THE GRADUATION GAME

START

Caught wearing a hat in school!

GO BACK ONE SPACE

You were late, so you raced down the driveway and hit Mr. Wing's car!

GO BACK TO START

Caught copying homework!

GO BACK ONE SPACE

MISS TWO TURNS!

Frowned upon by Mr. Abbott for displaying affection in the hall!

ROLL AGAIN

75 credits at last — you're a senior!

MOVE AHEAD ONE SPACE

Received 13 quality points in Band!

MOVE AHEAD ONE SPACE

To play the game you need a single die and coins for game pieces. (not included)

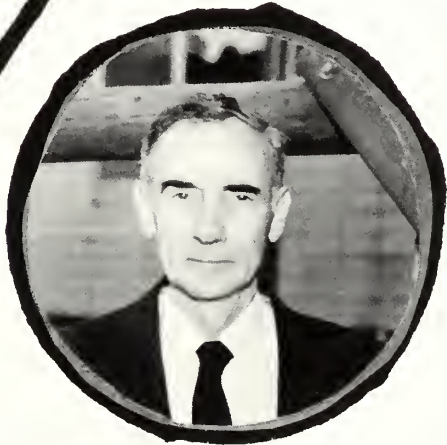

Choose your opponent and roll to see who goes first. On your first roll, even goes straight, odd must take the curve. Good luck!

FINISH

O-oh !
Mr. Duggan found out that you skipped a whole year of gym!

Congradulations— you've graduated!

GO BACK TEN SPACES

Got three tardies in one week?

GO SEE MR. DUGGAN

Got away with skipping an assembly.

MOVE AHEAD TWO SPACES

Hit by Halley's Comet?! Better go see Ms. Klepadlo.

(NO MOVE)

"What?" you can't level a Venetian blind?!

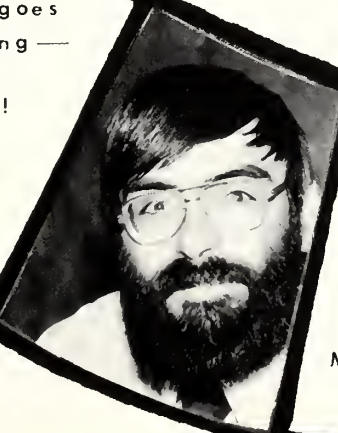

GO BACK TWO SPACES

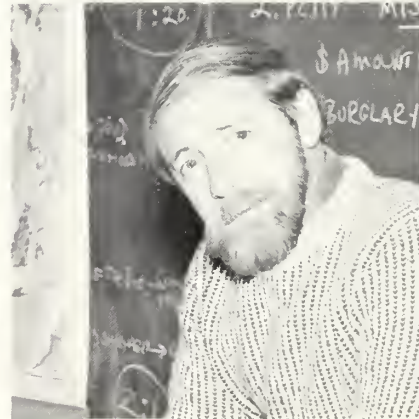

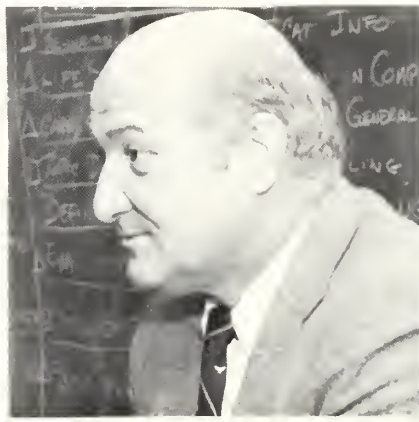

Mr. Stebbins goes rock climbing— all classes cancelled!

ONE SPACE AHEAD

Caught harrassing a Freshman!

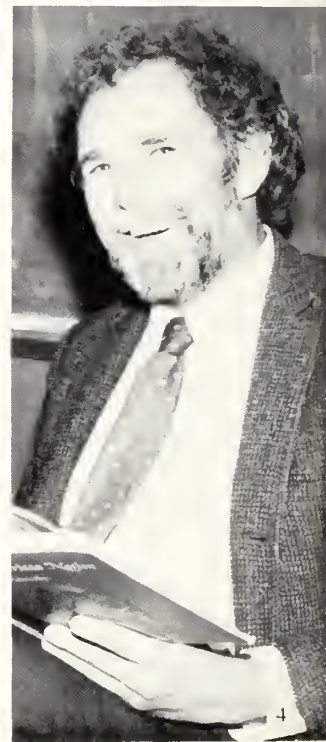

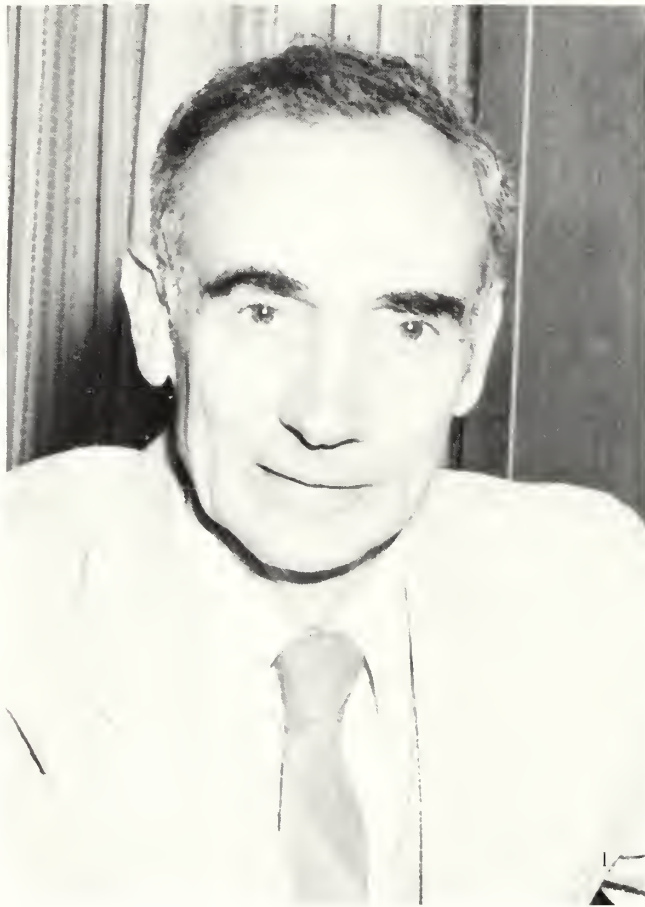

GO SEE MR. DUGGAN!

Faculty

1. Mr. Abbott was principal at Harwich High before coming to Maynard in 1968. When asked to compare our class to Comet Halley he said, "Although they do not exactly represent a heavenly body, I hope that most of them are around 75 years from now."
2. Before coming to MHS in 1972, Mrs. Andrews, Home Economics, was an assistant buyer for New England Trading Corp. Her description of the class is, "stars in their eyes — some bright and optimistic, others dazed and glazed."
3. Mr. Cain, Music, directed the Auburn Band and worked as a Bassist before coming to MHS in 1983. He said, "compared to Halley's, the class of '86 doesn't seem to have a burn-out point and we know we'll see them in the future."
4. Mr. Coan taught at Acton until 1981. He plans to observe the comet as, "yet another cosmic experience in the game of life," and says, "both the comet and this class fly high and shine brightly."
5. Mr. Cole, who has taught science here since 1963, was a Medical Lab. Instructor in Ohio. He plans to view the comet from the terrace of the Suisse-Majestic Hotel. He finds our class, like Halley's Comet, "Meteoric!"

Mr. Duggan, Assistant principal, said he started working here, "two years before history was a course." To observe the comet he wants to stay up all night in his convertible. He said, "Both the comet and your class are space shots."

7. Guidance Counselor, Don Cranson, was Asst. Dean of Students at Worcester College before coming here in 1975. He says he'll celebrate the comet's return with, "a candlelight dinner in my observatory."

8. Mrs. Dentino started teaching at MHS in 1981. Her plans for the comet are uncertain but she said, "They will be something I'll remember for the next 76 years."

9. Ms. DiNitto, English, doesn't remember working before MHS, "It's all a blur", she said. But she does remember coming here in 1981. She describes us as, "a once in a lifetime experience."

10. Mr. Elliott, English, came here in 1975 from Cambridge. He wants to see if the comet, "affects our star wars defense shield," and hopes, "the class and the comet will be star-struck."

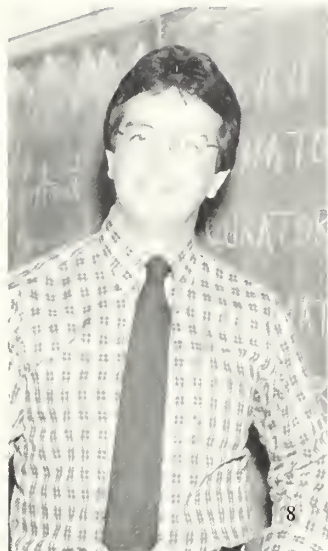

11. Mrs. Flannery taught at the Brockton Junior High before she began her job here as a Special Ed. Assistant in 1978.

1. Mrs. Beverly Fox, Guidance Counselor, came to Maynard High School in 1974; previously she taught at Northfield Mount Hermon School.
2. Mr. Garabedian was a music teacher in Old Town, Maine before coming here in 1953. He plans to, "Watch the comet on television," and said the class of '86 is, like the comet, "here today — gone tomorrow".
3. Mrs. Hannon, Special Ed. Assistant, started at MHS in 1981. She is planning a small comet party and says, "The class of '86 doesn't compare with the Comet Halley."
4. Mr. Harris, Business, came here in 1981 after teaching at Assabet Vocational. To celebrate the comet he plans to, "have a few beers and observe." To him, the class of '86 is, "spaced out."
5. Mrs. Haughey, English, taught in other schools in Massachusetts, Michigan, Illinois and Ohio before coming here in September. She expects to, "be grading papers during the comet's entire course."
6. Mrs. Hayes, Business, was a Traffic Supervisor with the Lincoln Police Dept. and has taught here since 1965. She plans to go to Australia to get a better view of the comet, and finds our class, "Incredible."

7. Mr. Joki, Industrial Arts, started teaching here in 1975. When asked about the comet he said, "Halley who?" He also said, "the class of '86 is orbiting, waiting to make a big splash."

8. Mr. Gary Jusseaume, English, was at Marlborough High before coming to Maynard in 1975. In answer to our inquiry he said, "My plan is to listen to the sound track of Cosmos while musing about whatever vagaries cross my mind's eye."

9. Mr. Jack Kendra, Industrial Arts, started teaching here in 1965. He will celebrate the return of Halley with a moonlight serenade, and he feels that our class and Comet Halley, "move along the same wave length."

10. Mr. Lent, Social Studies, started teaching here in 1968. He plans to observe the comet by, "following an ancient ritualistic practice of getting up in the morning and going to bed at night."

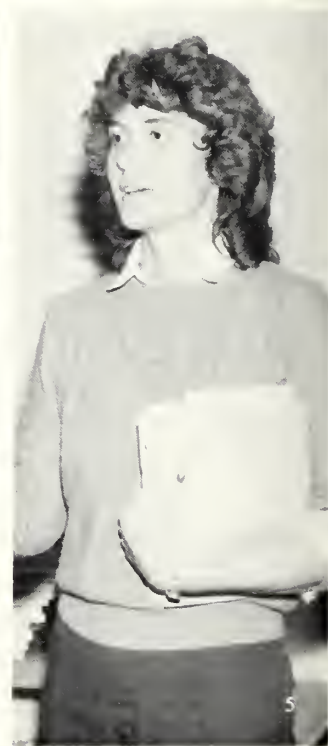

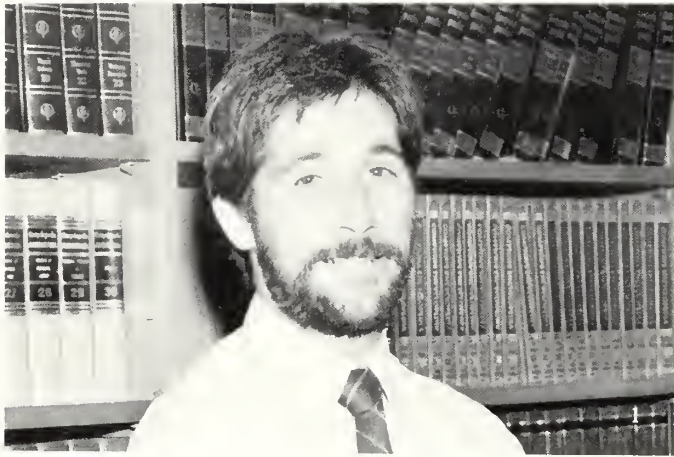

11. Mr. Kraft, Language, taught in Westwood before coming here in the fall. He said, "The class of '86 and the comet are experiences we can only once enjoy every 100 years."

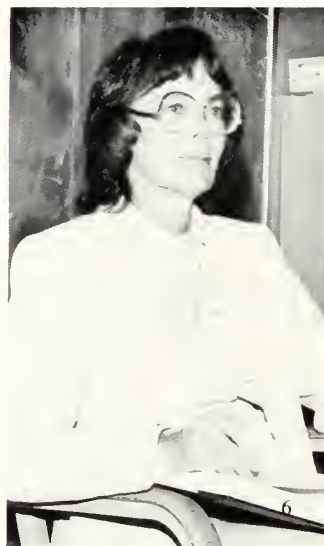

12. Mr. Koskinen, Physical Education, taught in Tennessee before coming here in 1970. He would rather watch a football game than the comet and he thinks the class of '86 is "moving through space leaving a bit of history behind them."

13. Ms. Shirley Klepadlo, Chemistry, worked at Marlborough High and the Worcester Foundation for Experimental Biology. Her plans for the comet's return include, "observing it through a telescope on a yacht."

1. Mr. LeSage, Math, has been teaching here for thirteen years and says, "Comet Halley, like the class of '86, is a once in a lifetime experience."
2. Mr. Linney, English, started teaching at Maynard in 1968. He plans to observe the comet from the "flagpole sitting atop WAVM's antenna." His comment on our class is, "as long as one like it returns only once in seventy-six years we'll survive."
3. Mr. Magno, Audio-Visual, taught seventh and eighth grade English in Rhode Island before coming here in 1963. For the comet he plans to "lose a few pounds, just a few, so I can go on a future shuttle flight."
4. Mr. Najjar, Math, was at Bellingham High School before he came to MHS in 1965. He says, "A class like this one could only appear once in 76 years."
5. Ms. Newsham, Language, worked at Digital and as a substitute teacher before coming to our school in 1975. She has no plans as yet for the return of the comet, but says, "The class of '86 is bright from the start."
6. Mrs. Noyes, Business, worked for the government in Washington, D.C. and then in a finance office in Kansas City before starting teaching at Maynard in 1965.
7. Mr. Pekkala worked with Mujabedin, the Afghani freedom fighters, before coming to Maynard in 1987. He is going to return to the planet Krypton for a galactic reunion. He can't decide about the class of '86, "either a white dwarf or a black hole."

8. Mr. Sforza, Special Education, was a teacher at the Perkins School for the Blind before coming here in 1978. He says that, "both the comet and the class of 1986 have the same properties: a head and a lot of gas."

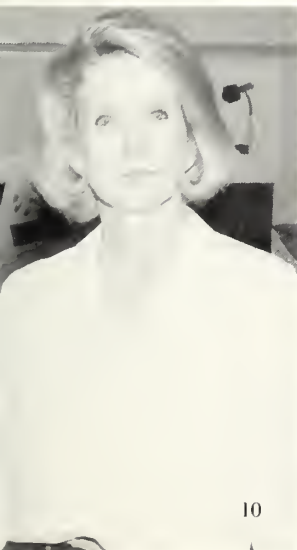

9. Mrs. Small, Math, taught at Hudson High School for eight years before coming to Maynard in 1982. She likens our class to, "a real ball of fire."

10. Ms. Smith, Art, had, "many, much more fascinating jobs before coming to Maynard in 1967. She plans to go to a comet party and says the class of '86 is, "sometimes brilliant, more often, comatose."

11. Mr. Stebbins, Social Studies, came here in 1975. Before that, he taught in Connecticut. His plans for the celebration of the comet are very bizarre. He compares the class of 1986 to the comet's gaseous matter.

12. Mr. St. Germain, Math, started teaching here in 1971. His big plans for the comet include, "observing and taking pictures of it through a telescope."

13. Mrs. Trider, Language, has taught in MHS since 1982. She says her telescope is, "ready and waiting," and, for our class, she predicts, "a future of bright trails encompassing great distances."

1. Mr. Vanaria, Science, was a teacher in Waltham before he started teaching at MHS in 1981. He plans to help, "ten of Maynard's best high school students design and construct a giant sling shot to launch Mr. Coan into orbit in an attempt to grab its tail."
2. Mrs. Wasiuk, Librarian, was at Fowler from 1971 and has been at the high school since 1983. She plans to celebrate the comet, "Cosmically, with a blast of stellar proportions." As for the class of 1986, "a total burn-out of the first magnitude."
3. Ms. Whittemore has been a Physical Education Instructor in the Maynard Public Schools since 1957. The class of '86 she said, "has one or two stars out front and the rest following close behind."
4. Mr. Wing, Science, taught in rural Maine before coming here in 1968. He said, "Everyone in the town got along well. The name of the town was Harmony." He thinks our class and the comet are, "both way out in space."
5. Mrs. Wolpe, Special Education, worked for a credit bureau and taught in Hopkinton and Norwood before joining the staff in 1980. She plans to, "... view it through a telescope at a local church."

National Art Honor Society

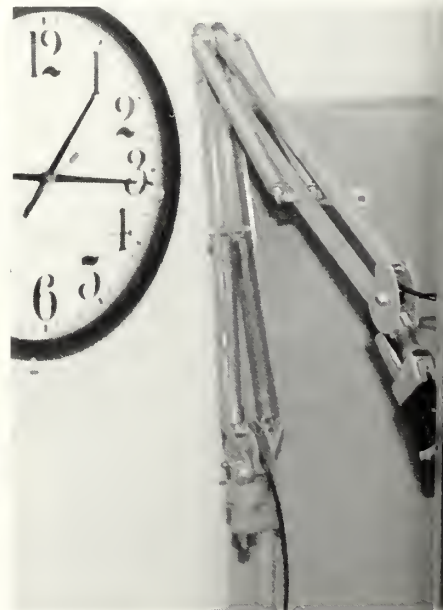

The National Art Honor Society was developed in 1978 by the National Art Education Association for the purpose of promoting art education among high school students. Maynard High School established a chapter in 1983. The organization promotes creative talent, service, and responsibility to the school and community. It opens the way to an important focus upon the values of art which benefit not only chapter members but all students. In addition to working on their own creative projects, our NAHS members work on all school posters, signs and programs as well as community promotions. A favorite project is the annual decoration of the courtyard windows for the holiday season.

WAVM 91.7 FM Cable TV — CH 17

The 1985-86 school year turned out to be one of the most productive for WAVM student staff of 127 members. The annual telethon, hosted by senior general managers Anita Mannion and Dan Cathcart, raised almost $8,000 despite a winter storm that nearly forced a cancellation. Some of our most memorable events were the student broadcast, live downtown specials, annual awards banquet, and annual outing.

Thirty-three members of the senior class were involved with WAVM and held high administrative positions. Several WAVM seniors are planning to pursue careers in communications and are grateful for the start given to them at WAVM.

The Prom . . .
Tender Years . . .

At seven thirty, on the evening of May third, extravagantly dressed couples arrived at the Natick Hilton anticipating an evening of romance and festivity. We all danced to the Prom's theme, "Tender Years," and shared in the thrill of the Queen's Waltz, "You're the Inspiration." Our hopes for the evening were colored with brightness on this once-in-a-lifetime occasion.

1. "It is an honor to meet you, Mr. President."
2. You can do it, Joey, go ahead!
3. "Do you think we're in the right place?"

Teddi Patterson

Teddi Patterson has worked for the Maynard Public Schools since 1973 and became guidance secretary at the high school in 1981. Many of us remember Mrs. Patterson as Miss Sheridan's secretary at the Coolidge School or as Mr. Hill's secretary at Green Meadow. We have appreciated her help and her great sense of humor on our many visits to the Guidance Office. She is looking forward to retirement on her beloved Cape Cod where she can enjoy days in the sun and her four grandchildren. We wish you all the very best and extend our gratitude.

Kenneth G. Abbott

Since September of 1968, Maynard High School has been led by a dedicated, determined, hard working individual, Mr. Kenneth Abbott. The position of principal at Maynard High is a tremendously challenging job. Many small learning institutions, like ours, become static and resist change. Mr. Abbott recognized the importance of growth in the school system but at the same time was committed to the fundamental principles of education. Mr. Abbott was always courteous and caring towards the students and faculty. This is a human trait that we will remember and should take with us throughout our endeavors in the years after leaving Maynard High School. Thank you Mr. Abbott, once again.

In The Spirit MHS Goes Hawaiian

Maynard High School opened its dramatic season on November 7th and 8th with the touching comedy,

I Ought To Be In Pictures, by Neil Simon.

A young girl attempts to re-establish a relationship with her stranded father by showing an interest in his field of expertise, the movies. His girl friend and his lack of success as a scriptwriter complicate the issue. The Maynard High production of this delightful play starred Sean Mahoney, Holly MacDougall, and Lisette Dentino. The production stage manager was John Seura. The stage crew included Stephny Sambuchi and Terri Jones and the production was directed by Winona DiNitto.

McDonald's Salutes Our Senior Graduates

We at McDonald's congratulate our student employees and all students for twelve years of successful studies. These young people are fine examples of the calibre of youth in our community. In order to help them continue their education, McDonald's of Maynard offers a $1000 scholarship opportunity to the employee who makes the biggest contribution both at work and at school. Their hard work makes us proud.

Join with us in congratulating them and wishing them continued success in their lives.
