Commemoration

We, the class of 1984, present this yearbook in commemoration of
Karen Lee McGillivray
January 23, 1966 — April 23, 1983

This dark-haired, smiling girl will always be remembered by the class of nineteen eighty-four. Karen had so many admirable qualities; she was considerate, brave and caring, yet fun loving and adventurous. As a young girl Karen had outstanding qualities few people possess; she always wore a smile and was a friend to all! She will be a sweet remembrance in our hearts, and there her charm and youth will live forever.

More beautiful girls . . . More handsome boys

As eight o'clock neared on the evening of May sixth, the doors of the Sheraton Tara in Framingham opened for the many smartly dressed couples arriving for the junior prom. "It Might Be You" was the Queen's Waltz and the theme was "We've Got Tonight". It was a beautiful night we'll always remember.

Our Prom.

Right — The crowning of Our Queen.

Below — Maria Klauzinski, Karen DeGrappo, and Chrissi Andrews.

John, make up your mind, eat it or draw it!

You better smile when you say, "Real men don't wear aprons."

Mirror, mirror on the door
who's the flirtiest in '84?

Lynn, not now! We're on Candid Camera.

That bag again, Gina!

That's our courtyard!

The gangs all here!

Red and blue definitely do not make green — maybe if we add a little salt ... ?

Lisa are you talking to Billy again?

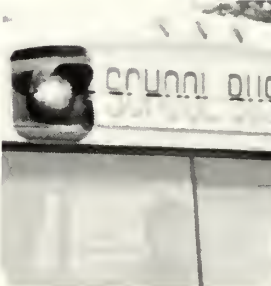

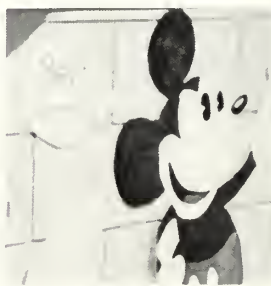

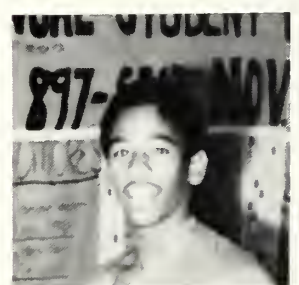

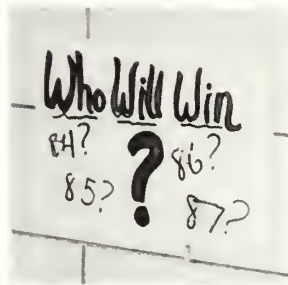

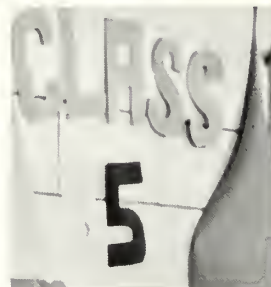

If Rosie Greer can do it, so can I!

See Mike run: Run Mike run.

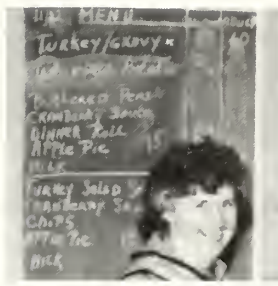

Which song didn't you like Mr. Magno?

Here . . . there . . . and everywhere

SPIRIT WEEK . . . hats . . . punk . . . fun and

In November three one act plays . . .

WINTER CARNIVAL . . . egg races . . .

pie eating . . . arm wrestling . . .

tug of war ... toga dance ...

peanut and sack races . . . class of '84 won!

That does it! Who ordered the Mouse Stew?

Enough of this sweet talk . . .
where's my dinner?

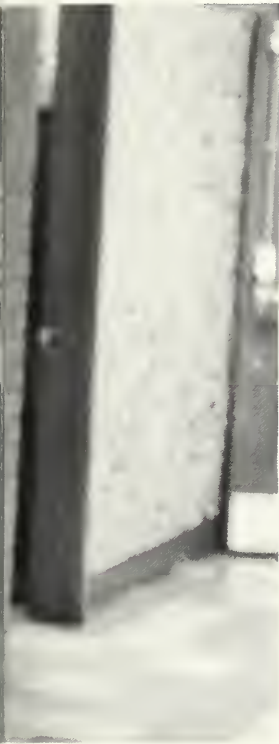

Don't ask me. Ask Morris, he's the boss.

Simon says, "Fold your arms." Feed the Kitty.

The World According

Running this school is tiring work. Time for a cat nap.

In Memoriam

George J. Lemire

Whether it is as a dedicated educator, caring parent, respected colleague, or concerned citizen, George Lemire will be warmly remembered in Maynard. His burly size and booming, deep voice contradicted his gentle, warm-hearted nature.

George Lemire had a long, distinguished career in education including service as an Elementary Principal in Winchendon, Lexington and Acton, a consultant to the State Department of Education, and most recently as the Assistant Superintendent of Schools and Director of Special Education in Maynard. He represented the truly dedicated administrator who approached his vocation not as a job, but as a way of life, blending innovation with practicality.

The Maynard Schools and the Class of 1984 will remember George Lemire as a man who cared.

1984 Screech Owl Staff

Front — Anne Narekiewicz, editor, Lisa Blasi, Laura Freemyer, Marcy Jaillet. Center — John Gray, Ruth Alexanian, Dawn Mallinson. Back — Dan Higgins, Tracey Lizotte, Danielle Dentino, Leah Hubley.

As editor of the yearbook, I would like to thank all the members of the administration, faculty and student body for their cooperation. I would also like to thank Mrs. Ballard for her secretarial assistance, Miss Whittemore for the color candids on page 80, John Gray for the drawing on pages 2 and 3, Danielle Dentino for the drawing on page 79 and Dan Higgins for the photographs on page 47.

McDonald's Salutes Senior Graduates

We at McDonald's congratulate our student employees and all students for twelve years of successful studies. These young people are fine examples of the calibre of youth in our community.

In order to help them continue their education, McDonald's of Maynard offers a $500.00 scholarship to the employee who makes the biggest contribution both at work and at school. Their hard work makes us proud.

Join with us in congratulating them and wishing them continued success in their lives.
