SCREECH OWL
1966

MAYNARD HIGH SCHOOL
MAYNARD,
MASSACHUSETTS

Long after we have left school, we will look back upon our years at Maynard High as the special days when we grew, and lived, and learned. The Screech Owl will provide the passage to the land of memories, both important and obscure. This yearbook will serve to remind us what Maynard High School has meant to those who know it best, to those who give it the breath of life: the students.

We will remember Maynard High School as a truly unique place . . .

It's πr^2 and $KClO_3$,

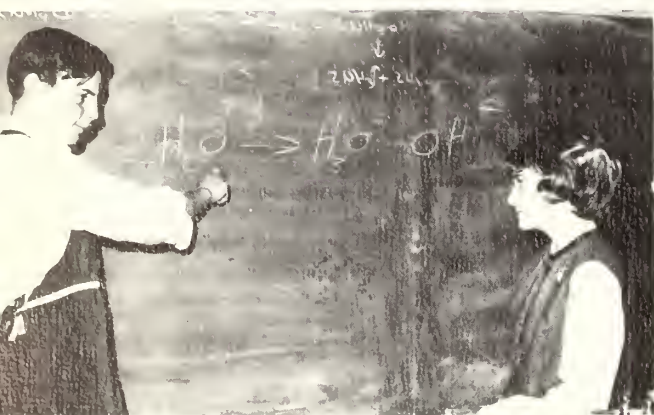

Return of the Native and Quasi Contracts.

It's cafeteria dances and library passes,

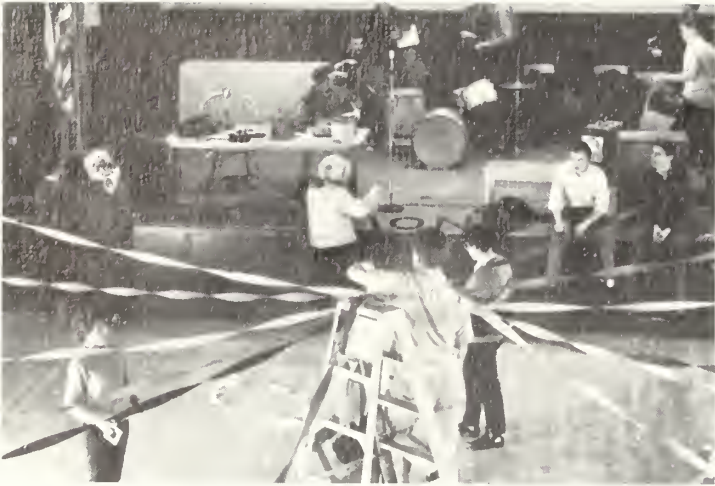

Locker breaks and lunch lines.

It's the Guidance Office and the Courtyard.

It's whistle sprints and "Go Gutsos".

It's work and preparation,

Achievement and pride.

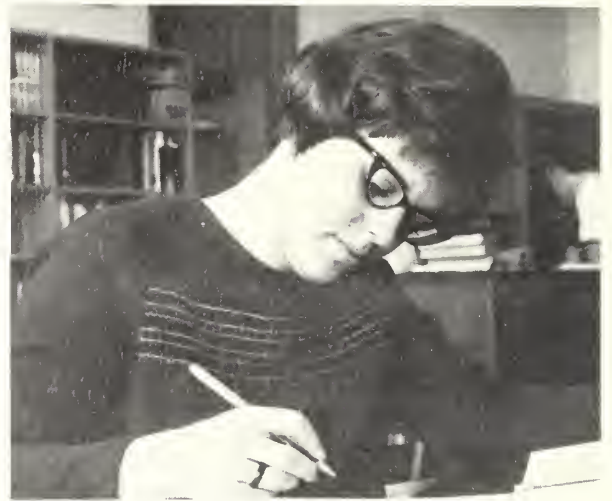

It's being alone or lost in a crowd.

It's the 2:25 announcements and "Got your class dues?"

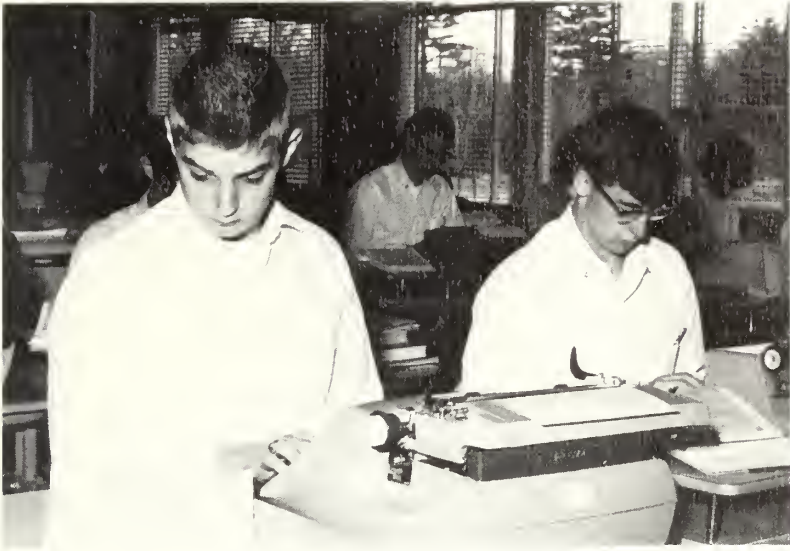

It's college boards and a career conference, Saluting the flag and boarding the bus.

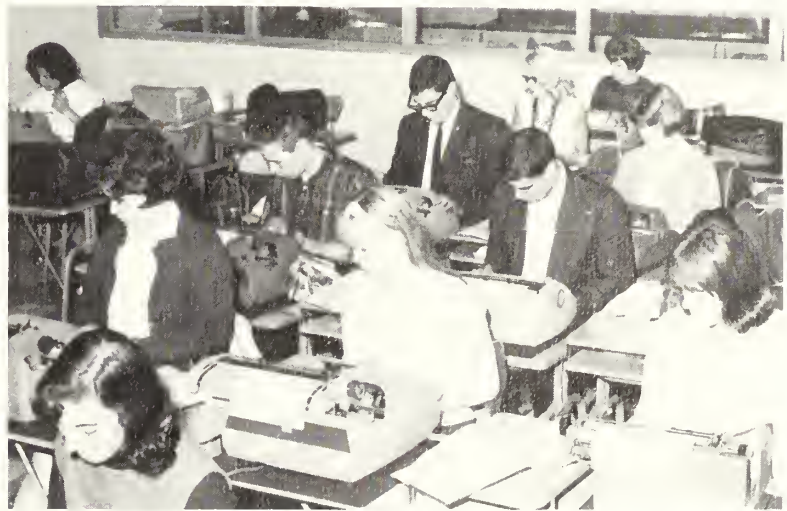

It's midyears and finals and assemblies and rallies.

It's Typing I and a trip to Nantasket, Electing class officers, and your own school ring.

It's swapping class pictures and choosing class colors, "What's for lunch" and "See you down Tut's".

It's the Alma Mater, and Pomp and Circumstance,

It's a memory, A hope,

And people we will never forget.

IN APPRECIATION

After twenty-three years of loyal and diligent service, Mrs. Margaret Ayotte has retired as office secretary.

During her years as secretary at Maynard High School, Mrs. Ayotte worked for four principals: Leo F. Mullin, Bernard T. White, Albert Lerer, and Frediano Mattioli. She has seen the position of Superintendent of Schools held by three people: Donald Lent, Mary Doyle, and Albert Lerer. Mrs. Ayotte's duties as secretary have been many and varied. She has kept the registers and class accounts, handled transcripts, and taken telephone calls. Because of her extensive responsibilities in the principal's office, Mrs. Ayotte calls herself "jack of all trades and master of none."

Mrs. Ayotte especially likes the students of Maynard High School, and in her many years with the school system, she has always won the respect and friendship of all who have come into contact with her.

It will be quite a while before the students and faculty alike get out of the habit of looking for the smile and cheery "hello" of Mrs. Ayotte as they pass the office door. To show our appreciation for the years of work and friendship of Mrs. Ayotte, The Class of 1966 sets aside this page in our yearbook to honor the wonderful woman we will never forget.

DEDICATION

The Class of 1966 has chosen to dedicate this Screech Owl to Mr. Frediano D. Mattioli, our principal.

Mr. Mattioli majored in mathematics at Boston College, from which he graduated in 1942, and received his Masters Degree in Education Administration from Boston University in 1951. He has also taken courses at Harvard College and M.I.T.

Mr. Mattioli came to Maynard High School as a teacher of mathematics in 1946. During his nine years on the faculty, Mr. Mattioli was advisor to the Dramatics Club, coach of the golf team, and faculty manager of athletics. In 1955 Mr. Mattioli assumed his present position as Principal of Maynard High School.

Mr. Mattioli believes that today's teenagers are as good as they ever were, and sees each graduating class a better prepared group of young adults. He has confidence in their capability to meet the challenges and pressures of the modern world.

Our principal's philosophy on life is one which reflects his unselfish dedication to his profession. Mr. Mattioli believes that one should strive to leave the world in a better situation than which he found it, and that man's success in life is determined by what he has given of himself.

The Class of 1966 wishes to express its appreciation for the encouragement, trust, and inspiration which Mr. Mattioli has given it. A perceptive and kind, respected and devoted principal; to such a man we dedicate our yearbook.

STUDENT COUNCIL CONVENTION: The Eastern Massachusetts Division of Student Councils convened on November 20, 1965. Maynard High School was host to Student Council members representing approximately fifty-seven schools. Ideas and programs were exchanged as the students formed ten discussion groups, and later reassembled to hear the dynamic Dr. Hsieh.

Dr. Hsieh, an honorary Chaplain of Curry College and a member of the Chinese Philanthropic Service, served as the ambassador to six countries, representing the Republic of China. Dr. Hsieh holds twenty-six degrees and has been ordained a minister and appointed a judge.

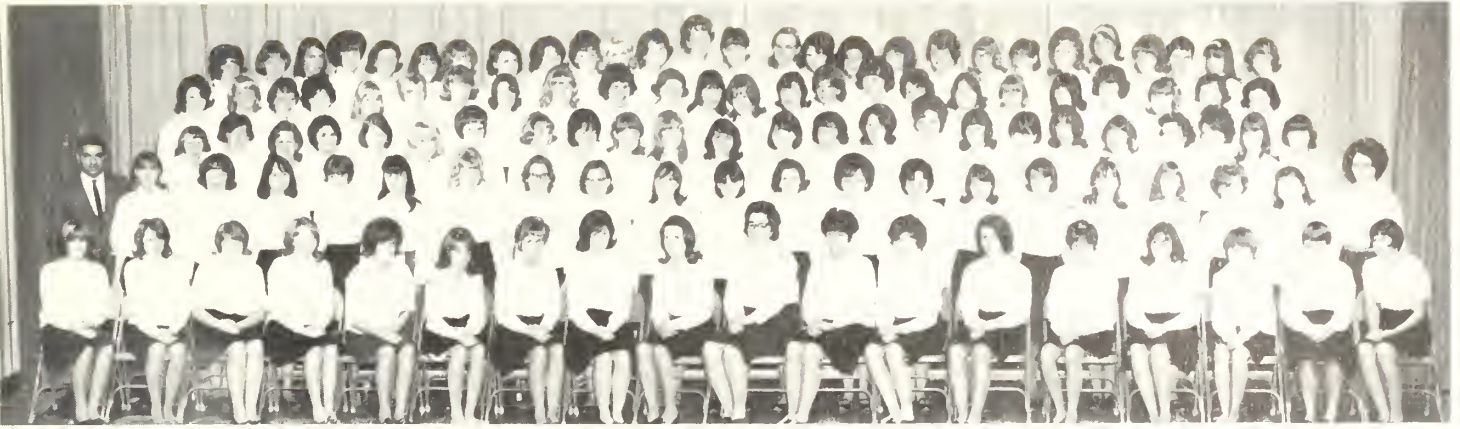

November 20, 1965 will always be recalled as a stimulating experience, both intellectually and socially, by the participants of the Student Council Convention.

MUSIC FESTIVAL: Maynard was honored to be the town in which the Northeastern Massachusetts Music Festival was held on May 15, 1965. It was a clear bright day as the participating schools filled the auditorium and halls with the sounds of their music. The parade through downtown Maynard, the mass band concert at Alumni Field, and the auditioning of choruses and glee clubs was the culmination.

The Festival is looked upon as a friendly, co-operative musical experience proving that music really is the universal language.

Junior Prom

On Friday evening, May 21, 1965, the Green Meadow Auditorium was transformed into the majesty of the "Oriental Gardens" as the Class of 1966 presented its Junior Prom.

Couples danced to the music of Bob Adams and his Orchestra.

Miss Ann Beauregard was chosen to reign as Queen of the Prom, and crowned as were members of her court, Barbara Quinn, Marjory Pearce, Starr Dunn, Marlene Nelson, Cheryl Andersen, and Nancy Tompkins.

We shall never forget the charm of our night in the "Oriental Gardens."

Screech Owl

The Screech Owl has not always been what it is today. As times and tastes have changed, so has the Screech Owl. In the late 1920's, the Screech Owl was a quarterly publication. The issues were paperback, and contained no photography. The final edition of the year was devoted to the Seniors, and consisted of student compositions, jokes, French short stories, and a random notes column under the heading of "Wise Old Owl."

In 1932 pictures of the graduating class were included in the final issue of the year. Twelve senior pictures on a page was not unusual. In the 1940's, the average Screech Owl was forty-five pages in length. More pictures were being added to the publications, but the bulk of the Screech Owl was still writings and editorial-like comments on the current events at school.

It was not until the mid-1950's that the winter edition was cancelled, and the Screech Owl became a yearly publication. The pictures were more numerous and of better quality, but free-hand drawings still served to divide sections and to develop the theme of the book.

Since 1964, the American Publishing Company has published the Maynard High School yearbook. Preparation for the 1966 Screech Owl was begun a year before it was delivered to its readers. The Staff met to decide upon such issues as cover design, theme, and layout. The 1966 Screech Owl is new in its perspective; the simplicity of arrangement and style, the texture of the paper, and the type print were chosen to appeal to the modern reader.

Professional photography and publishing, and months of diligent creativity by the yearbook staff have made this 1966 Screech Owl a vivid portrayal of the way of life at Maynard High School.
