To our Principal we dedicate

As the class of 1970 prepares to enter high school, we wish to pause and reflect a moment on our happy and memorable years at Emerson Junior High School the people, the joys, the memories are all recorded

TO OUR PRINCIPAL...

The students of Emerson Junior High School wish to dedicate this final combined issue of the newspaper to Miss Florence Wilder, Principal. Miss Wilder is retiring after forty years of service to the youngsters of Maynard.

We, the students, are fortunate to have been chosen spokesmen for the many classes that have gone before. For all Miss Wilder's past students and friends we say thanks for a job well done. We shall not forget the good times and the start toward our future that we received under her leadership.

The students of Emerson Junior High School wish Miss Wilder continued happiness and success in her retirement.

TO OUR STUDENTS....

As the summer approaches and the eighth grade prepares to move on to high school, it gives me great pleasure to wish everyone a safe and happy vacation. The faculty extends its congratulations to our eighth graders and wishes them all the success of the future. We hope that Emerson Junior High will always bring pleasant memories for each of you.

This issue of our school paper is the product of the seventh and eighth grade club members. It has been a privilege for me to work as their faculty advisor this year, and I know each of you has appreciated the amount of work that has gone into such a publication.

Sincerely,

Mr. Magno

The years of 1958-64 have been recorded by the Roosevelt School as the most destructive in their entire history.

Fans, do you remember???????

...When little Georgie Genest blew his top in front of Miss Montano's 2nd grade class and threw his peanut butter sandwich at the back wall.....

...Having to stop on the stairs and saying goodbye in French to our 4th grade teacher..

...Our old friend Jeannie Oteri who made her dancing debut on the desks in Miss Kingsley's class...

... Jeannie never brought a lunch. She preferred grasshoppers and leaves to a jelly sandwich.....

... Does the Secret Garden bring back memories of the fifth grade?? It was rumored that Donna Walsh decided to hunt for her own.....

Do you remember Bob Murphy and Lenny Bedford, the class indians, making a scene at Summer Hill with pick and axe??? Well, they finally found an arrowhead (Happiness is).....

...How about the day Rickie Willett was sure he was having an attack of appendicitis. When they got him to the hospital they found out it was just a bad stomach ache.

Coelidge.....

.....Do you remember the blessed day in the fourth grade when our new arrival, Eugene Newman, joined the class???

.....Who remembers the times we had with Lok pens???

...How about Eddie Power getting lost at the Museum of Science in the fifth grade?

...Remember the day Frank Yeochie got his French lesson right in the fifth grade...

...How come David Braga and Frank V. were never allowed to sit near each other in the sixth grade???

...Remember the graduation party with Miss Sevens in the sixth grade???

Green Meadow.....

...Do you remember the ruler??

...Do you remember the Bakun boys-terrors of the fifth grade...

...Do you remember Oscar running laps for Mr. Varrichione in gym class???

...Do you remember Mr. Concanna??

We, the class of 1970, being of sound?? mind, do set forth our last will and testament.

We lovingly bequeath the following articles to our eighth grade teachers with reverent thoughts in mind.....

To Mr. Magno, our wonderful English teacher, we leave one jumbo size steam cabinet for obvious reasons, and a years supply of dietetic PIZZA for the same obvious reasons.

To Mrs. Barranco, our one and only French teacher, we leave on partially assembled guillotine in case of a French Class Revolution.

To Mr. McSweeney, our sporting math teacher, we leave one pair of brass knuckles, one pair of iron blackboards, and a year's supply of unbreakable chalk.

To Miss Corxley, our only history teacher, we leave a box of tea tacks left over from the Boston Tea Party.

To Mr. Truscott, our chief, we leave the shop clean for a change.

To Mrs. Burke, our Home Ec. teacher, we leave one rusty needle without an eye and one spool without thread.

To Miss Hargroves, our music teacher, we leave one do-it-yourself piano kit and one melted Elvis Presley record.

To Mr. Varrichione we leave one equation balancing kit.

To Mr. Duggan, our physically fit gym teacher, we leave one flat basketball.

To Mrs. Bryant we leave Gerry Bunker as an assistant.

To Mr. Kese, our band master, we leave the seventh grade and a host of sour notes.

To Miss Welch, our art teacher, we leave a picture of health and happiness with our best wishes.

To Miss Wilder, our Principal, we leave our thanks for making the past two years happy ones and we wish the best of success and happiness in her retirement.

To the seventh grade we leave Mr. Magno, his yardsticks and 150 helmets... We also leave them the job of making next year's will.

To Mr. Courchene we leave 51,000 signs saying SMILE and BE HAPPY..

Now, Mr. Magno, Soundoff faculty advisor, leaves everyone with the knowledge that this was done by Steve Deeley, Rich. Hakala, and Tinky Riggs. (Still time to get even.)

THANKS OSCAR.....

We have had many fine athletes develop in our class. We expect them to contribute a great deal to high school sports. However, an issue of this type would never be complete without pausing a moment to say THANKS to Steve Wuorio for his fine efforts during the past two years. Steve is the only boy in the class to play every sport both years.

THE GALE OF GHOSTS
by Candy Kelly

Have a seat and I'll tell you atale,
Of an old house that withstood a gale.
(A gale of ghosts, aye, it was.)
Now this house sat on old Tara hill,
(Please in Ireland, if you will.)
'Twas a good place, a convenient site,
Where the ghosts of a dragon and a knight,
Raced to beat the other each night.

Here in deserted halls, ghosts
held dinner from seven to nine.
On rough-hewn benches mims backs,
they devoured heaps of beef and wine.
Then after dining, they would go on jaunt,
To spend an evening in joyous haunt.

SCHOOL IS OUT Dale Alexander

School is out! School is out!
Now we don't have to think about,
Reading and writing and being taught,
Or about sending notes and getting caught.

No more thinkin' about teacher's crimes,
All day to spend on just good times.
Don't have to bring assignments home,
To do my lessons all alone.
No more books and no more studies,
What will we do, me and my buddies????

OUR HERO ???????? Bill Pratt

Fearless Fly, the wonder guy,
Zoom, zoom, zooming, thru the sky.
With ease you stop the flying masses,
As long as you have those super glasses.

Oh Fearless Fly, the wonder guy,
Who can this hero be????
When he is through and battle's won,
Of course, it's GERRY RICHARDSON.

On Freckles.....

I'm very happy,
So please don't heckle,
It's quite a blast,
Being Davy's prize FRECKLE.
