The Literary and Business Staffs of the

Maynard High School Yearbook Present the

1964 SCREECH OWL

FOREWORD

In this yearbook, the Screech Owl of 1964, we present Maynard High School as we, the students, see it.

As you peruse these pages, you will see that those who are a part of the school comprise a living thing. You will find the administrators—the body of the school; the faculty—the soul of the school; the students—the spirit of the school.

You will see that the growth of this living thing is nourished through learning. You will find that learning comes only through practical experience and growing pains. And, you will find the activities which are these practical experiences, and which cause these growing pains.

You will realize that, to us, the students, Maynard High School is a living thing, for it is our growing pains; our learning; our life.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Albert Lerer
Superintendent of Schools

In 1928, Mr. Lerer came to Maynard High School as teacher of history and Problems of American Democracy. He was Principal for fifteen years, with the exception of World War II service as an Air Force captain. In 1955 Mr. Lerer became Superintendent of Maynard schools.

Mr. Frediano D. Mattioli
Principal

Mr. Mattioli began his service at Maynard High School in 1946 as a teacher of mathematics. In 1955, he assumed his present position, Principal.

Mr. Wilfred DeRosa
Vice-Principal

Mr. DeRosa became a member of the Maynard High School staff in February, 1951. Since then, he has coached football and taught social studies. He has served since 1961 as Vice-Principal.

CAMBRIDGE LATIN 0 at MAYNARD 13—Maynard first scored on a pass from Piecewicz to Bigusiak, Symes converting. Gorts recovered a Cambridge fumble to set up the second score. Ruggiero handed off to Piecewicz who ran around the end for the final score of the game.

MAYNARD 28 at SHREWSBURY 14—Ruggiero scored twice, and gained much-needed yardage on the ground. After trailing at the half, the team came back strong on scores by Barrett and Hatch, while the defense stopped Shrewsbury cold.

MAYNARD 3 at NOTRE DAME 0—Early in the third period, Symes' field goal angled from 28 yards out was the margin of victory in this see-saw battle.

FARMINGHAM NORTH 0 at MAYNARD 28—Symes collected a touch-down and three extra points in the best offensive game of the season. Other scores were made by Barrett, Ruggiero, and Piecewicz.

HUDSON 0 at MAYNARD 0—Maynard had the offensive edge in a strong defensive battle in which both teams were close to score.

MALBORO 8 at MAYNARD 7—One of the most thrilling high school football games ever witnessed on any grid-iron saw Maynard edged by a point-after touch-down, but not outplayed. A first period pass from Piecewicz to Bigusiak, and a conversion kick by Symes gave Maynard its score.

MAYNARD at CONCORD (cancelled)—After postponement due to the elements, this game was cancelled because of the untimely death of the late President John F. Kennedy.

MAYNARD 0 at MILFORD 30—Let-down because of the long period of time between games, saw Maynard defeated by the Milford eleven.

MAYNARD 28 at CLINTON 6—Maynard closed a successful season with a sound victory over Thanksgiving Day rival, Clinton. Symes, Ruggiero, Pileeki, and Brooks, a promising Sophomore, scored in a unified team effort.

JUNIOR PROM

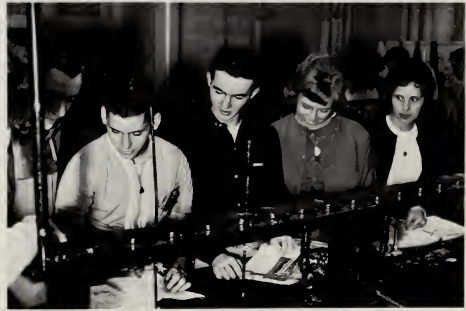

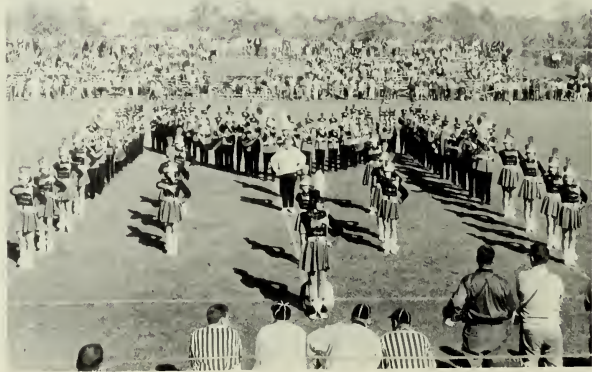

CANDIDS

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1964 of Maynard High School, being of somewhat sound mind do make and proclaim this as our final will and testament. We deem it appropriate to leave to those behind more than mere happy memories of our presence during these past years.

To our principal and faculty we extend our thanks for their devoted help and guidance during our high school years. We are confident that they deserve much of the credit for our future success.

To the Juniors, we donate a carton of yeast pills in order that they may rise to the occasion of being SENIORS.

The title of "Upperclassmen" we confer upon the Sophomores. We also leave any leftover decorations for their future use.

Any remaining courage that we have, we leave to the Freshmen, for they will need it to face three more years and twelve more report cards.

Specific individuals bequeath the following:
Marilyn Ash leaves with, "Only her hairdresser knowing."
Dorothy Barilone leaves her coveted place in Mr. McGuire's Bachelor English Class to Katherine Pilecki.
John Berry leaves his irresistible Western accent to Joe Mullin.
Bruce Blanchard leaves a First National grocery cart to John Murphy to carry his books in.
Robert Boreson leaves just because everyone else is.
Beverly Burt leaves her Avon job to Joan Clarke if she has a knack for ringing doorbells.
Miriam Catton leaves her quiet ways to Janet Lankiewicz.
Charles Coggins leaves his famous "laugh" to Ricky Uglevich if he can tame it.
Elaine Colombo leaves her beautiful wardrobe to be distributed among the Junior girls.
Joseph Connerney leaves his black curly hair to Phyllis Whitney.
Ellen Davis leaves her Crisco trophies to the Mazola Oil Company.
Jeryllyn Dee leaves with only one big Bill.
Linda Derby leaves her megaphone to John Marcey to use at the next rally.
Christine D'Errico leaves whispering to Alice.
Alice Donaghue leaves to enter the races at Norwood.
Catherine Donovan leaves a plan which guarantees not to make you late more than once a week.
John Dora leaves his many excuses for being absent to Bobby Doyle.
Robert Fardy leaves to write his book, "Life Without Father."
John Farrar leaves singing "Where the Girls Are."
Matthew Fouratt leaves singing "Collegiate, Collegiate, yes I am Collegiate."
Alexander Frazier leaves Paula in tears.
Carl Fryatt leaves Rita without a ride to school.
Linda Gentsch leaves with a pick and a shovel to join Joey at the D.P.W.
Linda Gogolin leaves muttering "Decisions! Decisions!"
Richard Gorts leaves an autographed picture to all his admirers.
Jack Hackett leaves Susan without anyone to cheer for.
Alton Haines leaves his prominent ideas to next year's Business Manager.
Jacqueline Haley leaves like a comet.
Nancy Hanson leaves one step ahead of David Hatch.
David Hatch leaves his cool temperament to Barry Grant.
George Hatch leaves his football pants to Tiger Brooks with suspenders.
Kathleen Helin leaves to join the submarine corps.
Paul Hellowell leaves his secret of "how to fall asleep in class without getting caught" to Walter Helin.
Susan Herbst leaves her beauty aids to Lorraine Helenius.
John Holt leaves looking a little Green in the face.
Janet Jarvinen leaves the wolf whistles to anyone qualified to take her place.
Noreen Johnston leaves with rings on her fingers and bells on her toes.
Francine Joné leaves her leopard coat to the "Tigers."
Barbara Jones leaves her job at Fine Arts to Ronald Hebert, provided he can fit through the ticket booth door.
David Kallio leaves his brain to Mr. Lerer to be pickled and put on display in the Lab.
Bruce Kankanpaa bequeaths some engraved calling cards so that people will spell his name correctly to Rostic Zerchykov.
Barbara Knowles leaves her job as "Sub-Sandwich Supervisor of 23-B" to any junior who can be trusted not to eat up all the profits.
John Lent leaves one baseball personally autographed to Dave Sullivan.

James Long leaves his "fine-running" car to Joe Hlavati if he has the courage to drive it away.

Pat Long leaves her "Do-It-Yourself" baton lessons to John Merriam.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 7, 1960, the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-four entered Maynard High School, and was united under the leadership of President: Herbert Symes; Vice-President; Linda Gentsch; Secretary: Barbara McGarry; Treasurer: James Ruggiero. Interesting events of the year were the Junior Woman's Club initiations, and the Nantasket Trip in June.

As Sophomores the class elected Herbert Symes as President, Linda Gentsch as Vice-President, Jerilyn Dee as Secretary, and James Ruggiero as Treasurer.

The first of the class's many successful and beautifully decorated dances, "Around the World in Eighty Days," was held.

Then came the time everyone had waited for—the time to select class rings. Excitement prevailed as the usual style was changed from a rectangular-shaped ring to a round one.

The first year as Upperclassmen began with the election of President: Herbert Symes; Vice-President: Linda Gentsch; Secretary: Janet Jarvinen; and Treasurer: James Ruggiero, as class officers.

In October, many members of the class participated in a trip to the United Nations Building in New York City.

In January, the highest honor of the school, induction into the National Honor Society, was bestowed upon the following Juniors: Janet Jarvinen, David Kallio, Barbara Mackey, Joan Marie Quinn, Toni Sebastyn, Constance Whitney, and Jean Wick.

The Student Government Exchange was held with the Gates of Heaven High School in South Boston. Janet Jarvinen, David Kallio, John Lent, Howard Perry and Joan Marie Quinn participated.

The most exciting social event of the school year was the Junior Prom. "Pacific Paradise" was chosen as the theme. Members of the class contributed much time and effort to preparation for the Prom. Finally, on May 10, the Green Meadow School Auditorium became a true "Pacific Paradise" with beautiful decorations and colored revolving lights. After much deliberation, the orchestra chose Barbara McGarry as queen and Elaine Colombo, Jerilyn Dee, Barbara Jones, Toni Sebastyn, Ellen Sokolowski, and Constance Whitney as members of the Court.

Janet Jarvinen attended the Girls' State program at Bridgewater State Teachers College, and Stephen Piecewicz and Herbert Symes attended the Boys' State Program at the University of Massachusetts.

Senior year was full of activity. Steve Piecewicz was elected President, Linda Gentsch was elected Vice-President, Janet Jarvinen was elected Secretary, and James Ruggiero was elected Treasurer. A "first" at Maynard High was the folk singing program which was sponsored by the class, and presented by folklorist Ken Carter. Linda Gentsch, John Lent, and Maureen Mariano were inducted into the National Honor Society. The recipient of the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award was Diane Pazaricky, and the recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship award was Jean Wick. David Tompkins was elected as the Student Government Representative. Members of the girls' varsity basketball team were honored by attaining the runners' up trophy in the Central Massachusetts Class B Basketball Tournament.

Although the yearbook deadline prevents any description of the activities of the remaining months, including the highlight of the four years in high school—graduation, they will be as well-remembered as the activities which have been written here.

COMMEMORATION

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

"There was a sound of laughter; in a moment, it was no more. And, so, she took a ring from her finger and placed it in his hands.

There was a wit in a man neither young nor old, but a wit full of an old man's wisdom and of a child's wisdom, and, then, in a moment, it was no more. And so she took a ring from her finger and placed it in his hands.

There was a man marked with the scars of his love of country, a body active with the surge of a life far, far from spent and, in a moment, it was no more. And so she took a ring from her finger and placed it in his hands.

There was a father with a little boy, a little girl and a joy of each in the other. In a moment it was no more, and so she took a ring from her finger and placed it in his hands.

There was a husband who asked much and gave much and, out of the giving and the asking, wove with a woman that could not be broken in life, and, in a moment, it was no more. And so she took a ring from her finger and placed it in his hands, and kissed him and closed the lid of a coffin.

A piece of each of us died at that moment. Yet, in death he gave of himself to us. He gave us a good heart from which the laughter came. He gave us of a profound wit from which a great leadership emerged. He gave us of a kindness and a strength fused into human courage to seek peace without fear.

He gave us of his love that we, too, in turn, might give. He gave that we might give of ourselves, that we might give to one another until there would be no room, no room at all, for the bigotry, the hatred, prejudice and the arrogance which converged in that moment of horror to strike him down.

In leaving us—these gifts, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, President of the United States, leaves with us. Will we take them, Mr. President? Will we have, now, the sense and the responsibility and the courage to take them?

I pray to God that we shall, and under God we will."

Senator Mike Mansfield
November 25, 1963

We, the Class of nineteen-hundred and sixty-four, commemorate this yearbook to the late, thirty-fifth, President of the United States, John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of Nineteen-hundred and Sixty-four, dedicate this yearbook to our school—Maynard High School, Summer Street, Maynard, Massachusetts.

Maynard High School means many things to each of us. For the past four years, it has been a place at which we have sought education through studies, enjoyment through extra-curricular programs, and friendship through social activities. It has been a place which has revealed to us a wonderful world of learning. It has given us academic and social education; has developed us from immature adolescents into mature young adults; has prepared us for the future.

As we have shown in this yearbook, Maynard High School is a living and personal thing. Therefore, this dedication is not only for the school itself, but it is for all administrators, faculty members, students, and all others who have been associated with it. They, like we, have received something from the school, and have, in return, given something of themselves to it. Their experiences, like our own experiences, have taken their places as cherished memories.

Although the present Maynard High School will be replaced this year by a newer and more modern building, it can never be replaced in our hearts. We dedicate the Screech Owl of Nineteen-hundred and Sixty-four to our school, and thereby build a bridge between the past and the future, that even though the new replaces the old, the old may never be forgotten.

The "old" Maynard High School and its treasure of memories will live in our hearts forever.

A BRIEF SKETCH OF THE HISTORY OF MAYNARD HIGH SCHOOL

"On January 13, 1915, the town voted to purchase the Dr. F. U. Rich lot on Summer Street (once the John Whitman place) for a school site and a fine brick building was erected which accommodates our first class high-school and several grades at the cost of $61,500, being occupied in the Fall of 1916." (A Brief History of the Town of Maynard, William H. Gutteridge.)

In 1916, Mr. William H. Millington was Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. P. W. Averill was the Principal of Maynard High School. The faculty consisted of six teachers, and the total student enrollment was 159.

The sessions were from 8:30 A.M. to 11:45 P.M., and from 1:15 P.M. to 3:45 P.M. The academic course attended one session, and the commercial course attended two sessions.

The George Washington Auditorium was added to the school in 1926 as a dual-purpose gymnasium and auditorium. The Maynard Memorial Gymnasium was constructed in 1956 to meet the growing needs of physical education and sports' activities.

(Annual Reports of the Town of Maynard)

The present Superintendent of Schools is Mr. Albert Lerer, and the present high school Principal is Mr. Frediano D. Mattioli. The faculty is comprised of twenty-one classroom instructors, and a total of seven instructors for art, guidance, music, and sports' programs. The student enrollment is 443. Academic, business, and general courses are offered during the 8:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. school day.

A "new" Maynard High School is under construction on Great Road in Maynard, and plans are being made to transfer to that school before the end of the present (1963-1964) school year.
