“ . . . One Small Step For A Man,
One Giant Leap For Mankind.”

"The dream of yesterday is the hope of today and the reality of tomorrow."

Dr. Robert H. Goddard

Our school careers began in the exciting Age of Space just as the Russians launched Sputnik. Now as our Astronauts have reached the moon we have reached the plateau where high school graduates become young adults. Hopefully, we have learned during the past twelve years that there are limitless areas of knowledge yet to be explored, that we cannot be graduated and then stand still.

Taking with us our yearbooks and yesterdays, let us be ready for the realities of tomorrow, ready to keep pace with mankind's giant leap.

In Memoriam

Take them and cut them out in little stars,
And they will make the face of heaven so fine
That all the world will be in love with night,
And pay no worship to the garish sun.

STEPHEN F. DOOLEY

FRANK DRAKE SMITH

I wish someone would tell me
What kind of world this is.
Why are lives snuffed out so suddenly,
Two lives that had many more great years of living?
They once had a place on this earth;
They had so much left to do,
So much life left
To do what they had always wanted to,
To enjoy happiness, joy, laughter, tears.
But all of a sudden
There was nothing,
A dream yearned for so greatly
Suddenly shattered.
There is still one question in my mind.
Why?
There's only One who can answer that.
God.

Freshman Research?

For Everyone . . .

ACTIVITIES

National Honor Society

As its name implies, N.H.S. is a nation-wide organization. Rule number one for membership is BRAIN-POWER. In its ranks reside future chemists, teachers, and engineers who have demonstrated qualities of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Apollo was initiated and executed by such minds as these. NASA looks ahead to more and more of these scholars entering its far-reaching program.

Adviser: Miss Evelyn Sawutz

Officers: John Cunningham, President
Karin Lehto, Vice-President
Nancy Nevala, Secretary
Stanley Pleskowitz, Treasurer

Members: Valerie Gramolini, Jeanne Caisey, Barbara O'Brien, and Janice Manzo.

Student Council

Adviser: Mr. Wilfred DeRosa

To bridge the chasm between teacher and student is the aspiration of the Student Council. This past school year saw some marked changes take place. Most noticeable was the permission granted to girls to wear dress slacks during winter months.

Several interesting speakers were brought to M.H.S. by the Student Council, including Mr. Ollie Davidson, who had recently returned from Viet Nam.

A successful Magazine Drive garnered $1,000, with the Junior Class capturing top honors.

PROGRESS is the key word, and the Student Council is rocketing toward bigger and better things in the future.

Junior Women's Club

A charitable service organization, J.W.C. stands for a versatile group of girls. The J.W.C. dance, a yearly tradition, was held in February, and typical of today's trend of equality of the sexes, the girls asked the boys.

Collection for the Cancer Drive was handled by the girls, and the club sponsored a lecture on Africa by Carl DeSuzo of WBZ.

As women figure more prominently in America's future, perhaps one of the U.S. women astronauts of tomorrow is among this group.

Adviser: Mrs. Ruth Clair

French Club

In the event there is life on other planets, the French Club will be well versed in communication — if Martians speak French. Along with studying the language, members discuss manners, customs and people of France in Miss Davidian's flower-strewn room. And since most French are gourmets, a trip to a French restaurant is included in the club's annual activities.

Adviser: Miss Davidian (Chérie)

Dramatics

An enthusiastic group of Thespians has given Maynard High School a creditable list of productions during the 1969-1970 school year. Beginning with MUSIC MAN last spring the aspiring actors and actresses progressed to EXIT THE BODY and then to L'I'L ABNER, the super-colossal spring spectacle of 1970.

MUSIC MAN boasted full houses all three nights and even an S.R.O. crowd of 150 people on the last night it was presented. Good music and outstanding performances by the entire cast assured its resounding success. Barbara O'Brien, '70, was the leading lady.

Playing to much smaller audiences, EXIT THE BODY was, nevertheless, a remarkably hilarious farce. A small cast of ten people rocketed to "stardom" with their irrepressible slapstick and non-stop ad-libbing.

As SCREECH OWL goes to press, L'I'L ABNER is in rehearsal.

Mr. David Emerson was the dramatics director of all productions. MUSIC MAN and L'I'L ABNER were both under the musical direction of Mr. Charles Garabedian.

Library Club

Under Mr. Magno's exciting Latin leadership, the Library Aides, thirty-eight strong, form a Club that assumes responsibility for the appearance and efficiency of the library at all times. It also arranges the exhibits in the library's display case. Featured throughout the year have been a stunning array of Apollo pictures appropriate to this era of moon shots and several showings of work by Maynard's many artistically talented students.

Members of the AV Club are boys interested in all phases of audio-visual aid use — production as well as presentation. Under Mr. Magno's tutelage they fast become experts in handling the school's AV material and are able to assist teachers who wish to use AV resources.

AV Club

Math League

The M.H.S. Math League is a formidable group of mathematical minds to whom there's no mystery in numerical and spatial quantities and their relationships. Members are Glynnis Aromas, Vincent Catania, Kenneth DeMars, Irene Forssen, Mary Forssen, Bela Hasek, Catherine Iannuzzo, Michael Lankiewicz, David Lewis, Karin Lehto, Mark Malcolm, Janice Manzo, Owen Muise, Nancy Nevala, Tobi Saisa, and Faith Taylor.

Competing several times with similar groups from other high schools in the area, the Maynard students have acquitted themselves very creditably during the 1969-1970 school year. Their coach has been Mr. John Kuleisus.

Chess Club

The Chess Club, purely a pleasure organization, has the air of an English Club. Its members meet informally during Studies and casually compete with each other. Robert Latas, Cliff Hicks, Robert Moody, and Paul Nilsson often meet as worthy opponents in the Library Conference Room where these and other Chess buffs gravitate. In this hurried Space Age, a club as informal and nonchalant as this is unique. Its president is junior Bela Hasek and senior Ray Stone is the vice-president. Mr. Lewis is the informal adviser.

A group of high voltage personalities, the Science Club generates excitement and knowledge. Steadfastly pursuing their designated goals, members reach for the stars through research and exploration in the realms of science.

The field trips planned for this year included visits to M.I.T. to see a Space Flight Simulator; to Natick Laboratory, the U.S. Quartermaster installation where food is packaged for battlefronts as well as for N.A.S.A. expeditions; to the new Boston Aquarium.

SCIENCE QUIZ TEAM

Incorporating the various fields of Biology, Chemistry, and Physics, the competitive meetings of Science Quiz teams from several high schools encourage quick thought and instant decision on the part of students with interest in science.

Maynard's Science Quiz teams have never rested on their laurels, and the 1969-1970 team carried on the tradition of success.

Intent on keeping a high standing Cathy Iannuzzo, Karin Lehto, David Lewis, Owen Muise, and alternate Marguerite Buckley star-tracked this year. Their findings were impressive.

Cheerleaders

Advisor: Miss Claire McIntyre

"Dynamo, Let's GO!" And GO is symbolic for Cheerleaders, always shouting, always on-the-move, and never defeated. During football season (under the captaincy of Patty Corcoran), their spirit infected the crowd and players. The squad included Patty Corcoran, Captain; Nancy Edwardsen, Nancy Tucker, Cathy Corcoran, Debbie Hodgess, Sheila Lalli, Joanne Way, and Jan Audette, TIGER.

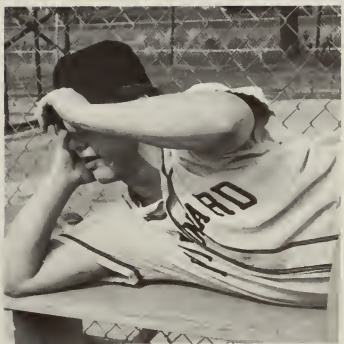

f Basketball Season brought about a "new look" — different uniforms and a different squad. Members were Cathy Corcoran, Kathy Flaherty, Debbie Hodgess, Sheila Lalli, and Joanne Way.

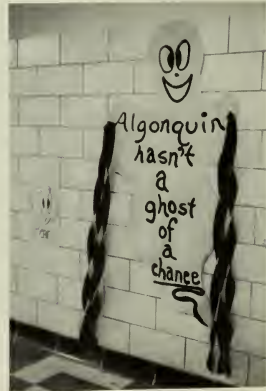

Pep Club

Advisor: Mrs. Carol Casselman

Brilliantly attired in Black and Orange, the M.H.S. Pep Squad was a stalwart supporter of our gridiron stars. With Elynor Gruber as Captain, the Pep Squad served as a link between the cheerleaders and fans, attending both Home and Away games. Members of this cheerful and devoted group include Wendy Chapell, Karen Mariano, Martha Riggs, Katherine Kitowicz, Elizabeth Popienuck, Susan Collins, Carol French, Beverly Lennon, Rachele Priest, Cheryl Egan, Mary Ann Bart, Christine O'Brien.

SEASON SUMMARY

Maynard successfully completed the 1969 season with a 6-3 record. With a little more luck and say, 5 more points, their record could have been 8-1. However, they showed true Tiger spirit all year, especially Oscar Wuorio who recovered from a disabling injury and came back for the remainder of the season.

For the first time in years, Maynard defeated both Marlborough and Concord in the same season. Both games proved the Tigers' ferocity as they held the two teams together to a mere 12 points. All in all, 1969 football has gone into MHS annals as colorful, exciting, and above all, victorious.

September 27

Milford 9, Maynard 7

Maynard's old nemesis, Milford, edged the Tigers in their first game of 1969. Chris Morrissey scored Maynard's one touchdown.

October 4

Maynard 13, Shrewsbury 12

Extraordinary team effort overcame a 12-0 deficit in the 4th quarter and demolished Shrewsbury in the closing minutes of the game.

October 11

Maynard 21, Bedford 14

The Tigers once again proved their superiority by sending Bedford down to defeat. Nick Sebastyn gained considerable yardage while Rick Sarvela accounted for the conversions. Mike Kulik crushed several Bedford players with jarring tackles.

October 18

Maynard 28, Marlborough 6

DEFENSE was the key word as Winksie and Jim Jolie held the Panthers to a single touchdown. Bill Watt scored 12 points with the Morrisseys each adding one. The Pieson Line was an added sign of victory.

October 25

Weston 20, Maynard 19

Bad breaks and 2 points cost MHS an expected win. Robbie Quinn picked off two Morrissey passes for 12 points in a valiant effort and Dave Greenaway starred in yardage gains.

November 1

Algonquin 22, Maynard 6

The Midland League champs proved to be stiff opponents and Maynard fell — hard!

November 8

Maynard 23, Concord 6

In perhaps the most satisfying game of the season, the Tigers crushed arch-rival Concord to end that rivalry. And this was Oscar's comeback game.

November 15

Maynard 19, Hudson 12

Maynard totalled 3 touchdowns as Winksie came up with 2 in this romp over Hudson. Chris Morrissey turned in the other while intercepting two passes. Frank Dzerkacz proved invaluable on defense.

November 28

Maynard 29, Clinton 24

In a see-saw battle until the half, the Tigers ended a successful season on Thanksgiving morning by beating the Gaels. Dave Tucker received front page coverage when he ran in a touchdown after a fumble. Robbie Quinn managed a one-handed catch and all eleven senior players ended their MHS gridiron careers in the high spirits brought only by victory.

Get up and run like a man.

Alan reaches.

Watt plows thru the Gael's defense.

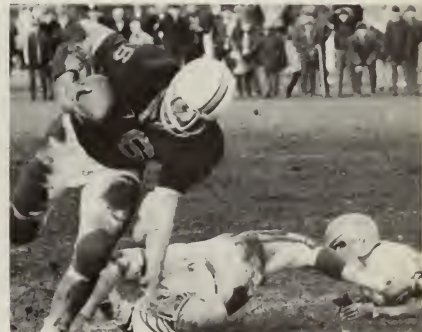

In hot pursuit!

Winkie smashes through.

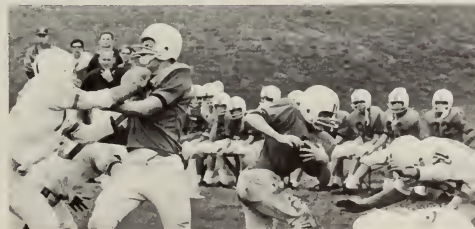

Tiger offense clears a hole.

I'll teach you to pull my facemask.

Stalemate!

J.V.'s battle on.

Not me Dave! I'm on your team.

The Girls' Basketball Team has built up a reputation of winners and a tradition of championships. Under Coach Martha Whittemore, the TIGRESSES play each game with spirit, determination, and sportsmanship. They had a winning season, as usual. A 39-21 win over Algonquin and a crushing 41-19 defeat over Marlborough were highlights.

The six senior members of the Varsity will be missed in 1970-'71.

Baseball

Under the direction of Coach Kenneth Najjar, the 1970 Tigers roared onto the diamond. Maynard has proved its toughness in past seasons, notably 1969, when two League leaders were struck down. 1970 was no exception. With aid from some stalwart seniors, the team played to the height of its ability. In the words of Coach Najjar, "The team always gave 100% during games and practices. The spirit was continuously high, and this was shown by the team's never-say-die attitude."

Frank Bakun, Dave Smith, and Oscar Wuorio were elected tri-captains for the 1970 season. Players included Billy Bakun, Lonnie Bedard, Joe Buscemi, Steve Buscemi, Frank Dzerkacz, Joe Finizio, Dave Gott, Bob Herrick, Bob Hickman, Det Klein, Steve Kuchun, John LeSage, John Moynihan, Walter Murphy, Michael Ollila, Stanley Pleskowitz, Gerry Powers, Joe Pozerycki, Robert Quinn, Ken Reagan, Tony Rioux.

Softball

As the first signs of spring appear, the crack of the bat is heard throughout M.H.S. Accounting for a large part of this noise is the Girls' Softball Team. Their good looks plus their marked skill on a diamond make them formidable opponents to top Midland League Teams. Softball is an integral part of the girls' sports program and will play an increasingly important role in the future. So many girls have become interested that a JAYVEE team was initiated this spring. A "well-done" to Coach Cynthia Rhoades.

The 1969 Varsity included Cynthia Fairbanks, Beth Hickman, Beth Hellawell, Mary Gudzinowicz, Susan Howes, Karen and Kris Lehto, Helen Morgan, Sue Morrissey, Mary Moynihan, Sonja Potapowicz, Joyce Sinicki, Eileen Smart, as well as the graduating seniors, of course. Oops! almost forgot Kathy Mariani and Geri Bunker!

Track And Cross Country

1969 was THE year for Maynard's Track Team. Due to strong team spirit, determination and ability, M.H.S. captured the Midland League Title. Notables such as Steve Morrissey, Bill Watt, and Dave Greenaway set records in the Midland Conference League Meet. Steve ran the 400 yd. event in 53.2; Bill did the 100 yd. dash in 10.3; Dave took the 180 yd. low hurdles in 21.7.

Coach Jim Owens hopes to vault into the championship space again in 1970 with the Track Team under the tri-captaincy of Dave Greenaway, Steve Morrissey, and Rick Sarvela. Both the Coach and the team will miss a good back-up man in Frank Smith who was a strong contributor to team spirit and morale as well as performance.

In CROSS COUNTRY Coach Owens had a hard-working crew whose efforts were frequently overlooked because the spotlight was on the more popular spectator sport of football. Walter Murphy, a sophomore, was the find of the season who could develop into a real "pro" — he finished 10th in the Midland League Meet. Other Cross Countrymen included John Shostak, Captain; Ben Taylor, Bob Gormley, Doug Robblee, Richard Lent, Mike Martin, and Alan Gagnon.
