The Journey Begins

1957

In our years at Maynard High School Mr. Philip Perry has been a symbol to us of the tireless dedication of our teachers. He has, as Business Advisor of the SCREECH OWL, used his time, talents, and energy to see that we put forth the best possible yearbook. Always energetic, conscientious, and sincere, he remains a source of inspiration to all of us who have known him.

TEACHER, ADVISOR, FRIEND

*"And always he had highest praise
For being modest and wise in his ways."*

— CHAUCER

Foreword

FOR THE THEME of our yearbook we have chosen Chaucer's Canterbury pilgrimage. We, like the pilgrims, are a cross-section of humanity; we, too, take a journey. Our journey has taken us through four years, but our journey does not come to an end—it comes to a beginning, a commencement. Thus, this yearbook represents a memory of two things: the end of our childhood and the beginning of our mature years. It records for us to see in later years a four-year journey which none of us will ever take again.

Class Prophecy

Because we fully understand the need of room, we have decided to plan the tenth reunion of the class of '61 in space. Due to the complexity of that creative mind, Paul Lukashuk, we have a machine which will predict to the split second what each member of the class will be doing. No doubt we should say, (knowing this class), "up to."

This is a recording! (Turn knob — horrible sounds, voices, etc.) This is the famous playground of the Pleiades. Taurus and Electra, our social directors, will give you a blow by blow account of the latest "blast" — the loudest, the most discordant ever heard among the stars. What a rumble!! You've guessed it — the 10th reunion of the class of '61. Let's see what's going on.

Almost all the members of the class zoomed here in the famous "Gadabout," formerly known as Brooks' Folly. Don't worry, it's safe. Mechanic Bob Johnson inspected it and told us to have no fears. Remember how we all scoffed at good ol' Ed when he got his perpetual motion group — Antoinette Nelson, Greta Kansanniva and Donna Bloomberg to save up the used gum? That secret formula of his, plus the gum, sure produced a huge bubble — holds more than 50 people, and travels at a speed of 1,000,000 light years per half second. Two members of the class who didn't ride in Ed's Gadabout were Roger Anderson and Jerry Dee. Of course, Roger just purchased his own Rocket Olds, so he drove here himself. Jerry, who's spending his vacation at Lake Boone, has found Ketola's Boat Ride Inc. and the Sczerzen — Starr Ride-a-Rocket Service very adequate sources of transportation. Susan Lehto and Walter Reynolds are teaching a course "How to drive your rocket — Safely" so we imagine that they drove here themselves. Hope they do better with rockets than they did with cars.

Now how about interviewing a few of the members of the class. Hello Alan! We understand that you are now using Russia's Sputniks as a source of free advertising for the Sousa-Cremer Money Lending Service. You say your customers only pay back 101% — Interest? You say Gloria Konowicz has been chosen queen of Jupiter. What? She turned down the offer? She says she doesn't want to stay away from Earth too long. We heard from Jimmy Spratt, who is vacationing in New England from his home in Florida, that Paul Stapel and Gail Hellawell have been promised the positions of Ambassadors to France by Tom Lydon if he is elected President next year. Their experience in French II has finally paid off. Tom, and Senator Waldron, who is his running mate, will have some tough competition with President Mackey and Vice-President Carol Raikunen, who are running again. We wonder who Mr. Correct, better known as Bob Hannon, is going to vote for? He's usually right you know. We'll see you later, Al.

We understand that we have two tailors (Tailors) with us tonight. The boys now have their own shop in the John Zaleska Block on Main Street in Maynard. That will give Eric French some company in his Pay Now Buy Later Pharmacy. Guess many members of this class have entered the business field. Ann Fraser recently inherited Stop & Shop when Mr. Stop passed away. Janice Murphy is now an airline hostess on the Carol Mason Lines which make daily trips to Mars where Ken Troisi, Olympic ski coach and former gold medal winner, has just opened a ski resort on one of the Mars ice caps. The food there, served by Sandra Sutherland, is excellent. The Martians have become terrific skiers, with the help of Janet Lindquist, their ski instructor. We have heard that Arlene Chyzus joined the Peace Corps in 1961, and the last we heard she was arranging basketball games between the Hottentots and the Bushmen.

Tommy Casella, famous guitarist, and his band, consisting of John Leach on the piano, sax player Dave Lawton, clarinetist Lynne Downey, and drummer John Mancini will now play a few bars for us (Strum, Plink, Blah! To-toot! Bang). Thank you boys, wunerful, wunerful.

We've heard that Don Crowther is finally using all that energy that he stored up. Just last week the Ice Follies put up a new sign, "Careening Crowther, Quicksilver on Ice." And he's not the only member of the class who is connected with sports. Peter Braunert is a member of the Olympic gold medal soccer team. Robert France is now posing for pictures for advertisements for the Darcy-Palmaccio Gym.

Two other boys in competition are Barry Heinonen, Neptunese speedboat champ, and Harry Hatch, once again a co-captain, this time of a guided missile team.

There's Ruth Boardman. Welcome back from Africa, Ruth. This may be none of my business, but just what happened to your head? They shrunk it? That's gratitude for you. Pat Donaghue! Run and get a used head from undertaker Richard Fardy. John Clair, we hope that you have your bag with you because you are going to sew the head onto Ruth. Doesn't that feel better now, Ruth?

Can you all see the picture of John Sena on the left wall? Dorothy Morrison did it. She's a wonderful artist—went all the way to California to get the paint for it.

Erlene Jarvi, coiffeur designer for Horstkotte's House of Hairdressing, has recently been to Venus to investigate the hair fashions there. To their surprise Susan France and Barrie Sue McMahon, managers of a local cut-rate store, which is a subsidiary of Ann Lawlor's Cosmetic Company, were trying to learn the secret of the pink hair which the women of Venus have.

Your attention please! Will Beverly Ives, Carol DeRosa, Judy DeGrappo, Bev Wheeler, and Diane Shaw please give their gum to Ed Brooks so he can patch his Gadabout for the return trip home? Practical joker Sandy McDowell just punctured a hole in it. Thanks, girls.

We would like to welcome Mercedes Stasinsky and Tom Quinn who have just arrived—late, as usual.

Because of the shortage of game on Earth, Harry Whitney, Carl Prescott, and Walter Sarvela have taken to hunting "one-eyed-one-horned-flying-purple-people eaters" on Uranus. These strange creatures, first discovered by Alan Bariteau on his exile from Earth, are then cleaned and packed by Adrienne Ruggiero, manager of Armour Meats Inc., and sold in Joe Lattuca's Defeat Market. Betty Kugima, head chef at Cynthia Duly's Luncheonette, now has as her specialty, "one-eyed-one-horned-flying-purple-people-eater" burgers.

Just recently a rocket landed on Pluto, the farthest planet from the Sun. To the surprise of the explorers, a hermit named Joan Wheeler was living there. She wasn't too happy to see them—said they interrupted her work-making wisteria. Consequently, the explorers left quite abruptly.

A few members of this class of '61 are doing the things they always did, only now they are professionals. Among them are "The Laughters Four," consisting of Jim Murphy, Frances Marsh, Richard Clark and Sandra Melanson. Elizabeth Tompkins, author of many best sellers, has found her typing course, taken at the Soroka-McGarry School of Office Help, to be a great advantage to her in her writing. Ginny Rizzo, teacher of the deaf and dumb, has finally found someone who doesn't complain about her constant chatter—her students! Jim Farren has become a professional ladder tester for the Roy Gould Ladder Manufacturing Co. For the third straight year, the Kodzis Cookie Co. has chosen Pat Crotty as its official "cookie taster." Pat puts his whole heart and stomach into his work.

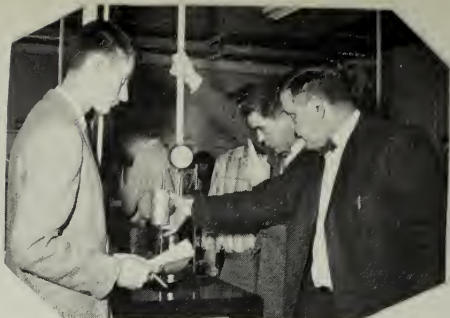

Now how about some refreshments? We have "subs" from the Pakus Submarine Shop, pizzas from the Martino-Martucci Italian Hide-a-way (it is called this because it has never been found by anyone), and liquid refreshments by Pileeki of Saturn, or is it Satan?

Before we sign off we would like to thank the Imbimbo-Marsden Bank, of the planet Mercury, who financed this reunion. Without their aid, this reunion would never have been possible, as most every member of the class is broke. We guess that school expenses were too much for them.

The 1960 Year

The football season of 1960 saw Maynard High achieve its best record, an impressive 7 wins, 2 losses, since 1938. The two losses were to arch rivals Concord and Marlboro. The one point winning margin in the 13 - 12 Marlboro game proved to be the deciding factor in Maynard's losing the Midland League title. No one will ever forget the exciting Hudson game where, in the last few seconds, quarterback Harry Hatch fired a pass to Ron Doran for the winning touchdown and a 13 - 12 victory.

This season saw Junior Ron Doran break the all-time Maynard High School scoring record with 92 points to his credit.

This was the final year for Seniors H. Hatch, R. Taylor, B. Taylor, J. Spratt, T. Lydon, R. Clark, R. France, P. Pilecki, K. Troisi, and P. Donaghue.

20 WINS

0 LOSSES

Good sportsmanship, fair play, and victory have been the code of the Maynard High Girls' Basketball Team. This courageous and spirited team has completed its second straight undefeated season.

Led by a Senior sextette comprised of S. McDowell, A. Chyzus, C. DeRosa, S. Melanson, J. Martino, and L. Darcy, who have never lost a game in their high school basketball careers, the team entered the Central Massachusetts Class B Tourney and, for the second straight year, returned from Grafton the Class B Champions!

Defeating Charlton in the semi-finals and Williamsburg in the finals, the girls have brought many honors to themselves and to the school. Selected for the Tourney All-Star Team were S. McDowell, A. Chyzus, and S. Melanson; the M. V. P. Award was received by S. McDowell; the Tournament Scholarship was awarded to A. Chyzus and M. Darcy. Never before have so many laurels been bestowed on one team!

The J. V.'s also had a successful season, winning seven and losing only one game.

Once again the field hockey team proved themselves to be one of the best in the area. Throughout the season, the girls played their usual heads-up game, and emerged from the chewed-up field with a record of 4 wins and 2 scoreless ties. They defeated Westford twice, Hudson twice, and tied Concord and Bedford once each.

Special recognition goes to Sandy McDowell, the goalie, who did not let one ball find its way into her net all season.

The J. V.'s showed much promise and determination in their four games.
