Delbert Alving
18 Walcott Street

Variety Show 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramural Basketball 1, 2; Dance Committee 3; Junior Prom Committee 3; Dramatic Club 2.

You never see Delbie without a big smile on his face, and his laugh can be heard every day echoing throughout the halls. Where did you ever get that shirt with the ten different colors? Delbie has entertained us these four years with his wonderful accordion playing and we know he will be a great success in whatever he chooses to do.

Andre Beshta
46 Sudbury Street

Intramural Basketball 1, 2; Varsity Basketball 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2, 4; Football 3, 4, Captain 4; Variety Show 3, 4; Ring Committee 3; Candy Seller 4; Class Officer 4; Boys' State 3; Activities Committee 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Dance Committee 1, 2, 3, 4; Picture Committee 3.

"Bushy," our "King" of M. H. S. excels in everything. He is one of the quiet boys in our class, but is the type of person with whom you can always have fun. He is full of energy in the classroom as well as on the football field. Bushy is one of the capable athletes in our class. We are sure that his future holds success for him.

Nancy Bain
10 Chandler Street

Field Hockey 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Field Hockey Captain 3 (Second Team); Junior Women's Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Variety Show 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Candy Seller 1, 2; Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Softball 1, 2; Assemblies 1, 2; Glee Club 1, 2; Dance Committee 1, 2, 3, 4.

Our Nancy may appear rather quiet in school, but outside of school she's a champion of "King Fun." She's as popular with her classmates as she is at the Saturday night dances. With her kind ways and assuring smile she can't help but succeed in her career as a nurse.

Naomi Boothroyd
166 Great Road

Junior Women's Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Softball 1; Basketball 1, 4; Field Hockey 1, 4; Screech Owl Staff 4; French Club 2; Dramatic Club 3; Glee Club 2.

A bit bashful, and on the quiet side, Naomi is still one of the nicest girls in the class. With her patience and soothing mannerisms, she is bound to make good in her aspirations to be a nurse. Here's wishing her success!

Ernest Barilone
9 Butler Avenue

Still water definitely runs deep. Ernest may appear to be quiet, but when you get to know him, you discover that he's as full of fun as anyone. If "Babe" obtains as much happiness in life as he has given to others, he will surely come out on top.

Ralph Cantino
5 Bunside Street

Senior Activities Committee 4; Football 1, 3; Junior Prom Committee 3; Ring Committee 3; Junior Varsity Basketball 2; Variety Show 1, 2; Intramural Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4.

Ralph's disarming smile and good-natured ways will ever be remembered by his classmates. His future plans are still indefinite, but we have more than a slight suspicion they include a certain Miss named Ann. May success and happiness be yours Ralph!

Mary Cirino
7 Hayes Street

Variety Show 1, 2; Junior Women's Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Screech Owl Staff 3, 4; National Honor Society 4; Student Secretary 4.

Mary is a girl who is unusually efficient in her commercial work. She has already taken her first step towards success by getting a job with the King Insurance Agency. We are sure she'll be a credit to the company.

Patricia Dawson
127 Summer Street

Student Council 2, 3, 4; Student Council Society 4; Junior Women's Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; French Club 2, 3, 4, Co-Vice-President 4; Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Dance Committees 1, 2, 3, 4; Variety Show 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Senior Activities 4; Softball 1; Graduation Accompanist 3, 4; Assemblies' Accompanist 1, 2, 3, 4.

Pleasant, neat, feminine, are all adjectives that describe Pat. Her outstanding talent as a pianist has rendered her invaluable to M. H. S. We're sure the Variety Show will miss her next year. If Pat is as clever as a nurse as she is as a pianist, her patients will recuperate in no time at all.

Leo Clark
12 Maple Street

It can never be said that Leo didn't add a great deal of fun to our four years at high school. His vibrant personality and contagious laugh, make him a favorite of all. Leo has always lived up to the motto "service with a smile" with his job at the gas station. May he always enjoy life as much as he does now!

Owen Duggan
23 Park Street

Intramural Basketball 1, 2; Varsity Basketball 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Baseball 3, 4; Junior Ring Committee 3; Senior Activities Committee 4.

Tall, shy, handsome are adjectives that best describe our "Ace." He may be on the shy side in school, but he's far from bashful on the basketball court. Many times he has led his team to victory. Ace has been a credit to his school both in athletics and in his studies. Good luck to a fine star.

Carolyn Cuttell
56 Summer Street

Junior Women's Club 1, 2, 4; Dramatic Club 2.

Carrie, as she is better known to her classmates, is a girl who has much culinary ability. She doesn't make much noise, no matter what she is doing, but, nevertheless, she is a swell sport who would help anyone out of a tough spot.

Richard Dunnigan
2 Glenview Terrace

Baseball 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3.

Dick hasn't been with us very long, but he has certainly made many friends in those few months. The femmes of the class say he's the shy type, but the boys say definitely not. But whatever type he may be, he's certainly well-liked by all. Dick's plans are wrapped up firmly in baseball. American League or National League, Dick, many hopeful wishes for several no-hitters!

Thomas Eley
241 Main Street

Intramural Basketball 1, 2; Football 1, 4; Variety Show 3, 4; Boys' State 3; French Club 2; Candy Seller 4.

Tom is really what we call a "live wire." He's always ready with an answer to any remark. His special interests seem to lie in the Freshman class but he makes things lively wherever he is. If we had more people like Tom, the world wouldn't be such a bad place in which to live.

Ruth Garfield
3 Pinecrest Terrace

Dance Committee 2, 3; Refreshment Committee 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Rummage Sale Committee 3; Prom Decoration Committee 3; Field Hockey 1; Soft Ball 3; Student Secretary 2; Junior Women's Club 4.

Ruth has been with us only a year, but she has made friends that will never forget her. Her diamond is the envy of all the girls in the Senior class. Of all the careers, she has chosen that of marriage, and we know she will be a great success. Much happiness, Ruthie.

Janet Gentsch

Janet is one of the more talented girls in the class, and it's easy to see why she was voted class artist. But as talented as she is, she does art only as a hobby. Her plans for the future are to become a teacher, and we know she possesses the ability to become a success in that field.

Janet Gould
7 Thomas Street

Basketball 2; Prom Committee 3; Prom Queen 3; Junior Women's Club Fashion Show 2; Screech Owl Secretary 4; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Graduation Speaker.

Jet black hair, a cute little laugh, and that's our Janet! She may be petite, but she's full of personality. It's easy to see why she was chosen Queen of our Junior Prom. Janet has always been energetic in school activities, but she has still managed to graduate with high honors. We're sure Janet will always be successful in anything she attempts.

Catherine Higgins

Here's a girl who has always added a special touch to the Variety Show with her lovely voice. Her disposition is just as sweet, too. Etta's plans for the future are to attend the Boston Conservatory of Music. Who knows? Someday we may be buying Etta's records!

Wanda Jasielonis

10 Hillside Street

Junior Women's Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Screech Owl Staff 3, 4; Ring Committee 3; Senior Chorus 4.

Wanda is a girl who is admired for her beautiful wavy hair and her attractive clothes. Efficient and likable, she has proved herself to be one of the best students in the Commercial Department. Her willingness to help others will carry her far in the future.

Robert Kilkenney

27 Butler Avenue

Intramural Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1; French Club 2.

Robert is one of the quieter boys in the class, but his friends know him to possess a likable personality. He has certainly been a credit to Johnson's Pharmacy this past year. His neatness and thoroughness will enable him to be successful in whatever he undertakes in the future.

Dickie's smile and friendly air will carry him a long way. He has a keen sense of humor and his practical jokes have entertained us for the past four years. We can rest assured that no matter what his plans may be, he will come through on top.

Margaret Jones

12 Brown Street

Peggy, who is the most dignified girl in the class, is also one of the most studious. Without her witty remarks, school would have been dull. Her melodious voice and even-disposition will make her successful as a teacher.

John appears to be a boy without a care in the world. His calm, easy-going manner makes him tops among his many friends. He has certainly been a credit to the A & P in the year he has been there. John has no definite plans for the future, but we are wishing him the best of luck in all his endeavors.

Activities

Junior Women's Club Dance

DECEMBER 7, 1951

Getting a head start on leap year, the girls did a turn about by inviting the boys to the Junior Women's Club Dance, one of the main social events of the year. The auditorium was decorated in blue and white and the music of the 4-teens floated through the hall.

About seventy girls took advantage of the opportunity to ask that "certain" boy to the dance, and a good time was had by all. For those who failed to take this opportunity, remember, many a romance has started at this annual event.

Field Hockey Assembly

DECEMBER 18

At a brief assembly on December 18th, the field hockey teams were awarded their letters. The girls did a splendid job and should be congratulated, especially on their win over Concord.

Mr. Mattioli gave a short introductory speech, after which Miss Riordan awarded second team letters to: Jean Jokisaari, Virginia Van Vorse, Alice Boeske, Josephine Porazzo, Nancy Warila, Miriam Salmi, Jean Martino, Margaret Sweeney, and Priscilla Hoffman.

Miss Leadbetter then awarded letters to members of the first team: Irene Mariani, Barbara Prosper, Norma Puckett, Joanna Kangas, Janice Morgan, Patricia Wehkoja, Joanne Tucker, Madeline Terrasi, Naomi Boothroyd, Nancy Bain, Lois Bain, Helen McPhee, Mary Sweeney, and Betty Musgrave.

Congratulations!

Senior Icicle Festival

DECEMBER 21

Everyone was glad to relax and enjoy themselves after exams so the senior social was a grand success. As an innovation, sandwiches and coffee were served as refreshments during intermission. Smith's orchestra provided the music for the occasion.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of André Beshta as King and Carole Whitney as Queen of Maynard High School. Members of the court, chosen from the three classes, were: Juniors — Joanna Kangas, Edward Cuddy; Sophomores — Margaret Sweeney, Leonard Massarelli; Freshmen — Virginia Warila, Richard Sluyski.

January Assembly

JANUARY 16, 1952

On January 16th, the driver training course at Maynard High was inaugurated with the presentation of the car by Mr. Bumford of Middlesex Motors Corporation to Mr. Boothroyd of the school committee. Several representatives from the Office of the Registry of Motor Vehicles were present to explain the driver education courses now offered throughout the state.

Sadie Hawkins Dance

JANUARY 18

With leap year just under way, the Junior Class ran a Sadie Hawkins Day Dance. The auditorium was gaily decorated in bright red and tiny black figures danced around the lights. A large number of students were on hand to enjoy themselves. Music was provided by Richardson's orchestra.

A. A. Record Hop

JANUARY 30

On January 30th, one of the most successful affairs of the season was held. This was the record hop sponsored by the Athletic Association. The auditorium was literally packed. The attraction? Bob Clayton of WHDH's Boston Ballroom. The ten top songs at Maynard High were announced and played by Mr. Clayton. These songs were the favorites voted for by the student body:

1. Little White Cloud that Cried
2. Slowpoke
3. Cry
4. Sin
5. Tell Me Why
6. Cold, Cold Heart
7. Because of You
8. Shrimpboats
9. Anytime
10. Turn Back the Hands of Time

As an extra added attraction, the King and Queen of Sports at Maynard High School were selected. They were André Beshta, King, and Irene Mariani, Queen. The royal court was also selected from the other classes. They were: Juniors — Edward Cuddy, Lois Bain; Sophomores — Leonard Massarelli, Alice Boeske; Freshmen — Richard Sluyski, Virginia Warila.

A wonderful time was had by all who attended. The A. A. certainly reaped a well-deserved profit.

Quiz Show

FEBRUARY 5

Something new in assemblies was introduced by Miss LaFleur as she presented a quiz show in the auditorium. The questions were all based on the town of Maynard and its history and the Maynard Public Schools. The contestants were selected by the students themselves, three from each class. At the end of the Program, when all the votes were tallied, Margaret Sweeney was declared the winner with 55 points. Janice Morgan was runner-up with 45 points. The students selected as contestants were: Janice Morgan, Owen Duggan, Patricia Meister, Lois Bain, Roger Weaving, Alex Kulevich, Margaret Sweeney, Virginia Sulkala, Barbara Crotty, Jean Antila, Greta Carlquist, and Mark Waldron. Variety Show

APRIL 16 and 17

On April 16th and 17th, the 4th annual variety show was presented by the Student Council in the George Washington Auditorium. The show was a great success as everyone enjoyed himself thoroughly. On April 21st the troupe journeyed to Fort Devens where they put on an equally successful show.

The show opened with two orchestral selections which put everyone in a relaxing mood and ready to enjoy the show. The chorus, which was first on the program, did a fine job throughout the show. The most enjoyed act on the program was the girls' Spike Jones Orchestra. The girls really put on a show, and the people did everything but roll in the aisle with laughter. Another enjoyable act was the singing of "She'll Be Comin' Round the Mountain" by a group of hillbillies. Whoever thought "Swifty" would make such a charming young lady? Mr. Lawson's gym act was even more breathtaking and spectacular than last year. We don't think the wrestlers were evenly matched, but they certainly were entertaining. We all knew right from the beginning that Albie was outclassed. The mystery play was a different touch from the comedies usually presented. This play displayed much of the dramatic talent hidden away in the high school.

All of the acts were good, but they are too numerous to mention here. To all those students who participated in any way, all I can say is CONGRATULATIONS on a fine job.

VARIETY SHOW

Class Prophecy

I.M. Fancy meeting you here in this place of heavenly bliss. How did we get here?

O.D. Yeah — just fancy. You want to know how we got here? Well, I'll tell you. Realizing that this place is scillions of miles from earth and knowing also that we've been drifting around in space for the past twenty years, you might say we've come a long way. Remember the class outing? You and I decided not to go by bus with the rest of the kids. We were going to be different; we went in my car — or at least we started out in it. Just before we set out Leo Clark came along with a sample of his new invention — ZOOMO, the space gas guaranteed to turn any car into a jet boat.

I.M. I realize now that we used it, but what did we hit?

O.D. I'm not sure, but I think it was the Matter Horn but it might have been Pike's peak.

I.M. It worked, Ha?

O.D. Yah — to an extent. I wonder if Leo ever found out what happened to us. As we left the school I did have time to see Leo's agonized look of surprise as we flew like a streak of greased lightning and disappeared. While we're here let's float around on a cloud that's drifting earthward and see what the kids of the class of '52 did with their lives. The gate keeper said if you chose the right kind of cloud and drifted in the four directions of the compass anything you ought to know in that section would appear on a printed card.

Golly Look — Wouldn't you just know it? See that Neon Sign? Here's the card — it says, Alving's Alphabet Soup.

Yeah, Delbie and his squeeze box got to be quite the sensation, but his new method of canning "Snaffles Sniffies" in alphabetical form really put him on the map.

What does this card say? Nancy Bain who was successful in her career as a nurse has given up her career to become the wife of a famous surgeon, Dr. Kill-Em-All.

Ernest Barilone, owner and chief beautician of New York's Beauty Salon, is now thinking of adding one more shop to his chain — in Maynard.

André Beshta, who owns over a 100 Kilbasi rolling factories, now travels around explaining the fine points of his product.

It says here that Naomi Boothroyd has been very successful in the telephone business for she will soon be promoted to a very high position in her work.

Ralph Cantino invented and manufactures the most powerful smelling germicide on the market (for some strange reason occurring in his school days).

Orchids to Mary Cirino. She has just been awarded the highest honor anyone can receive in shorthand, a diamond medal for being able to take shorthand at 200 words a minute. She is secretary to one of the most important business men in the Salami Business.

Carolyn Cuttell, a well-known ace behind the wheel, now has her own driving school. She has become a tremendous success and only 9 out of 10 of her pupils have had serious accidents.

Well, get a load of this. The Patricia Dawson Dress Shoppe. She has the most beautiful creations in her shoppe, very cheap too! Only $200.00 for a cotton dress! It seems that Pat keeps Delbie in business. Every week she buys a carton of his alphabet soup. Mm — Good!

Owen Duggan is now coaching the famous Globe Trotters. Ever since they have been under the supervision of Owen, they have been more sensational than ever. Owen has five boys of his own and would like to form his own basketball team, but his wife objects.

Richard Dunnigan went into partnership with Arthur Murray teaching the Zombie Shuffle.

Thomas Eley, a five star general, is in charge of guarding the oil in Iceland.

What does this say? Garfield Motion Pictures, Inc. Ruth is doing colossal business in the movie industry and has all the modern conveniences you would want, plus the best rate movies, too.

From reading the latest reports of the London Daily Blah, we find that Janet Gentsch and Miriam Salmi have become two well renowned artists. Their paintings have appeared in art galleries all over the world, and have been applauded by critics everywhere.

Lieutenant Janet Gould of the Air Force is now stationed in Germany. She is planning to make the Air Force her life-time career. ZOOM! Say, isn't that Janet flying past us now with her commanding officer?

Well, Catherine Higgins has decided to enter Wilfred Academy in the fall. She wanted to enter Yale, but Yale is an all boys' school. It seems that there is some attraction there that holds her interest. Incidentally, after Kay finishes her 4 years of school she plans to open a beauty parlor specializing in Poodle Cuts.

I wonder what this card says. HMM — Loretta Iannarelli has been tremendously successful as a Broadway singer. She has been heading the musical "Guys and Gals," which incidentally, broke all other previous records for being the longest run show that has ever hit Broadway. Loretta has also been offered a contract from S. O. S.

Wanda Jasielonis is the most sought-after secretary in the business world. John D. Rockefeller has offered her a position with $300.00 a week, but she has declined the offer to accept the position of being Mr. Lerer's secretary since Mrs. Ayotte has retired.

Helen Johnson is now married to a successful plumber in our old home town, Maynard. They have just finished building a new ranch style home on Waltham Street. Her husband has been giving her lessons in plumbing and she will soon receive her license.

Well, well, well, Margaret Jones is now appearing at the Metropolitan. She is the only opera singer in the world that can hit high C and hold it there for 5 minutes without taking a breath. Peggy always was sensational.

Robert Kilkenney has been raising ostriches for his chain of restaurants which features the world's largest omelets.

Richard King, the biggest producer in Hollywood, specializes in horror movies, and has just featured Heckle and Jeckle in a thriller.

John Korsman, the world famous rocket pilot and first man to land on the moon, has built a lunar platform for Bonnie's own special use.

David Laskowsky, a professor at the International School of Mechanics, is the only man who can operate a flying saucer.

Russell Lattuca runs a sightseeing car under the Atlantic Ocean.

Elaine Lorentson is still working at the bank. It has been said that the Cadillac in which she rides to work and those fancy clothes would really knock your eye out. They're still trying to figure out how she got rich all of a sudden? ? ? ?

John Lydon, the international truck expert, has become a connoisseur of fine foods, specializing in African dishes.

John MacDonald is top stunt artist in Hollywood and is featured at the Peoples Theatre this week. He is the chief character in most of Dick King's movies.

Adam Mancini has managed his father's taxi company for several years. He has added a large fleet of atomic powered radar-controlled blue streak cabs.

Frances Maria has just become the first woman manager of Woolworth and Co. Frances has bought so many shares from the bankrupt Mr. Woolworth that we will soon expect to see Maria & Co. around these stores.

Irene Mariani is a candidate for the Presidency of U. S. Her causes are sponsored by the Daughters of 1952.

Faith McCarthy is now retiring after 20 years of faithful service to the telephone company as chief supervisor. She's planning to vacation down in Florida for 20 or 30 years and relax in that beautiful atmosphere.

Patricia Meister, a successful woman inventor, is now a co-worker with Professor Einstein. They are working on revision of Einstein's theory of relativity.

Barbara Mitzcavitch is now the famous accountant who has revealed to the United States a new and quicker method of figuring out income tax reports. Try to figure out where that $100,000 went last year, Barbara!

Janice Morgan has become an extremely successful woman life-guard. Millions throng to that famous swimming resort, Voses Pond, every year to see her exercise her talents. We hear that last week she saved Mrs. Clair when her boat overturned and was rewarded by the school department with $500 for saving Mrs. Clair.

Betty Musgrave is now the owner of that famous world-wide chain of Muzzy's Restaurant. From Louella Parsons' column we read that she is running around with that Texas oil king B. A. Wolf.

At last report William Pierce was living in luxury in Hawaii, made wealthy by his secret process of straining gold from sea water.

Barbara Prosper has the largest swimming school in the world. She recently broke the all-time record for the Australian Crawl Stroke in one minute flat. She was chosen Miss Belly Flopper of the U. S.

Roger Rutkowski, champion midget racing car driver living in California, is weighted down with his large collection of medals.

Bonnie-Lee Smith is now President of the Stanford Binet testing company. Her new I. Q. Test is a humdinger.

Ann Spurrell will soon have open house in her sewing school. She already has 200 pupils signed up for sewing lessons including men as well as women.

Cynthia Starr, as well as being a big executive at Raytheon Inc., has opened up skating rinks all over the country.

Madeline and Frances Terrasi, whose Lonely Hearts Club did a flourishing business, are now vacationing at Monte Carlo.

Barbara Thumith's book of poems has just been published and is expected to reach the millionth mark. For a sideline Barbara is doing journalistic work and it has been said that soon she will write a column of her own in the well-known paper, Flop. In her column she is going to center her writings on How to get the ITCH out of Poison Ivy and the Easiest Way to Gain Weight.

Did you know that Benji Tomy is running a pretzel factory in Mexico?

George VanSon, the new brainy quarterback, has returned to Florida to drain the Everglades. He intended to stop at Virginia, but he was on a non-stop flight.

Robert Watjus, after winning the Olympic decathlon, went into business manufacturing better sneakers.

Francis White received the Nobel prize as the inventor of the new cure for jungle rot.

Carole Whitney has just been elected this year's Mrs. America. They say she isn't a very good housekeeper and the only thing that she can cook is eggs, but when the judges tasted those Whitney eggs, the title was hers.

Class Gifts

Each member of the class will come to the stage to receive a gift to remind him, in the years to come, of the class of '52.

Here's another girl for Delbert Alving. Next time you go to a nightclub you'll see Delbie flirting with the girls, instead of playing his accordion. I'm sure he won't mind if he has just one more girl added to his collection.

To Nancy Bain we leave this apron. It might come in handy if, during the summer, she continues her present employment.

We leave a car to Ernest Barilone. We hope that now with this gift he'll be able to get to work on time.

To one of the finest boys in the school, André Beshta, we give this medal. We hope he continues his good work.

To Naomi Boothroyd, one of the quietest girls in our class, we present this little bell so that her patients at St. Elizabeth's will know she's around.

To Ralph Cantino, we give these vitamin pills in hopes that when he gets them he'll look at least half awake behind Freddie's counter.

To Mary Cirino we leave this banana peel so that some day she can make use of her accident policy.

We leave these two gas pumps to Leo Clark. We hope that this little gift will give him a start when he starts his own business.

To Carolyn Cuttall and Elaine Lornetson, two of the quietest girls in the class, we give these noise makers. We hope that in years to come we will not only see their smiling faces but also hear a little more from them.

This box of smelling salts is for Pat Dawson. We hope she won't need them, but in case her first major operation isn't a success it will come in handy for either her or her poor unfortunate patient.

To Owen Duggan, we leave this miniature basketball. If he continues playing, we hope this gift will bring him lots of luck.

To Dick Dunnigan, we present this baseball glove. We know that in the future he'll be able to use it.

To Thomas Eley, we leave this new truck so that when he delivers ice it won't melt before he gets to his destination.

We give this little airplane to Ruth Garfield so that when she leaves good old Maynard she can make as many trips as she'd like back here to visit us.

To the artists of our class, Miriam Salmi and Janet Gentsch, we leave these pallets and paint brushes in the hope that they can continue to develop their artistic ability.

To Janet Gould we give this stool so that she can reach the top of the filing cabinet, although we hope that someday Janet will not need this gift.

To Kay Higgins we give a pair of scissors so her patients at St. Elizabeth's Hospital can go home in style with their new poodle cuts. (That is, if they can go home).

We give this box of cough drops to Loretta Iannarelli hoping that all during her career her voice will stay as nice and clear as it has been these past four years.

We give to Wanda Jasielonis this pair of binoculars so she can keep her eye on a certain someone when he's away.

We leave this blue Mercury to Helen Johnson. In case a certain somebody's breaks down, we're sure this will come in handy.

We give this piece of sheet music to Peggy Jones. We know that she will master it as she has the others.

We give this secret formula to Bob Kilkenney so that in the future he'll be making the best frappes in town.

We think that Dick King will like this little gift. It's a joke book so he can stay well informed on the latest jokes.

We leave John Korsman this little bottle of gasoline so when he's with this certain someone he'll never get stuck.

We think David Laskowsky will like this shoe polish so he can look all shined up when he takes the next trip to Sudbury.

We leave Russell some eye glass cleaners so he can see when he gets behind the wheel in that old jalopy of his.

We think John Lydon will like this bottle of "Tintair" to keep the flame in his hair.

We are sure Jackie MacDonald will like this little gift. It's a compass to make sure he never loses his way in the dark to Joanna's.

We give this little taxi to Adam Mancini so that someday he'll have a thriving business of his own. Remember, Adam, you'll lose a lot of business by speeding.

We leave this rope to Gina Maria. We hope this little gift will help her to hold on to her "one and only."

To Irene Mariani, queen of the ice capades, we give this pair of skates to wear in the famous Hollywood Ice Show in which she is starring.

A trunk to Faith McCarthy, so that she'll be able to carry her clothes to Florida in style instead of in paper shopping bags as she had planned.

We leave Pat Meister, Barb Mitcavitch, and Bonnie-Lee Smith these books of knowledge. We doubt if they'll need them, but college is pretty tough, you know.

A bottle of vitamin pills goes to Janice Morgan who, we think, could use a little added height. Now take one every day and we guarantee results.

To Betty Musgrave we give this pen. In case her old one gives way she'll have this one to continue to keep up the morale of our service men.

To Laura Novick, one of the best dressed girls in the school, we give this little iron. We know she'll make good use of it.

To Lennie O'Clair and Bob Watjus we give these umbrellas. We hope they'll come in handy in case it's raining up Acton way.

To Pete Pekkala we give this gun. Treasure it always Pete because you'll never find another as valuable as this.

We give this paint brush to Willy Pierce in hopes that his artistic ability will never fade away.

To Barbara Prosper we leave a package of Band Aids for her many bruises received in Field Hockey.

To Jerry Rutkowski we give this invitation to Arthur Murray's Dancing Studio.

We give this book of Italian recipes to Ann Spurrell. I'm sure if she tries it out it will please that "lucky guy" of hers.

To Cynthia Starr we leave this case for her roller skates. We know she'll make good use of this gift.

This Walkie-Talkie to Gina Terrasi. This little gift will be greatly appreciated, as we know, and so does Mr. Calarese, that she just loves to talk.

We give these fenders to Maddy Terrasi in case she happens to lose those on her father's car, by accident — of course.

To Barbara Thumith, the editor of the Screech Owl, we leave this comfortable little bed so she can get that long awaited 'vacation in bed' she deserves.

To Bennie Tomyl we give this Toni Home Permanent Kit in hopes he can keep his hair as curly as it has been all during his stay at M. H. S.

To George Van Son we give this row boat. Now he'll be able to take the shortcut down the Assabet to Virginia's.

To Pat Wehkoja, we give this ice cream scoop so that in the future it will remind her of the good old days at Manning's Pharmacy.

We give Louie White these sleeping pills so he can get to bed early nights.

We give this gun to Carole Whitney. I'm sure she can use it if she finds any egg thieves prowling around.

Certainly our high school years will not be forgotten with these little gifts to remind us of our good times at M. H. S.

Dear Diary

1948 - 1949

September

Dear Diary:

Our high school career began on September 8, 1948. We received our orders and instructions from Mr. Lerer and then we were on our own! Were we proud! For the first few days we were as green as all other Freshmen classes put together, but we quickly overcame this, and proudly took our places as members of the school. Our first class election took place during this month and the students elected to office were: Billy Freeman, President; Irene Mariani, Vice-President; John Mackenzie, Treasurer; and Ann Spurrell, Secretary. We were very fortunate to have Mrs. Clair as our class advisor. We attended our first high school social on the 24th of the month and we had our share of boys and girls participating in football and field hockey.

October

Dear Diary:

We attended the second dance of the year on October 11th, the night before Columbus Day. During this month we had our first experience with bi-monthlies. The Freshman girls, wearing ridiculous costumes, were initiated into the Junior Women's Club. We were quickly finding out that high school is fun as well as work.

November

Dear Diary:

We had the pleasure of attending a wonderful Thanksgiving Assembly presented by the upperclassmen, a few days before Thanksgiving. We had two days for Thanksgiving recess, which we all felt we needed. Our first three months as Freshmen had been very busy ones.

December

Dear Diary:

As Christmas approached, our school took on a gaiety of its own. Miss Pasakarnis and the hard-working art students beautifully decorated the lower corridor in a gay fantasy of color. School closed a few days before Christmas, and we proudly carried home our December issue of the Screech Owl. We had previously voted for Class Superlatives and these were included. The last dance of the year was held on December 22.

January

Dear Diary:

Many changes took place in our school during January. A few rooms had been painted during vacation and the Art Room was transferred from Room 16 to Room 24. We held a combined Circus Hop in the auditorium with the Sophomores and we certainly proved to the upperclassmen that we, too, could run successful social affairs.

February

Dear Diary:

We all attended the A. A. Social on February 4th. Voting had previously taken place and, Jerry Robinson and Anna Belli were crowned King and Queen of Maynard High School. A wonderful time was had by all.

March

Dear Diary:

This was the month in which the Seniors presented their very successful Senior play. We shall never forget their rendition of "School Days." The rest of the month was uneventful.

April

Dear Diary:

Mr. Mattioli held a very wonderful assembly on April 7th. We felt very honored because our class was represented by a quartet of pianists. The program was so good, it was put on for the Junior High.

May

Dear Diary:

The first annual A. A. Variety Show was presented on the 26th and the 27th of this month. It proved to be a very successful and well-attended affair. The annual J. W. C. Banquet was held during this month, and all the Freshmen felt proud when Irene Mariani was elected to the Program Committee of the Junior Women's Club for the following year.

June

Dear Diary:

The entire school was called together to witness the Spring Induction Ceremony of the National Honor Society. We were all very awed and impressed with this very wonderful ritual. On June 22nd, we left school for the summer months, never more to return as gay, lighthearted Freshmen.

1949 - 1950

September

Dear Diary:

After a wonderful summer of swimming and sunning, we returned to school as Sophomores. The class officers elected for this year were Oliva Warila, President; Irene Mariani, Vice-President; John MacKenzie, Treasurer; and Ann Spurrell, Secretary. Mrs. Clair remained as our advisor. Football games started early this year and our class had its share of promising stars, namely, Adam Mancini and Jackie MacDonald. Three cheerleaders were elected from our class and these girls were Kay Higgins, Janice Morgan and Carole Whitney.

October

Dear Diary:

The Sophomore Class presented a great deal of talent in the October Assembly. We shall never forget Barbara Thumith as Miss Sonerg, Janice Morgan as Miss Wiggledigit or Peggy Jones as Miss Hotsee. This different type of assembly was enjoyed by all the students.

November

Dear Diary:

Our own "ATOM" Mancini spoke at a football rally in November. The Screech Owl sponsored a Literary Contest and two Sophomores won prizes. Loretta Iannarelli won first prize in the short story division and Barbara Thumith wrote a prize-winning essay. We never realized before how much literary ability our class possessed.

December

Dear Diary:

We shall never forget the Play, "Twas the Fight Before Christmas," presented by the Juniors on the 20th of December. We were all very busy during this month decorating the school, taking bi-monthly exams and preparing for Christmas.

January

Dear Diary:

The first activity of the new year was a dance held on Friday the thirteenth. Many novelty dances were presented, the main feature being a prize waltz with a winning couple from each class. The Sophomore winners were William Freeman and Helen Johnson. Helen received a corsage and Billy, a boutonniere.

February

Dear Diary:

The Student Council was in charge of the Valentine Dance. This was the dance of the year because the King and Queen of the High School were to be selected with a court comprised of a boy and girl from each class. Everyone was pleased with the announcement that the King and Queen were Edward Romanowski and Mary Sullivan. The court members from our class were William Freeman and Helen Johnson. We all had a good time at this dance.

March

Dear Diary:

It always seems that March is a dull month and I guess that this year was no exception.

April

Dear Diary:

We combined with the Freshmen to run a dance on April 21st. Although we hadn't had much experience in running dances, this affair was very successful. Music was provided by Al Mariano and his orchestra.

May

Dear Diary:

During this month the entire high school was called together to witness the fifth annual spelling contest. Our class was represented by Barbara Mitcavitch and Patricia Meister. Pat honored our class by coming in second and she received a medal for her excellent spelling ability.

June

Dear Diary:

Once more we left Maynard High School for the summer vacation. This year we lost Miss Coleman, homeroom teacher in room 23A, as she was resigning to be married. She was presented with a gift as a token of appreciation for all she had done for us.

1950 - 1951

September

Dear Diary:

When we re-entered high school for the third time, many new faculty members greeted us. They were Miss Barre, Miss Hogarty, Miss Shine, Miss Leadbetter and Mr. Smith. We held our third class election during this month and those elected to hold the various class offices were: William Freeman, President; Kay Higgins, Vice-President; George Van Son, Treasurer; and Irene Mariani, Secretary.

October

Dear Diary:

This was the month in which we selected our class rings. A committee, headed by the class officers, and consisting of three boys and three girls from each home room selected the rings from three companies and then the class voted on the ring it liked best. The Josten Company was granted the contract.

November

Dear Diary:

We held our first dance as Juniors on the 17th of November. I remember the hall was decorated in yellow and the students elected to serve on the committee were the class officers plus Barbara Prosper, Janice Morgan, Janet Gentsch, Nancy Bain, Pat Dawson, Ann Spurrell, Lenny O'Clair, Adam Mancini, Bob Watjus, André Beshta, Owen Duggan, and Dick King. This well-attended affair was both a social and financial success.

December

Dear Diary:

The annual J. W. C. Dance was held during this month. It wasn't even leap year, yet the auditorium was filled with couples dancing to the strains of Smith's Orchestra. Gay decorations and sweet music blended to make the evening a real success.

January

Dear Diary:

We returned to school on the third, reluctant to settle down after a wonderful Christmas vacation. The girls' field hockey and basketball teams combined to run the annual A. A. Social. The King and Queen of sports, something new at Maynard High, were elected at this dance. Billie Howes and Angie Greeno were the King and Queen and their court consisted of a boy and girl from each class. André Beshta and Kay Higgins were the Junior representatives.

February

Dear Diary:

With Pat Meister as Mistress of Ceremonies, the Junior Class presented the February Assembly. The big event in February was the coronation of the King and Queen of Maynard High School. Tommy Cocco and Gertrude Cuddy were elected by the student body to reign, our own André Beshta and Barbara Thumith were members of the court.

March

Dear Diary:

During March we rehearsed for the Variety Show which was to be held in April. Our class was well represented in the many numerous acts and skits. The Student Body happily greeted two new members to the faculty during this month — Mr. DeRosa and Mr. Costello. We feel that they will be a happy addition to our school. Because of sickness and vacation, this was a dull month for us.

April

Dear Diary:

The first annual girls' sports night was held on the 23rd of April. This was the Juniors' night to shine, as we upheld the tradition of our class, by triumphing over the Sophomores in a basketball game. Next year's Field Hockey and Basketball Captains were announced. Barbara Prosper and Irene Mariani were named Field Hockey Co-Captains, while Irene was also elected Basketball Captain. The annual Spelling Match was held in the auditorium with ten students participating. It was a tough battle between Pat Meister and Margaret Sweeney for the championship, but Pat brought credit to our class by winning.

May

Dear Diary:

This was the month of our long-dreamed of Junior Prom. The day dawned wet and rainy, naturally, but nevertheless, we all had a wonderful time. The judges selected Janet Gould as Prom Queen and she received a bouquet of flowers. The members of her court were Helen Johnson, Barbara Prosper, Loretta Iannarelli, Ann Spurrell, Barbara Mitzcavitch and Barbara Thumith. After leaving the Prom, we all went to the Meadows in Framingham where we had made reservations. Six members of our class were admitted into the National Honor Society at the Spring Induction Ceremony. Those upon whom this honor was conferred were: Pat Meister, Barbara Mitzcavitch, Janice Morgan, Barbara Prosper, Bonnie-Lee Smith, and Pat Wehkoja.

June

Dear Diary:

Not to be outdone by the Seniors, we planned a class outing at Canobie Lake. Everyone who went had a wonderful time swimming, eating, and riding on the amusements. We left school once again, for summer months, but this year we were a little more serious, realizing that it wouldn't be long before we'd be leaving for good.

1951 - 1952

September

Dear Diary:

We entered school for the last time with all the characteristics a Senior Class should possess. A great number of changes had taken place in the school personnel, and our new teachers were Miss Riordan, Miss LaFleur, Miss Queenan and Mr. Calarese. We elected class officers immediately and those chosen were George VanSon, President; Barbara Prosper, Vice-President; André Beshta, Treasurer; and Irene Mariani, Secretary; Mrs. Clair remained as our faithful advisor.

October

Dear Diary:

During October a group of Seniors were chosen to serve on a Senior Activities Committee. Headed by the class officers, the committee consisted of Barbara Thumith, Janice Morgan, Patricia Wehkoja, Kay Higgins, Betty Musgrave, Patricia Dawson, Ralph Cantino, Owen Duggan, Richard King, Adam Mancini, William Pierce and Robert Watjus. Our first activity was a social. In spite of the weather, the dance was a huge success.

November

Dear Diary:

Two very successful football rallies were held during this month. George VanSon was Master of Ceremonies at both of these rallies. The innovation of sectional cheering and movies of the various games proved to be very successful. The National Honor Society held its assembly on November 16th. Mary Cirino was inducted into the chapter.

December

Dear Diary:

The annual Christmas Dance was run by the Seniors this year. In order to make the money which we needed so badly, we decided to elect the King and Queen of Maynard High School at this dance. Everyone was very happy when Carole Whitney and André Beshta were announced as the royal couple. Their court consisted of a boy and girl from each class. They both received crowns and Carole was also presented with an orchid.

January

Dear Diary:

January was ushered in by a record hop at which Bob Clayton spun the records. The cheerleaders sponsored this dance and it was the best-attended affair M. H. S. has had for a long time. The King and Queen of Sports were elected at this dance. Irene Mariani and André Beshta were elected to reign. Irene was escorted to her beautifully decorated throne by Bob Clayton and she received an old-fashioned bouquet.

February

Dear Diary:

During February, a combined Washington and Lincoln assembly was presented, with many Seniors participating in the program. A quiz program was held, the contestants being three students from each class. The Seniors held their third dance on the 15th. As an added attraction, we had a Mystery Man. Clues and hints were given and the Mystery Man, alias Lenny O'Clair, was guessed by Elsie Johnson.

March

Dear Diary:

On March 14, a good government assembly was presented, with Bonnie-Lee Smith as mistress of ceremonies. Dave Williams of Concord was guest speaker. Six talented Seniors displayed their musical ability by singing, "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You." They were Margaret Jones, Ann Spurrell, Barbara Thumith, Janice Morgan, Barbara Prosper and Irene Mariani. André Beshta was our good government representative from Maynard. During this month we held our first out-of-school activity. This was a food sale, held at Hawes' Flower Shop. Through the cooperation of the Seniors this was a very successful affair.

April

Dear Diary:

The 4th annual Variety Show, which was staged on April 15th and 16th was run by M. H. S. Student Council this year. Our own Delbie Alving served as a very able master of ceremonies and the show proved to be an even bigger success than in past years. The students who were to write the Class Night speeches were announced. They were: Class Will — Billy Pierce, Barbara Prosper; Class Prophecy — Owen Duggan, Irene Mariani; Class Gifts — Adam Mancini, Carole Whitney. I guess graduation is drawing near.

May

Dear Diary:

On May 16th, the Junior-Senior Promenade was held in the auditorium. This innovation proved to be a huge success. The annual Spelling Contest was held in the auditorium and as usual we had our share of participants.

June

Dear Diary:

This was the month which terminated our days as students of Maynard School. During Senior Week we had our outing, our class night and banquet, and then on June 15th, our long-awaited graduation. The boys wore blue robes while the girls wore the traditional white ones. The graduation speakers were Barbara Mitzcavitch, Patricia Meister, Bonnie-Lee Smith, Janice Morgan, Barbara Thumith, Janet Gould and Miriam Salmi. This was the month we said good-bye to our school, our teachers and our classmates. We were all happy to be graduating, but we were also a bit sad to be ending a period of our lives during which we had been so happy and carefree.

Boys' Basketball

MAYNARD 55 — HOPKINTON 24
December 14, 1951

The Black and Orange opened their 1952 basketball season in a non-league clash with Hopkinton. Accustomed to cramped surroundings, the Maynard Five made short work of their outclassed foes. Capt. Owen Duggan was high scorer with 25 points and Jack MacDonald came in second with 11.

The strong Jay Vee team also won an easy opener 41-26 with Roger Murray scoring 19 points for the victors.

MAYNARD 51 — WESTON 38
December 18, 1951

The Owls made it their second straight as they beat a strong Weston five for the first time in five years on the latter's new court. It was a close game down to the last period when Maynard pulled ahead. High scorers for the game were Jack MacDonald, Owen Duggan, and Alec Kulevich with 15, 14, and 13 points respectively.

The Jay Vees lost their first one to a taller Weston quintet by 26-33.

NEWTON 54 — MAYNARD 37
December 21, 1951

Maynard suffered its first defeat under the hands of a strong Newton team. The Lawsonites were outclassed and outplayed from the start. Scoring honors went to Duggan who was high scorer for the game with 15 points, while Alec Kulevich came in close behind with 10.

The Jay Vees lost their second in a row to a well-drilled Newton team by a 23-34 score.

MAYNARD 57 — MARLBORO 50
January 4, 1952

In their first league encounter, the Owls defeated the high-spirited Marlboro Panthers by a slim margin. Maynard jumped to a big lead of 19-4 in the first quarter, but due to careless ball handling it dwindled to a tie. After coming from behind in the last quarter, Maynard rapped it up as Eddie Gallagher threw in 17 points for the high scoring honors of the game. Coming in close behind were Owen Duggan with 15 and Jack MacDonald with 14.

The Jay Vees won their first league game by the score of 41-26 with Roger Murray tallying 10 points.

CLINTON 43 — MAYNARD 28
January 8, 1952

Showing championship form, the Clinton Gaels handed the Milltowners their first league defeat. The Owls just couldn't find the basket and Clinton's fine defense enabled them to come off the boards with the rebounds 75 per cent of the time. "Ace" Duggan, assisted by the beautiful passing of Tomyl and MacDonald, chucked in 21 of the losers 28 points.

The powerful J. V. five made it two league games in a row as they whipped the Clinton J. V. 25-10 behind some sharpshooting by Capt. Lennie Masarelli who piled up 8 points.

HUDSON 36 — MAYNARD 35
January 11, 1952

In the most exciting game both teams had played this season, the Hudson Hawks edged the Maynard Owls by one point. The large crowd in the packed Armory saw the lead of the game see-saw back and forth throughout the game. Going into the last seconds of the game Maynard held a 35-34 lead when a Hudson player sunk a basket to win the game. Ben Tomyl and André Beshta played a wonderful game at defense holding Hudson's high scorer, Dick Lyons, to 14 points while Owen Duggan was high scorer for the losers with 24.

BASKETBALL

First Row: E. Gallagher, F. White, B. Tomy, O. Duggan, A. Beshta, J. MacDonald, A. Kulevich.
Second Row: Coach Lawson, F. Mariani, R. Murray, R. Niemi, E. Rogers, M. Nelson, G. Nelson, L. Tower.
Third Row: L. Massarelli, D. Torppa, W. Murray, R. Weaving, A. Alexanian, G. Connors.

First Row: J. Morgan, L. Bain, I. Mariani, B. Thumith, C. Whitney, J. Kangas.
Second Row: B. Prosper, N. Bain, J. Gentsch, L. Eley, V. VanVorse, M. Salmi, Miss Riordan.
Third Row: P. Hoffman, J. Novick, J. Tucker, M. Sweeney, K. Bobritsky.

The Maynard J. V.'s easily defeated the Hudson Juniors 35-22 with Fred Mariani scoring 10 points and Billy Murray 9.

MAYNARD 58 — MILFORD 38
January 18, 1952

With revenge in their minds after losing a tough one-pointer to Hudson in the previous game, the Maynard five traveled to Milford for another league game. From the first quarter it was Maynard's game as they sunk basket after basket to hold a commanding 20-point lead most of the game. Alec Kulevich, junior center, was hot as he hit for 21 points to lead the scoring for both teams.

The tall Milltown J. V.'s got a scare as their unbeaten league record was threatened by a scrappy Milford team. They managed to pull the game out of the fire in the last moments and won 30-28 with Billy Murray tossing in 13 points.

FRANKLIN 62 — MAYNARD 60
January 25, 1952

In another heartbreaker, the Maynard Travelers dropped a hard-fought game by 2 slim points. The score never varied by more than 3 or 4 points, and going into the final second of the game it was all tied up 60-60 when a missed foul shot, was tapped in by Franklin to give them the game. High scorers for Maynard were Duggan with 24 points and Galagher with 17.

The J. V.'s piled up another Midland League victory as the unbeaten Maynard five won 42-30. Billy Murray hit for 17 points with Roger Murray scoring 12.

MAYNARD 59 — CHELMSFORD 42
January 22, 1952

A snowy night found the Owls traveling to Chelmsford for a non-league encounter with a strong Chelmsford club which had previously downed Hudson. It was a close game and at the half it was Maynard by a narrow margin. As the game progressed Maynard got stronger and steadily pulled away. Alec Kulevich played a nifty game at center under the boards and with some good passes from the "Nailer" Tomyl and "Chisler" MacDonald tapped in 18 points, while Duggan netted 15 from the outside.

The J. V. squad also won trimming their opponents 42-26. Lanky center, Roger Murray, dropped in 17 points for the Maynardites.

MAYNARD 53 — MARLBORO 30
January 29, 1952

The Lawsonmen fared better at the second try with Marlboro as they won by 23 points. Maynard controlled both backboards and couldn't be stopped as they piled up the points. When the slaughter stopped everyone on the winning team had scored, with Duggan and Kulevich scoring 21 and 14 points respectively.

The J. V.'s rolled on beating the Marlboro J. V.'s by a score of 47-33 with R. Murray tallying 14 and B. Murray and F. Mariani scoring 10 points each.

CLINTON 49 — MAYNARD 22
February 1, 1952

In the return game with Clinton, Maynard couldn't hit from the outside and was having trouble getting through the Gaels' defense, but good team-work kept Maynard in the game. The game was close down to the last period when the Gaels really pored it on and pulled out to a safe 10-point lead which was never threatened. Duggan tallied 18 points for Maynard.

The powerful Owl J. V. quintet crushed the Clinton seconds 34-27 with Roger Murray tossing in 11 points for high scoring honors.

HUDSON 59 — MAYNARD 40
February 6, 1952

Once again the Black and Orange traveled to Hudson for a return league game. Right away, the Hawks jumped to a big lead and held it during the game. Everyone on their squad was hot while Maynard couldn't get started and when the game ended Hudson had it by 19 points. Duggan was high scorer for Maynard with 21 points.

The Maynard J. V.'s won, as usual, by downing the Hudson J. V.'s 31-21 and it was F. Mariani throwing in 14 points for high scoring honors.

MAYNARD 68 — MILFORD 43
February 12, 1952

The second game with Milford High School was an exact repetition of the first. The Owls hit off to a fast start and piled the points on while Milford had all it could do to net a basket. Capt. Duggan tallied a big 29 points to lead the field with A. Kulevich scoring 15.

OHH! IT HAPPENED! The Maynard J. V.'s lost their first league game to a hot Milford team. In the absence of Coach Lawson the Owlets just couldn't score while the Milford juniors were scoring like clockwork. The final score was Milford 34, Maynard 23. R. Murray scored 13 points.

FRANKLIN 55 — MAYNARD 52

February 15, 1952

The second game at far-away Franklin was just as exciting as the first. The fans were very enthusiastic and they got their money's worth as the game displayed many unusual shots by players on both teams. Maynard was just those few points down throughout the game and couldn't close the gap even though they played their hardest. Once again it was O. Duggan scoring 26 points for tops with Ben Tomyl, J. MacDonald, F. White, A. Beshta, and the rest of the squad playing their best in their last league game for Maynard High.

The J. V.'s avenged their loss to Milford even though it took a thrilling overtime game to do it. "Hut" Rogers came through with 11 points as the Owlets showed championship form in the overtime and sunk Franklin 31-30.

MAYNARD 48 — CONCORD 45

February 16, 1952

The annual game with Concord High was played the night after the hardfought Franklin game and the squad was tired. Coach Lawson started a team of seniors and substituted freely. Maynard pulled away to a big lead early in the game, but the spunky Concord Club never gave up and pulled ahead in the last quarter. Maynard was not going to lose this contest and finally went ahead by 3 points with seconds to go when tempers flared and the game was stopped. The hall was cleared of spectators and play was resumed but the Milltowners held their lead. "Ace" Duggan played one of his best games of the year as he sank 29 points, 17 of them coming in that important last quarter, and the rest of the team played good supporting roles.

The J. V. lost 39-45, but it was common opinion that the officiating was poorly handled.

TOURNAMENT

MAYNARD 61 — BRISTOL AGGIES 34

February 22, 1952

For their first tourney game the Owls drew the Bristol Aggies to play on the cobblestone court at Somerville. Maynard started out slowly and was behind most of the first half but some of Jack MacDonald's beautiful passes started the team clicking and they tied the score at half-time. In the second half a different Maynard five rolled up point after point and with unbeatable teamwork came out 27 points ahead. The whole team played like pro's and double figures were hit by Duggan, Kulevich, and MacDonald as they amassed 18, 16, and 14 points.

WESTWOOD 51 — MAYNARD 36

February 26, 1952

In the semi-finals at Malden, Maynard didn't fare so well. They ran into their nemesis, the zone defense, and were stopped cold while Westwood's fast style of play ran them ragged. The game was fairly close at the half, but after that the gap widened as Maynard couldn't get going. Captain Duggan got 22 points and the rest of the team shared the other scoring.

Injuries and lack of an adequate practicing floor weakened the team. Nevertheless Coach Lawson and the boys are to be congratulated on a fine season.

Basketball Honors

Two of Coach Lawson's hoop stars brought glory to their school, their coach and themselves by being elected to All-Star Teams. In the Midland League, Captain Owen Duggan was chosen as first team forward and Jack MacDonald, a guard, made the League's second squad.

"Ace" Duggan, in a tie with R. Lyons of Hudson for high-scoring honors, set a new Midland League scoring record.

When the All-Star Eastern Massachusetts teams were voted upon, Owen Duggan gained a berth on the second team while Jack MacDonald was a starter on the third quintet.

Baseball

CONCORD 11 — MAYNARD 2

The Maynard Owls opened their season by losing a well-played game to their arch rival, Concord. Although Maynard outhit Concord 7-5, the hits were well scattered by the pitcher, Porter Adams. Ed Gallagher started for Maynard, but was relieved in the third by Niemi who was replaced by Torppa in the seventh. The big stick for Maynard was Capt. Mancini, who got 3 hits.

WESTON 14 — MAYNARD 6

Maynard lost its second game of the season to Weston. Ed Gallagher again started for the Owls, but was lifted for Mark Nelson who pitched himself a good ball game. The rest of the club, however, just didn't have it that day, for they made nine errors, collected three hits, and were nine runs short of their first victory of the '52 season.

MAYNARD 13 — WESTON 3

The Maynard Owls hit the winning column with a bang. In all, they collected 17 base hits for 13 runs. Both pitching and fielding were very good, and this is what it takes to make a winning ball team. Without doubt, Dick King's long triple, which drove in the first two runs of Maynard's victory drive highlighted the game.

MILFORD 4 — MAYNARD 2

Reino Niemi made his first start for the Owls against Milford. The game was a real pitchers' duel with Stoico going all the way for Milford. Both boys pitched scoreless ball for 8 innings. Then Cuddy singled. Duggan followed with a double, thus scoring Cuddy, and King singled Duggan home.

Milford rallied to tie up the game in the ninth inning. In the top of the eleventh, the opponent added two more runs before being stopped. In the last of the eleventh, Maynard started a rally that looked good. Beshta doubled Cuddy and Mancini walked to fill the bases. Bob Stoico then came back to life by striking out Duggan and Gallagher and by forcing Sluyski to ground out to the second baseman. And thus a really thrilling game came to an end.

Girls' Basketball

1951 - 1952

In the latter part of November, Miss Riordan, our new basketball coach, began practice for the girls. Because a terrifically large number of girls tried out this year, the Freshmen had to be eliminated in order to give priority to the upper classmen.

The first team was comprised entirely of Seniors and Juniors; the second team was a combination of all three classes.

Irene Mariani was chosen as competent captain for the first team which was composed of C. Whitney, L. Bain, B. Thumith, J. Kangas, L. Iannarelli, J. Morgan, N. Bain, L. Eley. The second team was capably captained by Virginia Van Vorse.

This was a highly successful year as the first team had four wins and two defeats; the second team reversed the ratio to two wins and four defeats.

The girls deserve praise for the co-operation and spirit which they showed throughout the entire season.

Many thanks to Miss Riordan for her able assistance and guidance!

MAYNARD vs. HUDSON

1st team Maynard 20 — Hudson 17
2nd team Hudson 15 — Maynard 12

The first basketball game of the season was played in the Hudson Armory. Both games were highly contested and the lack of experience in playing on a large court made the going difficult for the Maynardettes. Nevertheless, the first team over-powered Hudson by a breath-taking score of 20-17. Lois Bain started the season off with a high score of 12 points, and Carole Whitney scored the remaining points.

The second team played an exceptionally good game, but lost by a close margin of 15-12. Capt. Virginia Van Vorse was credited with 8 points.

MAYNARD vs. CONCORD

1st team Maynard 17 — Concord 16
2nd team Concord 22 — Maynard 10

The traditional game of rivalry was played in Concord at Hunt Memorial Gymnasium. Because of the close contest between the first teams they held a fighting spirit until the last second of the game. The first team emerged victoriously by a score of 17-16. (too close for comfort!) Carole Whitney swished the ball through the hoop for 12 points. Lois Bain scored 5, and Joanna Kangas 4.

The second team was not as fortunate and was defeated 22-10 only by points, and not by courage. Janice Morgan was high scorer with 5 points.

MAYNARD vs. MILFORD

1st team Maynard 34 — Milford 17
2nd team Maynard 17 — Milford 11

Both teams at last had a double win, and Milford was the victim. The first team took an early lead and the points kept piling up. Carole Whitney netted 20 points for high-scoring honors. Lois Bain collected 10 points and Joanna Kangas, 4.

This was the first victory for the second team, and it was a close game all the way through, but Maynard finally came out on top as they edged Milford 17-11. Janice Morgan was tops with 6 points.

MAYNARD vs. MARLBORO

1st team Marlboro 50 — Maynard 22
2nd team Marlboro 25 — Maynard 16

Both Maynard teams bowed to Marlboro, but not without the fighting spirit which was in evidence through the entire game. In the first quarter the first team was in the lead. Then, "What happened?" Marlboro began scoring points and substantial points were not gathered to defeat them. Lois Bain played a sensational game, tallying 18 points. The remaining 4 points were taken by Carole Whitney.

The second team likewise was defeated. The game was full of intrigue and suspense up until the last minute. Janice Morgan kept up the spirit by scoring 9 points. Virginia Van Vorse and Nancy Bain netted 7 points, 4 and 3 points respectively.

MAYNARD vs. ACTON

1st team Acton 46 — Maynard 31
2nd team Acton 27 — Maynard 14

Acton completely overwhelmed the first team by a score of 46-31. At half time, the score was 24-12, we being the "under dogs." For a while the game was nip'n tuck, but a win was not in sight. Acton ended up the conquerer, and this was our second loss of the season.

Carole Whitney played a superb game and gathered 17 points, while Lois Bain scored 11 and Joanna Kangas the remaining 3.

This was also a bad day for the second team as it was defeated 27-14. At the half they were behind 13-11 and had a chance to make it an even match. No such luck! ! In the second half Acton trampled all over Maynard, and made a decisive victory. Nancy Bain and Virginia Van Vorse each scored 7 points.

MAYNARD vs. WAYLAND

1st team Maynard 11 — Milford 9
 2nd team Maynard 14 — Milford 14

These were the concluding games of the season, and proved highly favorable to both teams.

The points were light, but the score proved a victory. The first team easily triumphed over Wayland 11-9; the close score kept it a thriller.

Carole Whitney was outstanding for Maynard scoring 7 points. Lois Bain made 4 points.

The second game was a supposed tie of 14-14, although there was a question as to whether one of the baskets tallied by Nancy Bain was good or not. This one basket meant a tie or defeat for the team, but it was decided that the game was a tie. Three cheers for Nancy for saving the game!
