April 19--historic day
Is with us once again
The day that's bright with memories
Of great and noble men.

'Twas on this day, in years gone by,
With loud and ringing cheer,
Was born this town of Maynard fair,
To many hearts so dear.

Full fifty years have passed since then,
And it has larger grown,
It's welcomed those from every land,
Its blessings all have known.

They've learned to love her river blue
Her steep and grassy hills.
Her springtime and her autumn bright,
Their hearts with sunshine fills.

The children born beneath her skies
Tho' far from here they roam
In spirit are with us today
For Maynard still is home.

And while we celebrate the past
And count the favors won,
The future holds fair promises
For nineteen seventyone.
