

It was long overdue, but former Maynard High athletic standouts are finally starting to get recognized for their excellence on the athletic fields.

Last year for the first time in history, Maynard High athletics inducted its first "Hall of Fame" to recognize former Tiger players. There was 19 former athletes recognized, and chairman Edward Mullin is expected a drop off in numbers for the 2007 induction that is slated for Saturday, November, 17 at the Maynard Lodge of Elks from 6 p.m. to 11:30 p.m.

"Last year was great," Mullin said. "We had over 300 people, and it was nice to see people get recognized for their accomplishments. Maynard is a small town, but there have been some good athletes that deserve to be recognized for the things that they did for Maynard High athletics."

It is not too late for citizens of Maynard and fans of Maynard High athletics to speak up and nominate someone that you feel is deserving of this honor. The cut-off date is June 30. If you need a form, do not hesitate to call Edward Mullin at 978-897-7894 or contact any of the other committee members.
