Dedication

As the hands of time gradually elapse, we reminisce upon the past and reflect upon one who has given us knowledge, understanding, and encouragement throughout the years — Mr. Richard Lawson.

Mr. Lawson has not only been an instructor, but an inspiration in all of our endeavors. He has always been at hand when needed, never failing to help us with our many problems.

We the members of the Class of 1963, salute you by dedicating our yearbook to you, Mr. Richard Lawson.

*"His kind face we saw,
His kind face we see,
Will remain with us
Through eternity."*

The Daily Bi-Weekly Monthly

JANUARY 19, 1984

Attention!

I, Elke Schmidt, the Grand Illustrious Exalted Ruler of the Elke's Club, challenge the Irresponsible Diabolical Irresolute Leader of the Moose Club, Judy Gagne, to a Staring Match to determine who has the smartest pupils.

J. P. Wins G. P.

John Palmaccio came in first out of a field of fifty top drivers in the Grand Prix. He won in his fuel-injected Oberg Special. (The race was marked by a +9 car pile-up in the fifth lap.)

Pickled Pepper Picker Makes Good

Susan Pizza picked a peck of pickled peppers. A peck of pickled peppers Susan Pizza picked.

Balony!

The American Meat Packers Association announces Miss Kielbase of 1984—Sandra Lindfors. Among her prizes is a nine-foot salami.

"Bungle" Boy Instigates Riot

Havoc broke out yesterday when the head bundle boy, Robert Stapel, smashed into a Co-op milk truck while trying to make a getaway in a First National carriage after ruining a Bachrach's fruit display.

Pick To Click

This week's record predicted by the DJs to be a smash hit is Gordie Catton's new record, "Music to Write Love Letters by While Smoking a Lucky."

Advice to the Lovelorn

Dear Bev,

My problem is this: I am going to college next year and cannot bear the thought of anyone else sitting on my bridge. What can I do?

George Harris

Dear George,

Burn your bridges behind you.

Late Report Just Flown In From Florida

Send your winter vacation chipping the ice from the beaches of the icy Baltic at Iggy's Dog-sled Lodge, owned and operated by Willy "WOO" Martino. For the more adventurous there is a safari led by Terry Waldron, the Maharani of the Arctic, which features a stop at Colombo's Tea House with entertainment provided by the Gail McGrath Gcisha Girls.

Pay now — fly later. And remember, as Willy Woo says: "All dog-sled tracks lead to Iggy's."

Trapper Saved!

A heroic rescue was made by a St. Bernard yesterday. The backwoods trapper, Leslie "Muskrat" Boardman, tripped into his own trap where he remained for several days. He was saved by his notorious cough. The dog, which was several miles away, heard this sound and brought him "nourishment" which enabled him to survive until help arrived.

Doctors Jekyll, Hyde, and Snyder Receive Nobel Prize

The three mad scientists from Spooky Knoll have done it again! Dr. Karen Jekyll (Lombard), Dr. Liz Hyde (Gorts), and Dr. Donna Rae Snyder (Drechsler) have won the Nobel Prize after fifteen years of diligent research. They received the award for answering the age old question of "Which came first, the chicken or the egg?"

Town Notes

Today Robert Whitney was awarded a perpetual dump sticker by Police Chief Wild Bill Sokolowski in honor of his invention of instant garbage.

Lost and Found

Anyone finding a green duffel bag containing a red Cornell sweatshirt and a pipe please contact Doctor Frank Angelosanto, Professor of Marital Problems at Regis College.

New Record Set

Ted Tibbetts set a new world record for flagpole sitting. He was perched there for 13 days.

Patent Issued

A patent was issued to Rodney Hytonen for his "Ultimate Machine." It is an electronic masterpiece which is operated solely by one fern. A spasmodic "SPOCK, SPOCK" is produced when the fern is depressed.

Services Offered

Galen Wardwell seeks employment as a water-cooler technician. He was formerly employed at the Georgianna Knowles' Water-Cooler Company but was asked to leave because he constantly dropped Fizzes in the water jar.

Flop

Last night Kris Foley's Follies finally failed and folded for the fourth and final time at the Forum of the Four Seasons.

Public Enemy No. 1 Caught!

Ray Watjus, the tiny little tea leaf taster from the East, better known as Jack the Tea-Bag Ripper, was captured while making a raid at the Russo Restaurant.

Hedda Vecchio: The Super Snooper

Dear Readers— Things are really popping in gay Parce! Since the arrival of the Ambassador to France, Joe Uglevich, Prime Minister Leo McDonnell has managed to keep things down to a mild roar. The following conversation will show why:

Joe: "Bonjour, Monsieur."

Mac: "Auf Weiderrscin."

Joe: "Flyez-vous?"

Mac: "Si, Senor."

Anyone wishing to buy a fleet of Cadillac garbage trucks contact Joel Cohen, DO 0-0000.

Critic's Choice

The following are expected to win Academy Awards tonight:

- . . . Larry Nelson to win the Oswald Award for his star performance in "The Wizard of Oz."
- . . . Nominated for the best actress of the year is Za-Za Clark for her performance in "Jungle Jane Swings Again."
- . . . Ellen Carcy for her role in "Carey Goes Californian."
- . . . We predict Thomas T. Charpentier, the controversial playwright, will win an award for his smash hit "Hamlet."
- . . . John Sirvio is in top contention for best actor for his performance in "How to Lose a Battleship Without Really Trying."
- . . . Jim Murphy for his performance in "The Music Man."

New World Record

Robert Cox sets new world record in scuba diving. He did this at the Carlton Cola Co. where he has been submerged longer than any other human being. His only nourishment has been an occasional swig.

Notes

Dave Niemi has been hospitalized at the Roberta Clark Hospital following a mishap in which he stubbed his toe. This was done while he was walking down Main Street on his customized stilts made by the Holly Hitt Stilt Company.

Champ Has Accident

The Olympic champ, Pat Doyle, while turning a corner on the treacherous slopes of the Maynard Country Club, fell and broke both arms and legs without injuring the skis.

Latest Report on Venus Mission

The liquid planet of Venus is now being explored by Major John Ruben in his water-tight Volks, propelled by a retro-eggbeater.

New Appointment

Pierre Palola, a well known senator at the White House, has just been elected chairman of the "Help Stamp Out Volkswagen Committee."

Freak Accident

Class History

FRESHMAN YEAR

We elect officers, but our activities are few. We look ahead, watching the many interesting activities of the upperclassmen, waiting for our day to come.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

We are the first sophomore class to hold a sophomore dance. At this dance we give away strange prizes, such as coconuts, and set new records for ticket sales. Our treasury grows waiting for senior year.

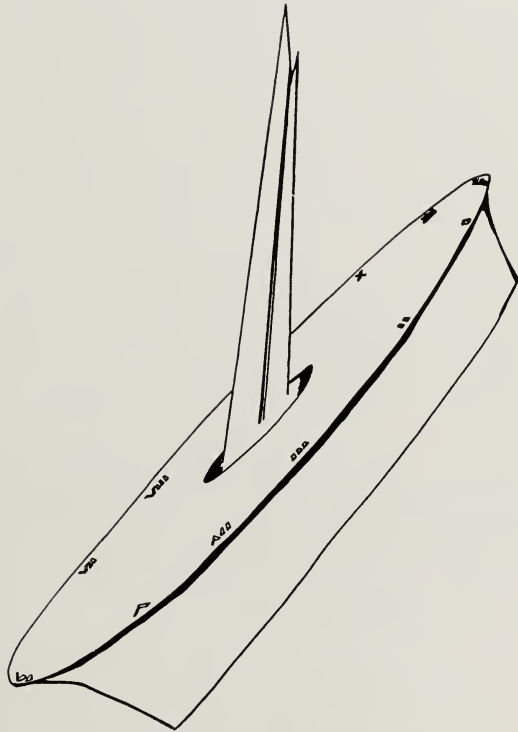

JUNIOR YEAR

A busy year! We receive our class rings and meet our class photographer. Four lucky people make the National Honor Society — Frank Angelosanto, Holly Hitt, Paula Russo, and Robert Whitney. Leo McDonnell wins the first Student Government Day Rally with his "political bandwagon." Throughout the year we are busily planning for the biggest event of the year — the Junior Prom. Camelot seems far away but finally we enter into the land of Lords and Ladies. Sandra Lindfors is chosen queen and Ellen Carey, Jane Clark, Holly Hitt, Gail McGrath, and Paula Russo are her court.

SENIOR YEAR

Alas! We reach our senior year. And what a year — packed with events we'll long remember. We participate for the last time in high school sports and music activities. Donna Rae Drechsler, Karen Lombard, Benjamin Oldham, and Elke Schmidt are inducted into the National Honor Society. On the yearbook we spend many long hours, both in the preparation and promotion of it. But with all these activities we still find time to complete our school work. We also make plans for tomorrow — some of us line up jobs; others complete plans for going to college. How time flies! Before we realize it we are returning from that memorable Washington Trip. Then come the crowning events of these four happy years — the All Sports Banquet, Class Trip, Class Night, and finally — ah! finally GRADUATION!

The "Tigers" were off and running.

MAYNARD vs. SHREWSBURY

Playing their first home game, the "Tigers" trounced the Shrewsbury Colonials at Alumni Field, 40-0.

The individual star of the day would have to be Bob Whitney who scored four touchdowns. Maynard could do no wrong as they led twenty to nothing at the end of the second quarter.

In the third quarter, Uglevich and Ruggiero scored the final touchdowns, both on well executed plays. This was perhaps the finest team effort of the year.

The "Tigers" played a rugged but ineffective first half resulting in a Cantab eight-point lead. The last half turned the tide, however, for the Maynard "Tigers" as they surged ahead to gain a victory of 20-8.

About half way through the third period, McDonnell, Mullin and Coggins broke through to stop an attempted punt. Soon after, Jim Ruggiero drove his way over for the score. The extra points were missed leaving the score after three periods — Cambridge 8, Maynard 6.

The fourth period brought Joe Uglevich, true to his style, to his eighth TD pass. Gorts was receiving.

MAYNARD vs. CAMBRIDGE LATIN

The Maynard "Tigers" got off to an exceptionally good season by winning the Cantabs opener.

MAYNARD vs. WAYLAND

The "Tigers" took a hard-earned win from Wayland by the score of 12-0.

Maynard did not show their usual precision play throughout this game. The spirit of such dependables as Watjus, Oldham, and Mariani brought the "Tigers" out of their rut. The game finally came alive with a 45-yard run by Ruggiero on an intercepted pass. Later, a pass from Uglevich to Whitney connected for the first score.

Soon after Maynard clicked again as Ruggiero raced fifty-five yards for the second and last touchdown of the day.

No scoring was done during the second half as Maynard maintained a strong defense.

MAYNARD vs. HUDSON

Before the largest crowd of the season, the "Tigers" lost their first game, 16 to 0. Hudson, capitalizing on two Maynard errors, scored both touchdowns in the first half.

Although Maynard lost, their defensive line should be complimented on their fine goal line stands throughout the entire game.

MAYNARD vs. MARLBORO

On one of the few sunny days all year the Maynard "Tigers" met their match at Ward Six Field against the Marlboro Panthers.

Marlboro, finding a few weaknesses in the line, quickly capitalized for two easy touchdowns.

Co-Captain Uglevich soon threw a short pass to Bob Whitney for the score. Herb Symes then kicked the extra point. Shortly thereafter the second quarter ended.

The third quarter started with a bang as the "Tigers" recovered a Marlboro fumble. The "Tigers," with pressure mounting, drove relentlessly until, on a last mighty drive, Joe Uglevich scored, putting Maynard ahead 13 to 12.

Marlboro then caught fire and drove the length of the field only to be stopped on the inch line as McDonnell, Mullin, and Cox formed a solid wall to hold the Panthers at bay.

Marlboro, not to be denied, soon got the ball again and this time scored.

The final score: Marlboro 19, Maynard 13.

MAYNARD vs. CONCORD

On a cold, rainy day the "Tigers" met their arch-rivals, the Concord Patriots.

The play was kept on the ground for most of the first two quarters because of the wet conditions and soon the play became a punting contest. Thus no scoring was made throughout the first two quarters.

The "Tigers" came back hard in the third quarter led by "Big Jim Ruggiero" with his spectacular run of sixty-five yards for the first touchdown. The extra points, however, were missed.

The "Tigers," with added impetus, once again drove for another score with Ruggiero scoring once again and Whitney adding the extra points.

Concord, with time running out, was forced to pass. Maynard's great secondary ruined pass after pass. However, a hard fought, well-earned victory was gained.

MAYNARD vs. MILFORD

After a day's postponement, the "Tigers," fresh from their impressive victory over Concord, were host to the Milford Scarlets on a cold, windy, Sunday afternoon.

On the first play, following the Milford kickoff, fullback Ruggiero slanted off tackle for a 55-yard run to the Milford one-yard line.

The score remained tied, 6 to 6, until midway through the final quarter, when a 20-yard pass from Co-Captain Uglevich to Dave Hatch set up Maynard's final tally. The extra points were good as the game ended; Maynard 14, Milford 6.

THANKSGIVING DAY MAYNARD vs. CLINTON

The "Tigers," well on their way to a successful season, finished their 1962 season with a solid 22 to 0 victory over the Clinton "Gaels."

The jam-packed, rain-soaked crowd witnessed the final game for the following seniors: Ray Watjus, John Mullin, Dave Hunter, Bob Whitney, Bob Cox, Ben Oldham, and Co-Captains Joe Uglevich and Terry McDonnell.

Because of the wet grounds, the game's first quarter showed few scoring opportunities with little action beyond the fifty-yard line.

Soon after the start of the second period, Joe Uglevich threw his eighth touchdown pass of the season to Dick Gorts. The try for points failed. Symes' kick was run back to the twenty where the defensive unit, powered by Cox and Coggins, stopped the "Gaels."

The "Tigers," sporting savage tackling, linked with their fine pass coverage, easily scored; Herb Symes going over for both the touchdown and extra points. The score at half time: Maynard 14, Clinton 0.

Staggering to their feet, Clinton staged its best drive of the game, but to no avail as the mighty "Tiger" wall proved impregnable. Once again the two teams parried back and forth at mid-field.

Early in the last period, Maynard's powerful backfield chugged yard after yard with Jim Ruggiero blasting his way for the score.

The final score, a "Tiger" shutout: Maynard 22, Clinton 0.

In closing, the team should be complimented on their fine ability, spirit, sportsmanship, and for the reputation that they have built and upheld for themselves and the school.

Commemoration

We, the members of the Class of 1963, commemorate this yearbook to our late art teacher, Miss Ann Pasakarnis.

Creativity was her talent, teaching was her profession, student learning and appreciation was her reward. The lessons in learning and in life that we have received from Miss Pasakarnis will be remembered through our lives.
