboro.

John Pozerycki

"My crown is in my heart, not on my head,

A crown it is that seldom kings enjoy." Basketball 2, 3, 4; Physical Education Exhibition 3; Glee Club 4; School Play 4; Football 2, 3, 4; Baseball 3, 4; Commencement Exercises Committee 4.

Puzzie gave us all a pleasant surprise in "Breezin' Along." The man of the hour!

Helen Priest

"Some think the world is full of fun and frolic,
And so do I."

Social Committees 4; Field Hockey 1; Operetta 3; Commencement Exercises Committee 4.

Can Helen read and write shorthand? Ask her! Another thing you might ask her is what the letters before the signatures #1, #2 and #3 represent.

Doris Reynolds

"With her brown eyes in floods of laughter."

Field Hockey 2; Prom Committee 3.

A cheery call, a flash of even, white teeth, smiling brown eyes, and what have you? "Dolly!" She always has a nice word, for and about everybody. Loads of luck, and success to you!

Walter Saarela

"And unextinguished laughter shakes the skies."

Football 1, 2; Assistant Manager 3; Baseball 1, 2; Necktie Committee 3; Play Scenery 1, 2, 3.

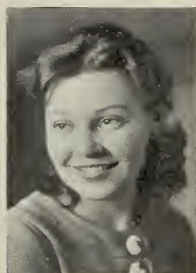

A bang, a crash, a roar, and the school knows Walter has arrived. The bane of the faculty, Walter provides plenty of excitement.

Henry Salmela

"Men of few words are the best men."
Physical Education Exhibition 1, 2, 3;
Operetta 3; Soccer 2; Inter-class Football 2, 3; Track 3, 4; Glee Club 4.

Henry, when he isn't fishing or playing in an orchestra, lives the life of a butterfly.

Aune Salo

"I love a good hot argument."
Physical Education Exhibition 1; Class
Play Committee 3; Hockey 3, 4;
Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; President of Character Club; Speaker, Graduation
Night 4.

Aune, of the passionate tongue, can't help but succeed. Pity her poor targets!

Sando Savello

"I know a trick worth two of that!"
What would English IVD be like without the illustrious Mr. Savello? He's a boy that can go you one better every time.
He attends baseball games, not so much to see the game as to ———. Ask him about the night the umbrella was used for other purposes than to keep off the rain!!!

Joseph Schnair

"One hour's sleep before midnight is worth two after." ???

Class Play 2; Ring Committee 3; Junior
Prom Committee 3; Christmas Social Committee 3, 4; A. A. Social Committee 3, 4; Baseball Manager 3; Sprig Jig Committee 4; Commencement Exercises Committee 4.

Jennie Shymonowicz

"Sometimes grave and sometimes gay—
But we like her anyway."
Inter-class Basketball 4.

Jennie is one of the high-lights of the Commercial Department. Although attending diligently to her studies she found time to play basketball and helped the girls of '33 gain the championship of the school. Keep up the good work!

Helen Sienkiewicz

"I'll put a girdle 'round about the earth in forty minutes."

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4.

Whenever one sees a tall, well dressed, smart looking girl, you can be sure it's Helen. She has been one of our best girl basketball players and has been outstanding in more ways than one.

Dorothy Sluyski

"We meet thee like a pleasant thought."

"Dot" is a vivacious girl from the Commercial Room who always has a pleasant word for everybody. Her activities out of school have been quite "in the shade" until the present time—we'd like to get a few pointers on "How Young Ladies Should Act in Cars," as seen by "Puzzy, Jr."

Edward Smith

"Our lives are measured by the deeds we do."

Inter-class Baseball 1, 2, 3; Inter-class Football 1, 2, 3; Inter-class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Assistant Manager Baseball 4; Manager, Football 4.

Willis Stockbridge

"The essence of humor is sensibility."

Class Play 1, 2, 3; Assistant Hockey Manager 3; Student Council 1; Junior Prom Committee 3; Baseball Manager 4; Orchestra 2, 3, 4; French Play 4; Screech Owl 2, 3; Commencement Exercises Committee 4; Solo, Graduation Night 4.

Elin Swanson

"Sweets to the sweet."

Operetta 3; Junior Prom Committee 3; Social Committee 3; School Play 4; Student Council 4; Vice-President of Senior Class; Commencement Exercises Committee 4.

Elin, so demure, what's the secret of your success?

Millard Swett

"I like work, it fascinates me, I can sit and look at it for hours."

Class Play Committee 3; Junior Prom Committee 3; Sprig Jig Committee 4.

Millard, the incorrigible of the class—what a problem for the teachers! How's the new car?

Ellen Taival

"Of all felicities the most charming is that of a firm and gentle friendship."

Screech Owl 4.

Ellen's quotation fits her perfectly; it describes her to a nicety. We can say no more without its being superfluous.

John Thompson

"He with his thunder: and till then who knew the force of those dire arms."

Physical Education Exhibition 3; Sprig Jig Committee 4; Operetta 3; Junior Prom Committee 3; School Play 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4.

Mary Tierney

"Gentle in manner, firm in reality."

Field Hockey 2.

Mary is a quiet, shy girl from the Commercial Department. Her unassuming ways have won her many friends and though she seldom "steps out" (to our knowledge) we know there is a soft spot in her heart for a certain somebody.

Mary Tobin

"Good things come in little packages."

Student Council 4; Class Prophecy 4.

Some people think "Bimp" is quiet and shy, but after work on Fridays and Saturdays—!!! perhaps "Joe" knows something about it. Mary is the typical Irish Colleen of Maynard High.

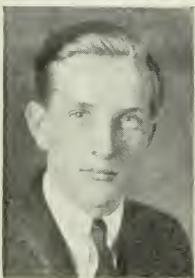

Stella Wallet

"Silence is sweeter than speech."

Inter-class Basketball.

A shy smile, deep eyes, and you recognize Stella. In school, at least, she is quiet and actually appears to be bashful. However, she has been seen with J. K. several times and not in the least bashful. Live and learn—eh, Stella?

Howard Weaving

"Gather ye rosebuds while ye may."

Junior Prom Committee 3; Usher 3.

Howie is one of the social lights of the class; find Howie and you've found a dance, find a dance and you've found Howie. And, of course, Anna.

Ruth Weir

"Such a whirlpool in her head of fun and mischief."

Junior Prom Committee 3; Inter-class Basketball 2; Screech Owl Staff 1, 2, 3, 4; Speaker, Graduation Night 4.

Ruth is a girl that can be in any activity going on, stay up all night (if necessary) and yet come to school in the best of spirits with all her studies prepared.

Stanley Wojtkiewicz

"Your name is great in mouths of wisest censure."

Class Treasurer 1; Junior Prom Committee 3; Inter-class Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Interclass Football 1, 2, 3; Christmas Social Committee 3, 4; Baseball 4; Class Play 1, 2, 3; Screech Owl 2, 3, 4; Class Gifts 4.

Vivian Wolfe

"Out upon it! I have loved
Three whole days together
And am like to love three more
If it prove fair weather."

Field Hockey 2; Junior Team 3.

Very little more needs to be said except that "Viv" seems to be quiet and that the big reason for this is a former football captain.

Paul R. Wilson

"There is no outward sign of courtesy that does not rest on a deep moral foundation."

Class Play Committee 1; Stage Manager, Class Play 2, 3; Sprig Jig Committee 4; Decorations, Junior Prom 3; Christmas Social 3, 4; Senior Reception 4; Commencement Exercises Committee 4; Tennis Team 3, 4, Manager 4, Speaker, Class Night 4; Student Council 2, 4, President 4; Screech Owl 3, 4, Editor 4; President of Senior Class.

Miss Morgan

"Her voice was ever soft,
Gentle and low, an excellent thing in woman."

For Miss Morgan, who has labored with us and for us so painstakingly and so cheerfully, our only thought is one of deepest appreciation. Our sincere regards and best wishes are with her always.

Reno Aho

"Silence covers deep thought."

Inter-class Football 1, 2; Football 3, 4.

Reno is one of the bashful members of the class who never make themselves noticed but are none the less present. They fall the hardest.

Herbert Bishop

"Knowledge is power."

Sprig Jig Committee 4; A. A. Social Committee 4.

Herbie is "X," the unknown quantity. However, the unknown quantities often produce the most startling results.

Richard Archer

"Never yet had Heaven appeared so blue, nor earth so green."

Dick, one of the athletes of the school, does not use his running ability in getting to school in the morning.

Reino Grondahl

"He could on either side dispute, confute, change hands and still confute."

Basketball 1, 2; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Football 3, 4; Track 4; Class Play 1; Class Treasurer 2; Student Council 4; Physical Education Exhibition 2; Glee Club 4; Speaker, Graduation Night 4.

Olga Bobik

"My tongue within my lips I rein,
For who talks much must talk in vain."

Field Hockey 1.

Olga is one of those girls that say very little but when she has something to say it means a lot. We are sure that the future has happiness in store for you. Good luck!

Walter Hanna

"Bid me discourse, I will enchant thine ear."

Walter, our gifted orator, of thee we sing! When we think of the famous Jimmy Durante process, what can we write? Happy blowings!

Dorothea Hannon

"As full of spirit as the month of May."

French Play 4; Physical Education Exhibition 1.

Dorothea is thought of in conjunction with French, Latin, and Art. Don't forget, Dorothea, "Keep your tints separate, no blending."

Edwin Helander

"Hang sorrow! Care'll kill a cat."

Competition Play 2.

If you see some red in the air it's no fire but "Red's" hair. He is one of the few boys that really blush. Show us how, will you "Red?"

Oiva Hintsa

"All men have eyes, but few the gift of penetration."

Inter-class Basketball 3, 4; Track 3, 4; Football 2, 3, 4.

Oiva, the great big little man of the football squad, always gets complete attention when he begins a recitation; you never can tell what'll come out!

Tauno Kangas

"Then he will talk—good gods! how he will talk!"

Inter-class Basketball 1; Soccer 2; Physical Education Exhibition 1, 2, 3; Glee Club 4.

Tauno, the future Einstein, lives in the 4th dimension, and confounds the teachers with his original methods. More power to you, Biffo!

Ralph Lent

"A gentleman and a student."

Baseball 4.

Ralph is quiet but he is coming out on the surface. Do you expect to take a P. G. in the Commercial Room?

Lempi Marjama

"Isn't cupid a knavish lad,
Thus to make poor females mad?"

Lempi, do you like the underclass "men?" Please don't get angry, we are just a little curious.

John Murphy

"Mirth is a sure cure for all troubles."

Operetta 3; Class Play 3; Inter-class Basketball 2, 3; Student Council 1; Usher 2; Physical Education Exhibition 1, 2, 3, 4; Christmas Social Committee 4; School Play 4; A. A. Social Committee 4; Screech Owl 4; Football 3, 4.

Uno Norgoal

"Now—I'll say something to remember."

Uno, who never causes a commotion,—when are you going to make some excitement?

Stella Novick

"On time all the time."

Stella, who has graduated one of the highest in ranks, is well-liked by all the pupils.

Sylvia Nyholm

"Happy-go-lucky."

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball Captain 3; Hockey 3, 4; Screech Owl Staff, 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee, 3; "Breezin' Along" 4.

This seems to be 'nuff said.

John O'Toole

"He has the sixth sense—a sense of humor."

Football 4; Sprig Jig Committee 4; Ring Committee 3.

The liveliest boy of his class, John is always coming out with some bit of humor that makes even the teachers crack a smile.

Bennie Piecewicz

"Silence is one great art of conversation—."

Track 2.

Bennie has caused no commotion as yet, but that can't go on forever. When he begins—!

Harvey Priest

"What's the use of worrying."

Inter-class Football 3.

Harvey has the Chinese philosophy of life—let come what may, remain calm and unflurried; he is excited by nothing, not even by taking charge of a room.

Charles Servio

"It is the quiet worker who succeeds."

One of the most quiet boys in his class and yet—who can tell—he might be of the "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" variety. Bashful boys are rare now-a-days, and even "Charlie" is preparing for a quiet (?) home life—he's taking up manual training.

Walter Smith

"I mind my compass and my way."

We never see much of Walter outside of school. What is the secret? Do you find places to go, and things to do?

Tauno Tamminen

"The secret of success is constancy to purpose."

President of Sophomore Class.

Tauno, whom we remember as one of the high-lights of the class, has returned after a two years' absence. What do you think of it, Tauno?

Winnifred Tobin

"Those about her,

From her shall learn the perfect ways of honor."

Vice-President of Junior Class,
Class Secretary 4; Commencement Exercises Committee 4.

If anyone in the Class of '33 attains success, "Winnie" will be the one. Her last year at school has been especially difficult, as she has worked in the afternoons. Yet in spite of this she is seldom blue, always does her best, and has been known to take time out with with a particular ex-Senior.

Joseph Trebendis

"Measure your mind's height by the shade it casts."

Student Council.

"Joe" is a shining example of efficiency from the Commercial Department and has the reputation of being a boy who seldom smiles. He is quiet and supposedly never does any "stepping." Keep up the good work, "Joe." (In more ways than one.)

Toivo Wick

"He who says little has nothing to answer for."

Toivo seldom says anything and to some he seems to be continually dreaming about something or other. Whether this sleepy aspect comes from the thoughts of great things to be done or feminarum, we must remind you that—all great men were dreamers.

Toini Williams

“Loathing pretense she did with cheerful will
What others talked of while their hands were still.”

Christmas Social Committee 4; Junior
Prom Committee 3; Commencement
Exercises Committee 4.

Toini, who is always on the spot when there is any work to be done for the class, is one whom we will always remember. Best of luck to you, Toini!

The Wise Old Owl Would Like to Know:

1. What makes Joe Schnair so bashful.
2. If Ellen Taival declines dates as she does verbs.
3. Whether Herbie is going to cash in on his reputation and go pachyderm.
4. When Loraine will give the local boys a break.
5. How Marsden can breathe freely at such a high altitude.
6. Who Marion Ledgard's new boy friend is.
7. How many volumes Saarela's book, "School Days," will fill.
8. What girl is pursued by three Lotharios.
9. Brad Case's latest "heart."

Wouldn't it be strange if:

Reno were Heigh-ho instead of Aho.
 Dick was a Lancer instead of an Archer.
 Rita were Bari-finger instead of Bari-teau.
 Marguerite were Blueberry instead of Carbary.
 Anna were Weigh-pound instead of Fayton.
 Tom were Doorley instead of Gately.
 Ruth were Stonewall instead of Grunwald.

Edwin were Lowlander instead of Helander.
 Mike were Ignathrow instead of Ignachuck.
 Tauno were Naturalgas instead of Kangas.
 Kalervo were Forkanniver instead of Kansanniva.
 Loraine could Koch.
 Ralph were Borrowed instead of Lent.
 Aune were Sinko instead of Salo.
 Helen were Swimkiewicz instead of Sienkiewicz.
 Willie were Tollbridge instead of Stockbridge.
 Elin were Duckson instead of Swanson.
 Millard were Perspiration instead of Swett.
 Joe were Suspendis instead of Trebendis.
 Howie were Spinning instead of Weaving.
 Agnes were Omnibus instead of Glebus.

We can't imagine:

Brad without a "Case."
 Vivian "Wolfe" camped on our doorstep.
 Dot "Burn" anything except "Ham."
 Stan "De-Half-Witt" instead of De-Witt.
 Salmela without a fishpole.
 Oiva ever taking a "Hintsä."

Wick burning up.
 Ruth any—"Weir."
 Tinker without money, especially
 Sylvia money.
 Tinker being awarded a perfect attendance medal.
 Mary Tobin without a smile.
 George Murphy without a yodel.
 Paul Wilson as a character actor.
 Ruth Weir without Puzzy or Ralph.
 Ellen Taival saying darn.
 Snubby not saying "gosh," "darn,"
 "the brute."
 Ralph Lent playing a bass viol.
 Ruth Heinonen without a piano.
 Stanley Wojtkiewicz writing poetry.
 Saarela without his ark.
 Joe Arcisz hurrying.

Helander: Does this train stop at Tenth Street?

Stranger: Yes, watch me and get off one station before I do.

Helander: Thanks.

Grondahl: Waiter, have the orchestra play "Carmen" while I eat this beefsteak.

Waiter: Yes, sir, but why?

Grondahl: I want to hear the To-reader Song; I feel like a bull fighter.

Savello: So you collect antiques.

Skike: Yes, I even have a very rare typewriter which was owned by Napoleon.

Savello: But they didn't have typewriters in Napoleon's day.

Skike: I know it; that's what makes it so rare.

Marsden— Did your uncle remember you in his will?

Bishop: Yes—he left me out.

Teacher: What tense is "I am beautiful?"

Ignachuck: Past.

Judge: Who was driving when you struck the other car?

Swett: None of us; we were all in the back seat.

Willis: How much for the hat?

Clerk: Fifteen dollars.

Willis: Where are the holes?

Clerk: What holes?

Willis: The holes for the ears of the jackass who would pay that much for it.

Puzzy: Do you know why that dog has such long legs?

Joe: No, why?

Puzzy: So that he can reach the ground.

Boss: Before I hire you, you will have to pass an intelligence test.

Rita: Intelligence test? Why, the advertisement said you wanted a stenographer.

Mrs. C.: Brad, did you take a bath?

Brad: No—is there one missing?

Saarela: I think I've got a flat tire.

Dot B.: That makes us even.

Elin: This lipstick is a novelty.

Stan: Well the novelty will soon wear off.
