MRS. ALICE L. MULLIN

Mrs. Mullin began teaching in the Maynard Public Schools in the 1930's. She left in 1940 to marry and raise her family of eight children. Mrs. Mullin returned to teaching in 1965 and will retire this June after twenty years of dedicated service to the youth of Maynard.

Throughout her years as an educator, Alice Mullin has exhibited a genuine interest in all her students, and has been both teacher and friend. She has been an avid supporter of all school activities and a true Maynard High School Sports fan. Mrs. Mullin served as a class advisor and English Department head for many years.

The halls of Maynard High School will miss Alice Mullin's cheery smile and friendly attitude in the years to come. On behalf of the hundreds of students from past years who fondly recall her gentle ways, the Class of 1983 gratefully dedicates this yearbook.

WAVM

The 1982-83 broadcast season was one of the most exciting for WAVM. It marked the beginning of cable television at Maynard High. One hundred and fifty members became part of the successful radio and television programming. The first telethon was conducted in December, raising $5,100 for the Beacon Santa. 1983 also marked the end of Joseph Magno as faculty advisor. After starting WAVM in 1973, he has worked long hours to lead both the radio and television stations through years of success which reached its peak this season. Mr. Magno announced that he would retire in June and we will all miss him greatly.
