no worries!
well I'm not sure
now we will survive
the summer if I can't tell you about my crazy family I the things that happen I hope you have a great summer and I'll tell you about it in September.

Hey L. Dobbins!
I love that nickname
I know I think that Ya know will be with L.W., I'm leaving for a long time. Wow the greivous task of forming the library. I have the Chief Library Aide. Bummer in my resignation as cause no one else to my "Library Ideals"
L.W. and remember to hold true to my "Library Ideals"
See ya.

The class of 1991

Lisa Donahue is advisor for the class of '91. In her opinion, they are really becoming invested in the school and their class. They demonstrated their growing class spirit by tying for first place in the Spirit Week competition.

WAVM 91.7 FM — Cable Channel 61

Under the direction of Senior General Managers Geraldine Mannion and Tricia McDonough, the 1988-1989 broadcast year at WAVM 91.7 FM and Cable channel 61 was a tremendous success. The entirely student run operation had one of its most exciting and prosperous years ever. The year started off with a bang with tons of radio specials and all the local sports highlights shown on channel 61.

The 8th annual 30 hour Beacon Santa Telethon, hosted by Tricia McDonough and Chris Johnson and aided by the entire staff and parents' club, reached a record amount in donations as they raised over $15,000 dollars for needy families in the community. Other popular events included amateur student broadcasts, live basketball games, weekly church services, ice cream socials and a spaghetti supper.

Much of the success of WAVM over the past year is due to the hard work of seniors Tim Lawton, Heather Roche, Eric Anderson and Steve Carey. The future of WAVM looks bright as the reins of leadership will be passed down from the class of '89 to the hardworking classes of '90, 91 and 92.

Political viewpoints . . . election '88

1988 was a presidential election year and to prepare the students for participation in the electoral process, the social studies department organized two all school assemblies. The first featured two local candidates for state representative, Cile Hicks and Mark Collins. Each candidate stated his political views and then fielded questions from the student body and the faculty. The second assembly was an all-student heated debate on the national issues. The debates were followed by an election eve mock election run by the students. The results of the Maynard High election foreshadowed the national election; George Bush was the winner.

Sung to: Gilligan's Island

Just sit right back and you'll hear a tale,

A tale of a spirited class.
That started out with lots of hopes;
Let's look into our past.

The Pres. was a tall and cheerful girl,

The V.P. brave and sure.
Ninety classmates set sail one day
For a four year tour, a four year tour,

The courses started getting tough,
The class became so lost.
If not for the courage of the fearless group,

We all would've been tossed, we all would've been tossed.

We're leaving soon for our journey through uncharted distant skies,
With memories, and knowledge too,
The good times, and the bad,

The friends we've made,
The laughter and the joy we knew.
Here at Maynard High!

Now this is a tale of our last school days.

We cannot tell a lie.

We've tried to make the best of things

Here at Maynard High.

We Seniors and the teachers too,
Have done our very best

To learn from each experience
And help us reach our quest.

No heat! No roof? No carpeting!
Not a single luxury.

Like Robinson Crusoe
It's primitive as can be.

You've joined us here each year my friends

We'll hate to say goodbye.

From the ninety ecstatic graduates
Here at Maynard High!

Famed psychic, Morris B. Maynard, makes some predictions for the year 1999. Here are some of his startling prophecies:

Vanna White and Pat Sajack will replace Jim and Tammy Bakker and take over the PTL television ministry . . . Morton Downey Jr. and Donald Trump will compete for the U.S. presidency. Trump will be victorious. As his first act as President, he will put the deficit on his Goldcard . . . Donkey Basketball will replace Baseball as the new national sport . . . After years of searching, Elvis will be found at a Seven-Eleven store in Nebraska . . . Because of many people's inability to reach the high notes of "America the Beautiful," the national anthem will be changed to "Don't Worry, Be Happy." Morris also extended his clairvoyant powers to predict the future of some of this year's Seniors. Buddsy and company will do the "hippy hippy shake" in their joint-owned bar in Beverly Hills . . . Our world travellers, Jen O., Susan, and Steve I., will have dinner with the Maharajah one night and tea and crumpets with the Queen the next . . . Lisa P. and Eddie will be driving instructors for Taggart's . . . Gretchen will become the national chairperson of the Republican party . . . Steve P. and Dan C. will become Kansas City auctioneers for the cattle market where their voices can be heard above the roar of the bulls . . . Christine D. and Heather will be seen driving down Sunset Strip with their convertible red Jaguars . . . Dave E., Shep and Jenna B. will form a band and hit the top ten in Heavy Metal music . . . Debi H. will drive the Party Shoppe van . . . Jeff and Wael will become famous artists . . . for MAD magazine . . .

Superlatives . . . the sports . . . the naive . . .

An evening at the Crowne Plaza . . .

Prom viewpoints . . .

. . . I loved the prom because I was with all of my friends and I liked my date, then . . . it was different, our chauffeur stole a glass from the restaurant so I could put my rose in it . . . I hated it because I didn't wear the dress I wanted and my boyfriend was a slime . . . we were an hour late but I had the best time, I got my boyfriend to fast dance for the first time in his life and he liked our prom better than Acton-Boxborough's . . . it was fun because everyone was dressed up and had a good time . . . the prom was like all the weddings that I have gone to . . . my hoop kept falling off, I swear that it would NOT stay on my body . . . we went to McDonald's drive-thru in the limo . . . my date wore a black tux with a pink cummerbund and pink sneakers . . . my date was classy, he wore blue sneakers to match my blue dress . . . our chauffeur was really nice, he wanted his picture taken too . . . I started a new tradition, decided to put a Sophomore on the Junior court . . . Sforza did WHAT with the tiara? . . . THIS is the time to remember? . . . was the fountain too small, or were the glasses too big? . . . Driver, take a right at Fun 'n' Games . . . Are we an hour early or is it daylight savings time? . . . it was awesome . . . Dedication

Martha Whittemore

The class of 1989 is proud to dedicate this yearbook to our teacher and friend, Martha Whittemore, who is retiring this year. She started teaching physical education in Maynard in 1957 after graduating from Springfield College. We all have fond memories of Miss Whittemore's gym classes in elementary school and high school. Although we will miss her, we wish her years of happiness in her retirement.

We hope you enjoy the 1989 Screech Owl. We would like to thank all of the administration, faculty and student body for their cooperation and "viewpoints." Our special gratitude goes to Stephny Sambuchi, who slaved for hours over her typewriter, and Brenda Witt, who took many of the candid's. We would also like to thank Samuels Studio Inc. for their excellent photography and Ms. DiNitto and her Writing class.

The "regulars" of our staff include Ms. Beverly-Jean Smith (Advisor), Denise Caron (Editor), Steve Ingles, Carrie Ingles, Denise Centorino, Andria Grant, Vikki Horst, Karen Seeley, Stacey Ketz, Kristin Burati, Kim Hall, Kim Goucher and Stephny Sambuchi. The rest of the gang who helped were Cheryl Steele, Karen Muti, Brenda Doyle, Stacy Witt and Christina Gallant.

Carrie Ingles and editor Denise Caron are burning the midnight oil.
